TWELFTH DAY

---

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, January 30, 2002—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Dave Kerr.

President Kerr introduced as guest chaplain, Senator Stan Clark, who delivered the invocation:

Father, everyday at this time the Kansas Senate pauses to remember You; to acknowledge that you are our Lord, our Redeemer and our Savior; to thank you for creating the world and everything in it; for creating us, each unique individuals with differing personalities, talents, preferences and backgrounds; though our parts are 40 we are to work together to form one body.

Father, you instructed us to rejoice in our sufferings because suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope. Too many times I have missed out on this promise and haven't matured into the person you want me to become, please forgive me and help me to complain less and to rejoice more. Teach me the lessons of growth through suffering and perseverance and mold me into the servant you want me to become.

Father, we ask you to return our spiritual shepherd, Fred, to us. We ask that you grant him renewed health.

Father, thank you for the moisture we are receiving outside, we ask for safety for those that are traveling and I ask that you push the moisture a couple hundred miles further west where it is really needed.

Thank you for caring personally for each one of us and we are grateful that You are Lord of all.
I pray this in your Son's name.

Amen.
