Conferees appearing before the committee:

Others attending: See attached list

Chairman Dawson called the Committee's attention to HB 2168 which would allow state employees, by payroll deduction, give to the charitable organization of their choice. A balloon was made available to the committee suggesting an amendment to the bill that would require 100 employees to be signed up for the payroll deduction. The Committee took no action on the bill.

The Chairman called the Committee's attention to HB 2462 regarding the Rules and Regulations Committee having more time to oversee new rules prior to them going into effect. Rep. Toplikar made a motion to incorporate HB 2241 into HB 2462. It was seconded by Rep. B. Nichols. The motion passed.

Rep. Chronister made the motion to favorably pass HB 2462 as amended. It was seconded by Rep. B. Nichols. The motion carried.

Chairman Dawson brought the Committee's attention to HB 2386 regarding open primary elections. After Committee discussion, Rep. Benlon made a motion to request the bill have an interim study. It was seconded by Rep. B. Nichols.

Rep. Chronister made a substitute motion to pass favorably out of committee. Rep. Benlon seconded the motion. The motion failed.

The original motion by Rep. Benlon to request an interim study carried.

The Chairman brought the Committee's attention to HB 2011 regarding the enactment of the campaign finance act. Rep. Nichols made a motion to favorably pass the bill. Rep. Toplikar seconded the motion. Discussion by the Committee took place.

The Chairman adjourned the meeting at 10:00 a.m.

The next meeting has not been scheduled.
