Gordon Self, Office of Revisor of Statutes

Conferees appearing before the committee: None

Senate Bill 608 - Service of summons and petition by mail.

Staff handed out copies of proposed Substitute for Senate Bill 608 and explained the amendments in the proposal. Following committee discussion, Senator Gaines moved to amend the bill by substituting this proposal for Senate Bill 608 and excluding Section 5. Senator Winter seconded the motion. The motion carried.

Senate Bill 595 - Driver's license restriction, ignition interlock devices.

Senate Bill 596 - Alcohol and drug evaluations required for certain offenses by persons.

Senate Bill 618 - Driver's license restrictions, ignition interlock devices.

The chairman explained Senate Bill 618 deals with restriction on the driver's license and Senate Bill 595 deals with suspension of the driver's license. Committee discussion was held on Senate Bill 618 concerning adjusting the fines. Senator Parrish moved to amend the bill to provide the fine be reduced to offset the cost of the interlocking device. Senator Winter seconded the motion. The motion carried. Senator Parrish moved to report the bill favorably as amended. Senator Winter seconded the motion. The motion carried.

Committee discussion was held on Senate Bill 596. The chairman pointed out the bill is written with the assumption these services are readily available. There are counties where there are none of these services. They may have trouble getting someone to come in to do the evaluation. Following the discussion, the chairman announced this bill will be taken up next week.

The meeting adjourned.

A copy of the guest list is attached (See Attachment I).
