Conferees appearing before the committee:

Chairman Miller welcomed the committee members and introduced the staff.

As was listed on the committee agenda, Chairman Miller announced that John Lamb, Director of the Alcoholic Beverage Control, will brief the committee on the responsibilities and enforcement powers of his agency.

The Chairman announced that the issue of raising the drinking age in Kansas would be on the agenda for next week and that the committee would then work toward introducing a committee bill on this issue. It was the consensus of the committee that rather than having full hearings as held last session, the committee should concentrate on what has happened at the federal level since the last session. Committee members asked that minutes of last years meetings on raising the drinking age be available to them and that written testimony be requested of conferees next week.

The Chairman expressed to the committee that if they have certain bills of interest to them and want them either scheduled or not scheduled to talk either with him or the Vice-Chairman.

The meeting was adjourned until Wednesday, January 16, at 1:30 p.m.
