REPORT FOR THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON LABOR AND INDUSTRY

On February 15, 1984, the Kansas Senate passed, by a vote of 40-0, Senate Bill 581. Currently KSA 44-703 specifically removes from the definition of "employment" those individuals under the age of twenty-two (22) who are attending school, and as part of their educational curriculum, are in a work study program. This bill removes the age restriction so that any student, regardless of age, will not be considered "employed" for the purposes of the act.

Three (3) amendments are being offered to bring other sections of the Kansas Employment Security Law into conformity or to insure that Kansas employers may be properly certified for FUTA tax off-set credit.

- (A) Correction of KSA 44-706(k) to agree with other language in the Kansas Employment Security Law:

Last year the Kansas Legislature passed House Bill 2511 which brought KSA 44-706(j) into conformity with Federal law in that it provided for between-term denials of nonprofessional employees of institutions of higher education. Inadvertently KSA 44-706(k) was not amended at the same time to agree with KSA 44-706(j).

This error was brought to our attention by the U.S. Department of Labor (USDOL) on July 28, 1983 (attachment 1). In the letter, USDOL officials requested assurances that, while our law was not in strict conformity, that we would administer the law so as to not raise a conformity issue. Legal research was conducted as to our ability to do so and a letter was forwarded to USDOL on August 23, 1983 (attachment 2) providing the proper assurances. USDOL responded on October 7, 1983 (attachment 3) seeking further assurances that the Kansas agency would actually operate within the confines of the Federal law. Our memorandum of intent (attachment 4) was mailed on October 17, 1983. USDOL responded on November 17, 1983 (attachment 5) that sufficient interim assurance had been supplied and that a conformity issue would not be raised provided that correcting legislation be enacted during the 1984 Kansas Legislative Session.

This proposal is, therefore, being offered to insure conformity with Federal law.

- (B) Provide for between-term denials for employees of Educational Service Agencies as required by Federal law:

The Kansas Department of Human Resources was advised by USDOL on September 13, 1983, that Public Law 98-21 (Social Security Act Amendments of 1983) had been enacted into law. One provision of the act stipulated that State law be amended to provide for between-term and holiday or vacation recess denials for employees in any capacity of "educational service agencies."

Atch. 1

An "educational service agency" is an entity established to provide special services to one or more educational institutions. An example of this type of operation in Kansas would be a "Co-op" in which a group is established to provide such services as special education or counseling for more than one unified school district.

A copy of the letter from USDOL (attachment 6) is attached for your use during consideration of this confirmity issue.

(C) Allows for Assigning Less Than the Standard Rate for "Newly-Recaptured" Employers:

If a State law meets certain Federal standards, employers within the state may partially off-set their federal unemployment tax (FUTA) liability with proof of payment of State unemployment insurance contributions. This proposal insures that Kansas law meets federal standards as it relates to "newly recaptured" employers thus insuring maximum credit.

Employers under the Kansas Employment Security Law acquire, through continued coverage, experience factors which are used in determining their contribution rate. The Kansas law requires that there must be at least 24 months between the date the employer established liability (meets a test to become an employer) and the computation date in order that the employer may be considered for a contribution rate based on experience. This may occur in either three (3) or four (4) years depending on the date the requirement is met.

As a further condition, generally the employer must have paid wages for at least the last three calendar years prior to the computation date. If an employer cannot meet this test, they must wait until they have "recaptured" sufficient experience to meet all conditions.

For the Kansas law to meet certification requirements, a "newly-recaptured" employer (an employer with experience factors but has not paid wages in all of the three years prior to the rate computation date) must be treated equally with new employers under the law, i.e., they must be allowed to again be eligible for a computed rate within the same time frame as a new employer.

This change in the Kansas law will allow "newly-recaptured" employers to enjoy the benefit of maximum off-set credit for FUTA liability. Documentation for this proposal may be found in attachments 7-9.

Substitute for SENATE BILL NO. 581

By Committee on Labor and Industry

3-20-84

AN ACT concerning the employment security law; relating to benefits and contributions; amending K.S.A. 1983 Supp. 44-706 and K.S.A. 1983 Supp. 44-703, as amended by section 1 of 1984 House Bill No. 2629 and K.S.A. 1983 Supp. 44-710a, as amended by section 3 of 1984 House Bill No. 2629 and repealing the existing sections.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Kansas:

Section 1. K.S.A. 1983 Supp. 44-703, as amended by section 1 of 1984 House Bill No. 2629 is hereby amended to read as follows: 44-703. (2) "Average annual payroll" means the average of the annual payrolls of any employer for the last three calendar years immediately preceding the computation date as hereinafter defined if the employer has been continuously subject to contributions during those three calendar years and has paid some wages for employment during each of such years. In determining contribution rates for the calendar year, if an employer has not been continuously subject to contribution for the three calendar years immediately preceding the computation date but has paid wages subject to contributions during only the two calendar years immediately preceding the computation date, such employer's "average annual payroll" shall be the average of the payrolls for those two calendar years.

(b) "Base period" means the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of an individual's benefit year, except that the base period in respect to combined wage claims means the base period as defined in the law of the paying state.

When such filing occurs with respect to a week which overlaps the preceding benefit year, the subsequent benefit year shall commence on the first day immediately following the expiration date of the preceding benefit year. Any claim for benefits made in accordance with subsection (a) of K.S.A. 44-709 and amendments thereto shall be deemed to be a "valid claim" for the purposes of this subsection if the individual has been paid wages for insured work as required under subsection (e) of K.S.A. 44-705 and amendments thereto. Whenever a week of unemployment overlaps two benefit years, such week shall, for the purpose of granting waiting-period credit or benefit payment with respect thereto, be deemed to be a week of unemployment within that benefit year in which the greater part of such week occurs.

(a) Beginning with the week in which the valid initial claim is filed and for the 10 consecutive weeks which immediately follow such week and shall forfeit benefit entitlement equal to 10 times the individual's determined weekly benefit amount, but not less than an amount equal to such individual's determined weekly benefit amount if the individual left the last work voluntarily without good cause. An individual shall have left work voluntarily with good cause for either work related or personal reasons, if:

(1) After pursuing all reasonable alternatives, the circumstances causing the separation were of such urgent, compelling or necessitous nature as to provide the individual with no alternative but to leave the work voluntarily; or

(2) the reasons for the separation were of such nature that a reasonable and prudent individual would separate from the employment under the same circumstances. If an individual leaves work by the individual's own action because of domestic or family responsibilities, not including pregnancy, self-employment or to retire because of disability or old age, or to attend school such individual shall be disqualified for benefits until such individual again becomes employed and has had earnings of at least eight times such individual's weekly benefit amount. act of 1974.

(b) Beginning with the week in which the valid initial claim is filed and for the 10 consecutive weeks which immediately follow such week and shall forfeit benefit entitlement equal to 10 times the individual's determined weekly benefit amount, but not less than an amount equal to such individual's determined weekly benefit amount if the individual has been discharged from the individual's last work for a breach of a duty connected with the individual's work reasonably owed an employer by an employee, except that if an individual is discharged for gross misconduct connected with the individual's work, such individual shall be disqualified for benefits until such individual again becomes employed and has had earnings of at least eight times such individual's weekly benefit amount. The term "gross misconduct" as used in this subsection shall be construed to mean conduct evincing willful and wanton disregard of an employer's interest or a carelessness or negligence of such degree or recurrence as to show an intentional or substantial disregard of the employer's interest.

In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the secretary of human resources, or a person or persons designated by the secretary, shall consider the degree of risk involved to health, safety, and morals, physical fitness and prior training, experience and prior earnings, length of unemployment and prospects for securing local work in the individual's customary occupation or work for which the individual is reasonably fitted by training or experience, and the distance of the available work from the individual's residence. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this act, an otherwise eligible individual shall not be disqualified for refusing an offer of suitable employment, or failing to apply for suitable employment when notified by an employment office, or for leaving the individual's most recent work accepted during approved training, including training approved under section 236(a)(1) of the trade act of 1974, if the acceptance of or applying for suitable employment or continuing such work would require the individual to terminate approved training and no work shall be deemed suitable and benefits shall not be denied under this act to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions: (1) If the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute; (2) if the remuneration, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality; (3) if as a condition of being employed, the individual would be required to join or to resign from or refrain from joining any labor organization.

(d) For any week with respect to which the secretary of human resources, or a person or persons designated by the secretary, finds that the individual's unemployment is due to a stoppage of work which exists because of a labor dispute or there would have been a work stoppage had normal operations not been maintained with other personnel previously and currently employed by the same employer at the factory, establishment, or other premises at which the individual is or was last employed, except that this subsection shall not apply if it is shown to the satisfaction of the secretary of human resources, or a person or persons designated by the secretary, that: (1) The individual is not participating in or financing or directly interested in the labor dispute which caused the stoppage of work; and (2) the individual does not belong to a grade or class of workers of which, immediately before the commencement of the stoppage, there were members employed at the premises at which the stoppage occurs any of whom are participating in or financing or directly interested in the dispute. If in any case separate branches of work which are commonly conducted as separate businesses in separate premises are conducted in separate departments of the same premises, each such department shall, for the purpose of this subsection, be deemed to be a separate factory, establishment, or other premises. For the purposes of this subsection, failure or refusal to cross a picket line or refusal for any reason during the continuance of such labor dispute to accept the individual's available and customary work at the factory, establishment, or other premises where the individual is or was last employed shall be considered as participation and interest in the labor dispute.

(e) For any week with respect to which or a part of which the individual has received or is seeking unemployment benefits under the unemployment compensation law of any other state or of the United States, except that if the appropriate agency of such other state or the United States finally determines that the individual is not entitled to such unemployment benefits, this disqualification shall not apply.

(f) For any week with respect to which the individual is entitled to receive any unemployment allowance or compensation granted by the United States under an act of congress to ex-service men and women in recognition of former service with the military or naval services of the United States.

(g) For the period of one year beginning with the first day following the last week of unemployment for which the individual received benefits, or for one year from the date the act was committed, whichever is the later, if the individual, or another in such individual's behalf with the knowledge of the individual, has knowingly made a false statement or representation, or has knowingly failed to disclose a material fact to obtain or increase benefits under this act or any other unemployment compensation law administered by the secretary of human resources.

(h) For any week with respect to which the individual is receiving compensation for temporary total disability or permanent total disability under the workmen's compensation law of any state or under a similar law of the United States.

(i) For any week of unemployment on the basis of service in an instructional, research or principal administrative capacity for an educational institution as defined in subsection (v) of K.S.A. 44-703 and amendments thereto, if such week begins during the period between two successive academic years or terms or, when an agreement provides instead for a similar period between two regular but not successive terms during such period or during a period of paid sabbatical leave provided for in the individual's contract, if the individual performs such services in the first of such academic years or terms and there is a contract or a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform services in any such capacity for any educational institution in the second of such academic years or terms.

(j) For any week of unemployment on the basis of service in any capacity other than service in an instructional, research, or administrative capacity in an educational institution, as defined in subsection (v) of K.S.A. 44-703 and amendments thereto, if such week begins during the period between two successive academic years or terms if the individual performs such services in the first of such academic years or terms and there is a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform such services in the second of such academic years or terms, except that if benefits are denied to the individual under this subsection and the individual was not offered an opportunity to perform such services for the educational institution for the second of such academic years or terms, such individual shall be entitled to a retroactive payment of benefits for each week for which the individual filed a timely claim for benefits and for which benefits were denied solely by reason of this subsection.

(k) For any week of unemployment on the basis of service in ~~an instructional, research or principal administrative~~ any capacity for an educational institution as defined in subsection

(v) of K.S.A. 44-703 and amendments thereto, ~~or for service in any other capacity in an educational institution other than an institution of higher education as defined in subsection (u) of K.S.A. 44-703 and amendments thereto~~, if such week begins during an established and customary vacation period or holiday recess if the individual performs services in the period immediately before such vacation period or holiday recess and there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform such services in the period immediately following such vacation period or holiday recess.

(l) For any week of unemployment on the basis of any services, substantially all of which consist of participating in sports or athletic events or training or preparing to so participate, if such week begins during the period between two successive sport seasons or similar period if such individual performed services in the first of such seasons or similar periods and there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform such services in the later of such seasons or similar periods.

(m) For any week on the basis of services performed by an alien unless such alien is an individual who was lawfully admitted for permanent residence at the time such services were performed, was lawfully present for purposes of performing such services, or was permanently residing in the United States under color of law at the time such services were performed, including an alien who was lawfully present in the United States as a result of the application of the provisions of section 203(a)(7) or section 212(d)(5) of the federal immigration and nationality act. Any data or information required of individuals applying for benefits to determine whether benefits are not payable to them because of their alien status shall be uniformly required from all applicants for benefits. In the case of an individual whose application for benefits would otherwise be approved, no determination that benefits to such individual are not payable because of such individual's alien status shall be made except upon a preponderance of the evidence.

(n) For any week in which an individual is receiving a governmental or other pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment under a plan maintained by a base period employer and to which the entire contributions were provided by such employer, except that: (1) If the entire contributions to such plan were provided by the base period employer but such individual's weekly benefit amount exceeds such governmental or other pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment attributable to such week, the weekly benefit amount payable to the individual shall be reduced (but not below zero) by an amount equal to the amount of such pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment which is attributable to such week; or (2) if only a portion of contributions to such plan were provided by the base period employer, the weekly benefit amount payable to such individual for such week shall be reduced (but not below zero) by the prorated weekly amount of the pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment after deduction of that portion of the pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment that is directly attributable to the percentage of the contributions made to the plan by such individual; or (3) if the entire contributions to the plan were provided by such individual, or by the individual and an employer (or any person or organization) who is not a base period employer, no reduction in the weekly benefit amount payable to the individual for such week shall be made under this subsection (n); or (4) whatever portion of contributions to such plan were provided by the base period employer, if the services performed for the employer by such individual during the base period, or remuneration received for the services, did not affect the individual's eligibility for, or increased the amount of, such pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment, no reduction in the weekly benefit amount payable to the individual for such week shall be made under this subsection (n). The conditions specified in clause (4) of this subsection (n) shall not apply to payments made under the social security act or the railroad retirement act of 1974, or the corresponding provisions of prior law. Payments made under these acts shall be treated as otherwise provided in this subsection (n). If the reduced weekly benefit amount is not a multiple of $1, it shall be computed to the next higher multiple of $1, except that for new claims filed after June 30, 1983, it shall be reduced to the next lower multiple of $1.

(o) For any week of unemployment on the basis of services performed in any capacity and under any of the circumstances described in subsection (i), (j) or (k) which an individual performed in an educational institution while in the employ of an educational service agency. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "educational service agency" means a governmental agency or entity which is established and operated exclusively for the purpose of providing such services to one or more educational institutions.

Sec. 3. K.S.A. 1983 Supp. 44-710a, as amended by section 3 of 1984 House Bill No. 2629 is hereby amended to read as follows: 44-710a. (a) Classification of employers by the secretary. The term "employer" as used in this section refers to contributing employers. The secretary shall classify employers in accordance with their actual experience in the payment of contributions on their own behalf and with respect to benefits charged against their accounts with a view of fixing such contribution rates as will reflect such experience. If, as of the date such classification of employers is made, the secretary finds that any employing unit has failed to file any report required in connection therewith, or has filed a report which the secretary finds incorrect or insufficient, the secretary shall make an estimate of the information required from such employing unit on the basis of the best evidence reasonably available to the secretary at the time, and notify the employing unit thereof by mail addressed to its last known address. Unless such employing unit shall file the report or a corrected or sufficient report as the case may be, within 15 days after the mailing of such notice, the secretary shall compute such employing unit's rate of contributions on the basis of such estimates, and the rate as so determined shall be subject to increase but not to reduction on the basis of subsequently ascertained information. The secretary shall determine the contribution rate of each employer in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(1) New employers. (A) No employer will be eligible for a rate computation until there have been 24 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding the computation date throughout which benefits could have been charged against such employer's account.

(B) (i) Effective January 1, 1983, employers who are not eligible for a rate computation shall pay contributions at an assigned rate equal to the sum of 1% plus the greater of the average rate assigned in the preceding calendar year to all employers in such industry division or the average rate assigned to all covered employers during the preceding calendar year, except that in no instance shall any such assigned rate be less than 2%. Employers engaged in more than one type of industrial activity shall be classified by principal activity. All rates assigned will remain in effect for a complete calendar year. If the sale or acquisition of a new establishment would require reclassification of the employer to a different industry division, the employer would be promptly notified, and the contribution rate applicable to the new industry division would become effective the following January 1.

(ii) For purposes of this subsection (a), employers shall be classified by industrial activity in accordance with standard procedures as set forth in rules and regulations adopted by the secretary.

(C) "Computation date" means June 30 of each calendar year with respect to rates of contribution applicable to the calendar year beginning with the following January 1. In arriving at contribution rates for each calendar year, contributions paid on or before July 31 following the computation date for employment occurring on or prior to the computation date shall be considered for each contributing employer who has been subject to this act for a sufficient period of time to have such employer's rate computed under this subsection (a).

(2) Eligible employers. (A) A reserve ratio shall be computed for each eligible employer by the following method: Total benefits charged to the employer's account for all past years shall be deducted from all contributions paid by such employer for all such years. The balance, positive or negative, shall be divided by the employer's average annual payroll, and the result shall constitute the employer reserve ratio.

(B) Negative account balance employers as defined in subsection (d) shall pay contributions at the rate of 5.4% for calendar year 1983 and all years thereafter.

(C) Eligible employers, other than negative account balance employers, who do not meet the average annual payroll requirements as stated in subsection (a)(2) of K.S.A. 44-703 and amendments thereto, will be issued the maximum rate indicated in subsection (a)(3)(C) of this section until an average annual payroll can be obtained there have been 24 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding the computation date throughout which benefits could have been charged against such employer's account. Contribution rates effective for each calendar year thereafter shall be determined as prescribed below.

(D) As of each computation date, the total of the taxable wages paid during the twelve-month period prior to the computation date by all employers eligible for rate computation, except negative account balance employers, shall be divided into 21 approximately equal parts designated in column A of schedule I as "rate groups," except, with regard to a year in which the taxable wage base changes. The taxable wages used in the calculation for such a year and the following year shall be an estimate of what the taxable wages would have been if the new taxable wage base had been in effect during the entire twelve-month period prior to the computation date. The lowest numbered of such rate groups shall consist of the employers with the most favorable reserve ratios, as defined in this section, whose combined taxable wages paid are less than 4.76% of all taxable wages paid by all eligible employers. Each succeeding higher numbered rate group shall consist of employers with reserve ratios that are less favorable than those of employers in the preceding lower numbered rate groups and whose taxable wages when combined with the taxable wages of employers in all lower numbered rate groups equal the appropriate percentage of total taxable wages designated in column B of schedule I. Each eligible employer, other than a negative account balance employer, shall be assigned an experience factor designated under column C of schedule I in accordance with the rate group to which the employer is assigned on the basis of the employer's reserve ratio and taxable payroll. If an employer's taxable payroll falls into more than one rate group the employer shall be assigned the experience factor of the lower numbered rate group. If one or more employers have reserve ratios identical to that of the last employer included in the next lower numbered rate group, all such employers shall be assigned the experience factor designated to such last employer, notwithstanding the position of their taxable payroll in column B of schedule I.

The amount of the surcharge shall be determined from column B of schedule II of this section. Each negative account balance employer who does not satisfy the requirements to have an average annual payroll, as defined by subsection (a)(2) of K.S.A. 44-703 and amendments thereto, shall be assigned a surcharge of 1%. The taxable wages used in the calculation for such a year and the following year shall be an estimate of what the taxable wages would have been if the new taxable wage base had been in effect during all of the preceding fiscal year ending June 30.

(C) Effective rates. Except with regard to rates for negative account balance employers, employer contribution rates to be effective for the ensuing calendar year shall be computed by adjusting proportionately the experience factors from schedule I of this section to the required yield on taxable wages. For the purposes of this subsection (a)(3), all rates computed shall be rounded to the nearest .01% and for calendar year 1983 and ensuing calendar years, the maximum effective contribution rate shall not exceed 5.4%.

(b) Successor classification. (1) For the purposes of this subsection (b), whenever an employing unit, whether or not it is an "employing unit" within the meaning of subsection (g) of K.S.A. 44-703 and amendments thereto, becomes an employer pursuant to subsection (h)(4) of K.S.A. 44-703 and amendments thereto or is an employer at the time of acquisition and meets the definition of a "successor employer" as defined by subsection (dd) of K.S.A. 44-703 and amendments thereto and is controlled substantially either directly or indirectly by legally enforceable means or otherwise by the same interest or interests, shall acquire the experience rating factors of the predecessor employer. These factors consist of all contributions paid, benefit experience and annual payrolls of the predecessor employer.

(2) A successor employer as defined by subsection (h)(4) or subsection (dd) of K.S.A. 44-703 and amendments thereto may receive the experience rating factors of the predecessor employer if an application is made to the secretary or the secretary's designee in writing within 120 days of the date of the transfer.

(3) Whenever an employing unit, whether or not it is an "employing unit" within the meaning of subsection (g) of K.S.A. 44-703 and amendments thereto, acquires or in any manner succeeds to a percentage of an employer's annual payroll which is less than 100% and intends to continue the acquired percentage as a going business, may acquire the same percentage of the predecessor's experience factors if: (A) The predecessor employer and successor employing unit make an application in writing on the form prescribed by the secretary, (B) the application is submitted within 120 days of the date of the transfer, (C) the successor employing unit is or becomes an employer subject to this act immediately after the transfer, (D) the percentage of the experience rating factors transferred shall not be thereafter used in computing the contribution rate for the predecessor employer, and (E) the secretary finds that such transfer will not tend to defeat or obstruct the object and purposes of this act.

(4) If the acquiring employing unit was an employer subject to this act prior to the date of the transfer, the rate of contribution for the period from such date to the end of the then current contribution year shall be the same as the contribution rate prior to the date of the transfer. An employing unit which was not subject to this act prior to the date of the transfer shall have a newly computed rate based on the transferred experience rating factors as of the computation date immediately preceding the date of acquisition. These experience rating factors consist of all contributions paid, benefit experience and annual payrolls.

(5) Whenever an employer's account has been terminated as provided in subsections (d) and (e) of K.S.A. 44-711 and amendments thereto and the employer continues with employment to liquidate the business operations, that employer shall continue to be an "employer" subject to the employment security law as provided in subsection (h)(8) of K.S.A. 44-703 and amendments thereto. The rate of contribution from the date of transfer to the end of the then current calendar year shall be the same as the contribution rate prior to the date of the transfer. At the completion of the then current calendar year, the rate of contribution shall be that of a "new employer" as described in subsection (a)(1) of K.S.A. 44-710a and amendments thereto.

(6) No rate computation will be permitted an employing unit succeeding to the experience of another employing unit pursuant to this section for any period subsequent to such succession except in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the secretary. Any such regulations shall be consistent with federal requirements for additional credit allowance in section 3303 of the internal revenue code, and consistent with the provisions of this act.

(c) Voluntary contributions. Notwithstanding any provision of this act or the act of which this act is amendatory, any employer may make voluntary payments for the purpose of reducing or maintaining a reduced rate in addition to the contributions required under this section. Such voluntary payments may be made only during the thirty-day period immediately following the date of mailing of experience rating notices for a calendar year. All such voluntary contribution payments shall be paid prior to the expiration of 120 days after the beginning of the year for which such rates are effective. The amount of voluntary contributions shall be credited to the employer's account as of the next preceding computation date and the employer's rate shall be computed accordingly, except that no employer's rate shall be reduced more than two rate groups as provided in schedule I of this section as the result of a voluntary payment. An employer not having a negative account balance may have such employer's rate reduced not more than two rate groups as provided in schedule I of this section as a result of a voluntary payment. An employer having a negative account balance may have such employer's rate reduced to that prescribed for rate group 21 of schedule I of this section by making a voluntary payment in the amount of such negative account balance or to that rate prescribed for rate group 20 of schedule I of this section by making an additional voluntary payment that would increase such employer's reserve ratio to the lower limit required for such rate group 20. Under no circumstances shall voluntary payments be refunded in whole or in part.

(d) As used in this section, "negative account balance employer" means an eligible employer whose total benefits charged to such employer's account for all past years have exceeded all contributions paid by such employer for all such years.

Sec. 4. K.S.A. 1983 Supp. 44-706, and K.S.A. 1983 Supp. 44-703, as amended by section 1 of 1984 House Bill No. 2629 and K.S.A. 1983 Supp. 44-710a, as amended by section 3 of 1984 House Bill No. 2629 are hereby repealed.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the statute book.
