Conferees appearing before the committee:

The meeting of the House Governmental Organization Committee was called to order at 3:50 p.m. by Representative Stephen R. Cloud, Chairman. The agenda was SB 758. The Chairman gave the Committee background information on the bill which had been requested by Senator Bogina. It was introduced through the Ways and Means Committee and referred to Senate Local Governmentment Committee. It passed that Committee and the Senate body and was referred to the House Governmental Organization Committee.

Several issues are involved with this bill and the Committee can run the bill and let it go to the floor of the House to be decided on its own merits. There are several amendments that have not been gone over at this point.

Representative Walker moved to strike Section 3 from SB 758. Representative Graeber gave a second to the motion. The motion carried.

Further discussion was held on the bill.

Representative Barr moved to pass out SB 758 as amended without recommendation. Representative Brown gave a second to the motion. The motion carried.

The meeting adjourned at 4:04 p.m.
