The first committee of the 1986 session was called to order by Chairman Buntten at 1:30 p.m. There was no business taken up in today's meeting.

The following remarks were made by the Chairman:

Interns will be appointed again this year to assist and work with sub-committees in working the fee agency budgets.

The Post Audit committee has offered to be of assistance to the Ways and Means committee in any research that needs to be done. Committee members should call Meredith Williams.

Chairman Buntten called the committee's attention to a letter from David Monical which invites and encourages all legislators, especially those from out of town, to feel free to use any of the Washburn campus facilities.

All budgets will be worked in the same order as last year, and Chairman Buntten asked committee members not to bother research staff any more than necessary these first few weeks. Budget books are estimated to be ready the first week of February.

Meeting adjourned at 1:50 p.m.

Unless specifically noted, the individual remarks recorded herein have not been transcribed verbatim. Individual remarks as reported herein have not been submitted to the individuals appearing before the committee for editing or corrections.
