Conferees appearing before the committee:

The House Elections Committee was called to order at 10:05 a.m. by Chairman Tom Sawyer on Friday, March 1st.

Chairman Sawyer told the committee he would like to go over HB 2454 section by section and discuss them and then make the amendments at the end.

The discussion and review started with Section 10 and continued until all fifty sections of the bill were completed.

Representative Wells, having voted on the prevailing side, requested reconsideration of the amendment by Representative Jones, dealing with Section 9, which would change Section 9 back to current law. This motion was seconded by Representative Shallenburger and the motion carried.

Representative Jones made a motion to return Section 9 to current law. Following discussion by the committee, the motion passed.

A motion was made by Representative King that the meeting adjourn, seconded by Representative Shallenburger and the motion carried.

The Chair announced that the next meeting of the House Elections Committee would be at 9:00 a.m. on Monday, March 4th and that amendments would be heard at that time on HB 2454.
