

The story and legacy of this young man has been made known by many who raised him, lived with him, served with him, served by him, and loved him. His contribution and sacrifice to his family, friends, community, and country; to his brotherhood of warriors and to oppressed people in foreign lands cannot be properly measured by mortals but only by God. It is however, our opportunity, responsibility and privilege to remember 2LT Justin Sisson, and to present his life as a guidepost for all citizens who aspire to the highest level of Honor. The state of Kansas has this opportunity today to place the name of this hero for all to see. This name will be seen by many and many will tell his story to each other and to their children. Thus his honor will live and grow in perpetuity and will continue to shape the American spirit and provide hope for this world.
