Date 2/15/84

MINUTES OF THE SENATE COMMITTEE ON AGRICULTURE AND SMALL BUSINESS

The meeting was called to order by Senator Fred Kerr at _____ Chairperson

10:00 a.m./~~p.m.~~ on Tuesday, February 14, 1984, 19__ in room 423-S of the Capitol.

All members were present except: Senator Jim Allen (E)
Senator Ed Reilly (E)

Committee staff present: Raney Gilliland, Research Department
Jim Wilson, Revisor's Office

Conferees appearing before the committee: None

Senator Thiessen called attention to "Animal Health Corporation" as set out in the minutes of February 9, 1984, on page 3, should specify the correct name as "Animal Welfare Rights Organizations". The correction was made and Senator Norvell moved the minutes of committee meetings held February 9 and February 10, 1984, be approved, seconded by Senator Thiessen. Motion carried.

SCR 1658

Senator Kerr called attention to the amendment to SCR 1658 as recommended by KPL. Senator Gannon pointed out the coal traffic was experiencing a problem not unlike what grain shippers have, and the amended language would read:

"On Line 37           Whereas the Staggers Rail Act of 1980 has allowed the ICC to approve unreasonable high rates on captive coal traffic; and Line 71 (11)       To direct the ICC to interpret the Staggers Rail Act of 1980 in a manner which will be more receptive to the regulation of rates of captive coal shippers which was originally intended by Congress; and"

Senator Gannon moved the amendment language on Lines 37 and 71 be adopted, seconded by Senator Norvell. Motion carried.

Senator Gannon moved that the committee recommend SCR 1658 as amended favorably for adoption, seconded by Senator Warren. Motion carried.

The meeting was adjourned.
