The Senate Committee on Education met jointly with the Senate Committee on Labor, Industry and Small Business. After calling the meeting to order, the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Labor, Industry and Small Business, Senator Alicia Salisbury, explained that the two Committees were meeting together because of the mutual interest and concern both Committees share in the area of human capital development.

Chairman Salisbury introduced the panel participants: Mr. Winston Barton, Secretary of the Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services; Mr. R. O. Siehndel, Acting Secretary of the Department of Human Resources; Mr. Harland Priddle, Secretary of the Department of Commerce; and Dr. Lee Droegemueller, Commissioner of Education, State of Kansas.

The panel participants discussed the programs of their respective departments as they relate to human capital development and explained how the programs interact with other departments of state government and how they can be linked to the state's economic strategy.

Chairman Salisbury thanked the panel members for their informative presentations and adjourned the meeting at 2:30 p.m.
