Senator Jan Meyers
Chairman, Public Health and Welfare Committee
State Capitol
Topeka, KS

Dear Senator Meyers:

In testimony on SB 112 before the Senate Public Health and Welfare Committee on February 16, Jim Hammond, RPT, and representative of the Physical Therapy Examining Committee and Board of Healing Arts, did not address the reason the Board has requested a fee increase. (SB 112, P. 8, Lines 0270-0272).

By January 31 of each year, a Physical Therapist must renew registration to practice in Kansas. If a Therapist does not renew the Board of Healing Arts sends three delinquent notices to the Therapist. If renewal is not forthcoming, the Board then notifies the Therapist he/she is no longer registered to practice in Kansas, notifies Blue Cross to withhold reimbursement to the Therapist, and, where appropriate, notifies the institution where the Therapist works that he/she is no longer registered.

Currently there are 54 Therapists who have not renewed their 1983 registration. Most of these will have moved out-of-state and will not be renewing their registration, however, the Board of Healing Arts must still try to track down these Therapists and go through the procedure outlined above.

The current delinquent fee is $1 a month for each month of delinquency, (Lines 0268-0270) and does not cover the costs involved.

We felt you would like to have this explanation in the event the fee increase is questioned in committee discussion.

Sincerely,
Susan Hanrahan
Chairman, Legislative
Committee, KAPTA
