Sen. Reilly apologized for having to meet at a later time because of the Senate being in session and announced the committee would conduct hearings on HB 2719, 2761 and 2762.

Sen. Vidricksen requested time to introduce a senatorial district reapportionment plan (Attachment 1). He made a motion the committee recommend introducing it as a bill, and the motion was seconded by Sen. Morris. After discussion, the Chairman brought the question to a vote and was in doubt as to its passage, thus a division was called. The motion passed by a 3 to 2 vote.

Sen. Reilly introduced the following proponents to HB 2719:

Rep. Don Rezac, (Attachment 2);
Jim Fair, Owner, Fields of Fair, (Attachment 3).

No one appeared to oppose the bill. Sen. Reilly called attention to a letter from Chuck Magerl, President of the Free State Brewing Co., Inc., requesting the ability to obtain a caterer license for his microbrewery (Attachment 4). After discussion, it was Mr. Conant's opinion that an amendment would have to be made to make a caterer license obtainable for Mr. Magerl. Sen. Morris made a motion to adopt an amendment to HB 2719 to allow the Free State Brewing Co. the ability to obtain a caterer license. The motion was seconded by Sen. Vidricksen, and the motion passed. Sen. Strick made a motion that the committee adopt an amendment to allow retail liquor stores to remain open on Election Day, and it was seconded by Sen. Bond. The motion passed.

Sen. McClure indicated she wanted to make a motion for an amendment which would enable the winery to develop a business in Mead with a jam/jelly manufacture. She stated she understood the winery could operate through one outlet only. After consulting with Mr. Fair, who indicated it was not economically feasible to do so, that the company would have to bring their products to his winery site, Sen. McClure withdrew her motion.

Sen. Bond moved that HB 2719 be recommended favorably for passage as amended, and the motion was seconded by Sen. McClure. The motion passed. (Committee Report, Attachment 5)

Sen. Reilly introduced the following who spoke in favor of House Bills 2761 and 2762:

Mack Smith, State Board of Mortuary Arts, (Attachment 7);
Larry McElwain, Kansas Funeral Directors Assoc.,
(Attachment 8);
Dave Newcomer, Kansas Cemetery Assoc., (No written

After several questions raised by Emalene Correll and discussion regarding limiting the number of audits and the amount of fee to be charged, Sen. Strick moved to change Board to Secretary of State may conduct an audit, and it was seconded by Sen. Morris. The motion passed. Sen. Morris made a motion to strike the last two sections of the bill, and it was seconded by Sen. Bond. The motion passed. Sen. Bond moved to insert "that the Secretary of State may conduct audits upon complaint", and it was seconded by Sen. Morris. The motion passed.

Sen. Webb moved that the committee pass favorably HB 2761 as amended and HB 2762, and it was seconded by Sen. Bond. The motion passed. (Committee Reports - Attachments 9 and 10)

TESTIMONY ON HB 2719
SENATE FEDERAL AND STATE AFFAIRS COMMITTEE
April 2, 1992

Thank you, Mr. Chairman and members of the Committee.
My name is Don Rezac and I am here today in support of HB 2719.

HB 2719 deals with farm wineries. It allows farm wineries to have two outlets. Currently wine can only be sold and tasted where it is made. This bill allows for two additional outlets for the tasting and selling of the farm winery wine. I view this bill as a promotional bill for Kansas farm winery wine.

The main intent of this bill is that people can taste this wine in at least two more locations in the state and then when they return home they will ask for this wine in their local liquor store.

Jim Fair of Fields of Fair is here to testify, and he will explain more about the business and the needs for this legislation. I think in Kansas we just as well be drinking Kansas wine as wine imported from other states.

I'll be happy to answer any questions.

TESTIMONY ON HB 2719

April 2, 1992

Mr. Chairman and members of the Committee. My name is Jim Fair of Fields of Fair. I am here to testify for HB 2719.

I have with me a silver metal which we won for second place out of 1,727 entries from 32 states at the International Eastern Wine competition.

I have another bronze award for third place at the Eastern Guild International Wine Contest.

We now know we can produce good quality wine in Kansas. Kansas producers sell less than 1/2 of 1% of the lite wine sold in Kansas.

We need this bill for exposure.

I'll be happy to answer any questions.

Dear Sen. Reilly:

Thank you for the response to my letter regarding caterer licensing legislation for microbreweries. You mentioned Neal Whittaker's suggestion of an AG opinion as a way to address the potential for this request, given existing statutes.

I've followed up on this item with Jim Conant, and he believes it will indeed require an alteration of the statutes. He finds no room for interpretation of the licensing act as it now stands, regarding microbreweries. At his suggestion, I will renew my request for you to consider adding this change to any related legislation before your committee, as you see fit.

Thanks for your letter. I'll await your suggestion in this matter.

TESTIMONY REGARDING
HOUSE BILL 2761
SENATE FEDERAL AND STATE AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

House Bill 2761, as amended by the House Committee of the Whole, would provide mandatory, random, auditing of funeral pre-need accounts by the Secretary of State's Office. The figure of 25 was proposed by that office as the number of firms they felt they could audit each year WITHOUT any additional staff, thus adding a minimum of cost. - Also, the $100 per day fee is consistent with the amount present allotted to the Secretary of State's Office for the auditing of cemetery accounts.

I feel this bill in its present form (with any technical amendments as proposed by staff) is acceptable to the concerned parties, and should provide some excellent help in the regulation of preneed financed accounts.

HOUSE BILL 2762

This bill provides for two alternative methods of helping to be sure preneed monies are placed in the financial institution. A firm may either have the check made out directly to the financial institution and be sure it is deposited within 7 days...or the firm can maintain $100,000 in 'dishonest employee insurance' and can then have 30 days in which to deposit the monies. This bill is acceptable to the Board of Mortuary Arts, as well as the Kansas Funeral Profession and third party sellers, and is a compromise between those groups in order to provide a better control over preneed funds.

H.B. 2762

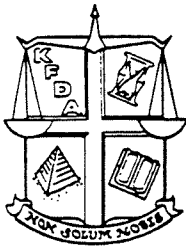

Once again this bill was introduced by the House Public Health and Welfare Committee at the request of the Kansas State Board of Mortuary Arts. The current wording of the bill represents a compromise between the Kansas Cemetery Association, the Kansas Funeral Director's Association and the Mortuary Arts Board. Once again it is the intention of the Mortuary Arts Board to tighten the belt in the area of consumer regulation of pre-financed funeral agreements.

This bill would give some definition to what happens to pre-financed monies prior to their deposit in the appropriate financial institution. It specifies the manner in which payment is to occur, and there is a defined time-frame of deposit.

I will be glad to answer any questions of the committee. Again, thank you for allowing me to appear in front of you today.

Honorable Ed Reilly, Chairman
Kansas Senate Federal and State Affairs Committee
Statehouse
Topeka, KS

Dear Chairman Reilly:

In the interest of time, the vast majority of the Kansas Funeral Profession as represented by the Kansas Funeral Directors Association, would like to express our support for House Bill 2761 and House Bill 2762 as they were passed by the House of Representatives.

We understand there might be some technical amendments pending and have no objections to these, but the concept in each bill has been agreed upon by the concerned parties--both in the interest of the consumer and in the area of practicalness for those whose business this legislation effects.

We have representatives here today who would be happy to answer any questions.

Again, we express our support for these two bills.
