Senator Francisco

Committee staff present: Julian Efird - Research
Fred Carman - Revisor

Conferees appearing before the committee:

Chairman Oleen requested Julian Efird to review all bills remaining in Committee at the conclusion of the 1989 session. Any requests for bill introduction will be entertained.

Review and discussion by Committee as follows:

SB 66 Consolidation of administration of cosmetology and barber boards.

Consensus of the committee is to take no action now.

SB 191 - Use of national guard armories as shelters for homeless persons.

Senator Gaines, sponsor of the bill, feels other options are available and requests that the bill be retained in committee with no action.

SB 199 - Establishing the self-sufficiency trast fund.

Discussion of financial impact to families involved and to the state. A House bill addressed the issue last session.

SB 224 - Excavation construction, maintenance and repair

Adoption of this legislation would be duplication of federal laws and adding unneeded legislation.

SB 232 - Kansas Commission on Hispanic affairs.

No response from proponents of the bill as to the necessity of this particular legislation.

SB 241 - Licensure of auctioneers.

Chairman Oleen suggested members attend a scheduled meeting on January 18 with auctioneers to hear their concerns before action is taken.

SB 244 - Amendments to the civil service statutes.

This is a repealer bill regarding civil service employees.
SB 253 - Department of Commerce: office of housing established.

SB 427, which has been assigned to this committee relates to this bill.

SB 280 - Establishing the council on indigent health care.

Consideration will be given this legislation after it is determined if the AD Hoc Council is still functioning and is necessary.
