

HB2457 - Amending the tax credit for low income student scholarship program act.

Kansas has statistical evidence that we are spending more and more on public education.

Other states have statistical evidence that school choice competition both lowers costs and boosts outcomes.

Why is Kansas reluctant to introduce a proven model for change, School Choice?

Thank you,
Becky Elder
Northfield School of the Liberal Arts