

SENATE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE

Minutes of the Meeting
January 19, 1961

The meeting was called to order by the Chairman at 10:00 A.M. on January 19, 1961. All members were present.

The chairman introduced the head of the Budget Division, Mr. James Bibb, and Mildred LeSuer, senior analyst from the department of the budget. They briefed the committee on the functions of the budget department.

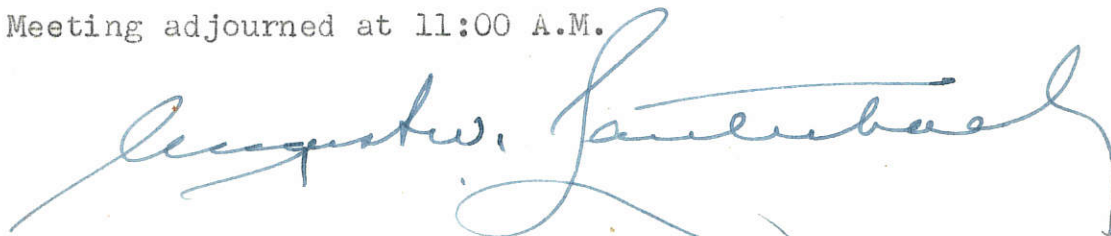

It was announced by the chairman that the committee would work through subcommittees composed of two or more members of the committee, who will work with the analyst from the budget department. These subcommittees will prepare their reports in writing for presentation to the committee, and the reports are to be signed.

Senator Smith moved that an agreement be made with the Ways and Means Committee of the House regarding the division of the various agencies of government, and the bills for appropriations to originate from each committee. Senator Warren seconded the motion, which carried unanimously.

Senator Sanborn moved that Helen Martin be employed as secretary to the committee at a salary of $12.00 per day, pursuant to House Bill No. 1, 1961 Session. Motion was seconded by Senator Warren, and carried unanimously.

The Chairman announced that a joint session of the House and Senate Ways and Means Committees would meet at 9:00 A.M. on Jan. 23, 24, and 25 for the purpose of schooling and information, particularly for the new members of the committees. These meetings to be held in the Ways and Means Committee room of the House of Representatives.

Meeting adjourned at 11:00 A.M.
