

New Directions encouraged me, supported me, and helped me reach my goals. They had faith in me when I had lost all of mine. They really care and it's a great program. Offering a free program to help people earn their diplomas is great. Many people can't afford the credits let alone the books to re-enroll in school. Everyone deserves an education. I would hate to see NDLA lose their funding.