

Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY

---

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, February 20, 2002—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Dave Kerr.

The roll was called with forty senators present.

President Kerr introduced as guest chaplain, Rev. John Ortiz, Lighthouse Baptist Church, Emporia, who delivered the invocation:

Dear Heavenly Father . . . we have seen in the past few months what the Human Spirit can do; from the devastation of September 11th to the Victories of the Winter Olympics. Our Human Spirits can lift our patriotism to new heights, it can make us faster, stronger and smarter than we have ever been before, however this afternoon I do “not” ask you to empower our Human Spirits to new heights, but I ask that you fill us with your Holy Spirits.

Please give our legislature the kind of power that can feed the hungry, heal the sick, and make the lame to walk again. Give them the Wisdom of Solomon, and the compassion of Jesus.

Today their decisions may determine whether or not someone, will eat or go hungry, whether someone will remain sick or have medicine, yes and even if someone should have the right to take life or allow it to live.

Whatever, the decisions that are made today, I pray that they are done with the fullness of your sweet, sweet Spirit.

I ask only one more thing as we come to you in Prayer . . . God Bless America! Amen

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote "no" on SB 402 because a good charter school bill should allow for true competition and entrepreneurship in order to foster the very best educational opportunities for all students. This legislation has a few "crumbs" of improvement to our current law. But it does not deal with the fatal flaw that makes Kansas's charter school law one of the worst in the nation. Also it actually exacerbates the problem by increasing local veto power over any charter school effort.—KAY O'CONNOR

Nays: Barone, Feleciano, Gilstrap, Gooch, Goodwin, Haley, Hensley, Pugh.

The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote no on SB 407.

While the idea of keg registration is an admirable one, this bill enacts new legislation that is damaging to the concept of local control.

Any law passed by a city or county, even if it is more stringent than this legislation, would be rendered moot by this bill. That is a dangerous idea. I cannot support a bill that places all power in Topeka, especially not when most Kansans prefer local control and more responsibility for local governments than for state government.

MR. PRESIDENT, I would be more supportive of this bill if it granted local communities the authority to, if they see fit, enact local rules regarding keg registration.

We are perfectly within our rights to require keg registration, and I am supportive of such a measure, but we are overstepping our authority when we limit the authority of our local governments. This is but another example of "big government."—JIM BARONE
