

Journal of the House

FORTY-FIFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, March 14, 2006, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Mays in the chair.
The roll was called with 123 members present.
Reps. Grant and Winn were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Chamberlain:

Precious Lord, Redeemer and Sustainer of your people, praise be to you!
You are our Rock and Refuge, our ever-present source of help in time of need. You call forth life from the earth and nurture us with its abundance.
We thank you, O God, for your blessings.

The sun is shining on our land today. We are thinking of crops that lie waiting to spring forth from the earth and others that await planting in the warming soil of spring. We plant, O God, but it is you who waters and warms and who gives growth to the bounty that feeds us.

Thank you, Lord, for the bountiful land of Kansas. Thank you for the fertility of her soil and abundance of her beauty. Thank you for her people whose industry and faith have served you and brought us to our present bounty.

Bless the representatives of the people assembled in this chamber. Make their work fertile and the harvest of their efforts rich and beneficial to all your people. May the work that they are completing be the product of your divine guidance and may its yield please you. And help us all, Lord, whatever our calling to plow the ground straight and deep, so that the abundance of your love might grow unchecked. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Garcia.

The Senate accedes to the request of the House for a conference on HB 2592 and has appointed Senators Emler, Apple and Lee as conferees on the part of the Senate.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Reps. Ballard and Oharah, HR 6018, A resolution in memory of Gordon Parks, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Ballard are spread upon the Journal:

Gordon Parks was born in Fort Scott, Kansas, in 1912. He died last Tuesday, March 7, 2006, in New York at the age of 93. He attended a segregated grade school and would have gone to a black-only high school if the town could have afforded separate high schools. Blacks could not participate in sports and could not attend social events at the school.

Parks was 15 when his mother died. Her final request was that her son escape Kansas and he was sent to live with an older sister in Minnesota.

Parks was working as a porter on the North Coast Limited and happened to buy a camera for $7.50. He said to himself that, "It wasn't much of a camera," but it was his weapon against a warped past and an uncertain future. The rest is history. The Kansas Native made his mark as a photojournalist, film-maker, musician and author.

Mr. Parks "made peace with Kansas." His attitude changed over the years about his home state. Finally, he was recognized by Kansas — honor after honor. It is true, we all need affirmation of our dignity and worth. We all want respect.

"Kansas and I have made good friends with one another," he said in 1998 at Washburn University, where he received the Kansas Arts Commission's Distinguished Arts Award. "I made peace with Kansas, and Kansas made peace with me." Parks announced last month he wanted to be buried in his hometown of Fort Scott, Kansas. "That is my home and this is what I want to go back to," he said near the end of a videotaped interview played February 10th at the University of Kansas, where he was honored with the William Allen White Foundation National Citation. Parks' mother would be proud. She would not believe that the House of Representatives was honoring her son today. She would be very proud.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Oharah are spread upon the Journal:

I had the honor of meeting Gordon Parks once in my lifetime. In that meeting I knew that I was in the presence of greatness.

Gordon Parks lifetime of achievements came in spite of growing up in racially divided times as depicted in his autobiographical novel and movie, The Learning Tree.

Mr. Parks used his life experiences to catapult into greatness that spanned many different disciplines.

Mr. Parks used his many talents to break down the barriers of race and heal the wounds caused by the racial divide.

As Mr. Parks travels to his final resting place in Fort Scott, Kansas, it is comforting to know he will continue to be a giant among men and a hero to younger generations.

Rep. Ballard introduced Charles and Ella Parks of Lawrence. Charles is the nephew of Gordon Parks.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

Rep. Landwehr introduced and recognized the following law enforcement officers who were responsible for the capture and conviction of serial killer BTK: Kevin Stafford, Agent John Sullivan and Agent Chuck Pritchett of the FBI; Director Larry Welch, Agent Larry Thomas and Agent Ray Lundin of the KBI; Sindy Schueler of the KBI laboratory; Chief Norman Williams, Deputy Chief Robert Lee, and Detectives Tim Relph, Kelly Otis, Dana Gouge, Randy Stone, Clint Snyder, Cheryl James, and assistant Janet Johnson, all of the Wichita Police Department; Shelly Steadman and Dan Fahnestock of the Police Laboratory.

Rep. Landwehr also introduced Lt. Ken Landwehr who was the head of the BTK task force and is with the Wichita Police Department. Lt. Landwehr addressed a few remarks to the members of the House.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I am thinking today about FBI agent Stanley Ronquist who was the victim of a robbery attempt by the same people who robbed my son. My son lost his wallet. Agent Ronquist lost his life.

Unfortunately, if this bill becomes law, some day, someone will think they are protected from danger because they are carrying a concealed weapon. But, like agent Ronquist, they will be killed with their own gun. On that day, we who voted against this bill will remember what we did. I sincerely hope that those who vote differently will be able to forget. I vote "no" on SB 418.—JIM YONALLY

On motion of Rep. Aurand, the House resolved into Committee of the Whole, with Rep. Edmonds in the chair.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE
