

MINUTES OF MEETING

The meeting was called to order and the Chairman briefly discussed S.C.R. 33, memorializing the U. S. Congress to propose an amendment to the constitution relative to balancing expenditures and income of the U. S. government.

After considerable discussion as to the effect of such a resolution and if it would indeed receive any consideration from the federal government, it was moved by Mr. Gardner and seconded by Miss Jacquart that the resolution be recommended for adoption. Motion carried by a majority vote.
