Conferees appearing before the committee:

A meeting was held outside the Senate Chamber following adjournment of the Senate.

At the request of the Kansas County Clerks Association, the Chairman presented a bill for introduction. The proposed bill will allow county clerks to charge a fee for Kansas Fish & Game licenses and permits issued or sold to agents. (Attachment A).

A motion was made by Senator Martin to introduce the bill, seconded by Senator Vidricksen. Motion carried.

Meeting was adjourned.

32-104a. Hunting, fishing and furharvester licenses or permits; fees; nonresidents. (a) Any citizen residing in Kansas may secure a license or permit to hunt in Kansas upon application to any county clerk in this state or to a person appointed by a county clerk pursuant to K.S.A. 19-328, and amendments thereto, or to the director of the Kansas fish and game commission or the director's designee, and payment of a fee as prescribed by rule and regulation adopted under K.S.A. 32-164b, and amendments thereto. Any nonresident may secure a license to hunt in Kansas upon application to any county clerk in the state or to a person appointed by a county clerk pursuant to K.S.A. 19-328, and amendments thereto, or to the director of the Kansas fish and game commission or the director's designee and payment of a fee as prescribed by rule and regulation adopted under K.S.A. 32-164b, and amendments thereto. A person may secure from any county clerk or a person appointed by a county clerk pursuant to K.S.A. 19-328, and amendments thereto, or the director of the Kansas fish and game commission or the director's designee a special license to hunt only on legally established game bird breeding and controlled shooting areas as provided for in K.S.A. 32-311 to 32-325, inclusive, and amendments thereto, by making application and payment of a fee as prescribed by rule and regulation adopted under K.S.A. 32-164b, and amendments thereto. Any person residing in Kansas 16 years of age or older may secure a license to fish by applying to any county clerk in this state or to a person appointed by a county clerk pursuant to K.S.A. 19-328, and amendments thereto, or to the director of the Kansas fish and game commission or the director's designee and payment of a fee as prescribed by rule and regulation adopted under K.S.A. 32-164b, and amendments thereto.

(b) Any nonresident may secure a license to fish in Kansas upon application to any county clerk in the state or to a person appointed by a county clerk pursuant to K.S.A. 19-328, and amendments thereto, or to the director of the Kansas fish and game commission or the director's designee and payment of a fee as prescribed by rule and regulation adopted under K.S.A. 32-164b, and amendments thereto. A nonresident fishing license may be issued for a period of five consecutive days upon the payment of the fee as prescribed by rule and regulation adopted under K.S.A. 32-164b, and amendments thereto, for a resident fishing license.

(c) A twenty-four-hour fishing license may be issued to residents and nonresidents upon the payment of the fee prescribed by rule and regulation adopted pursuant to K.S.A. 32-164b, and amendments thereto.

(d) Both resident and nonresident hunting and fishing licenses shall be good throughout the state. Any resident of the state of Kansas or nonresident may secure a furharvester license upon application to any county clerk in the state or to a person appointed by a county clerk pursuant to K.S.A. 19-328, and amendments thereto, or to the director of the Kansas fish and game commission or the director's designee and payment of a fee as prescribed by rule and regulation adopted under K.S.A. 32-164b, and amendments thereto. Such license shall be good throughout the state. The county clerk shall issue all licenses under seal. For the purpose of this act any person who has not been a bona fide resident of the state for 60 days then last past is considered a nonresident of the state. Except as provided herein, the county clerk shall charge and retain a service charge fee of not to exceed $.50 for each license or permit sold and shall deposit the same in the general fund of the county. The county clerk shall ~~not~~ also charge such fee for licenses or permits issued or sold to agents appointed pursuant to K.S.A. 19-328, and amendments thereto. No hunting or furharvester license shall be issued to any person who has not complied with the provisions of K.S.A. 1984 Supp. 32-106b to 32-106d, inclusive, and amendments thereto, or the provisions of K.S.A. 32-401 to 32-403, inclusive, and amendments thereto, as the case requires.
