Prayer by Rep. Bethell:

Our Heavenly Father,

You have told us through your word that we are to come into your presence with thanksgiving. We at this time come before you thanking you for the many blessings you have bestowed upon us and the opportunities you place before us.

Your word tells us that you knew us before we were formed; and you know what is planned for us. It is with that in mind that we ask today that you impart your wisdom, courage and strength to us that we may act responsibly as your servants in the discharge of the duties of our respective offices. Help us to bring honor and glory to your name as we serve the people of Kansas. Guide our every thought that we may keep in focus the goal that you have placed before us.

Continue to direct our every action that they may be pleasing to you.

For we ask this in your name. Amen.
