The meeting of the House Governmental Organization Committee was called to order by Representative Thomas F. Walker, Chairman. He stated the minutes would be approved if there were no corrections or additions by the end of the meeting.

Clarence Love, a former Representative, was introduced to the new committee members. The Chairman called attention to the Kansas Water Plan and two audits which had been distributed.

As Arden Ensley, Revisor of Statutes failed to appear to give the scheduled presentation, Jim Wilson, Revisor, spoke to the committee on HB 2017. Committee books were passed out and Mr. Wilson went through the bill section by section, stating what is current policy and what will be accomplished if HB 2017 is passed.

Several committee members responded to Mr. Wilson's talk with questions and comments. The bill will have hearings next week.

The Chairman adjourned the meeting.
