Chairperson Corbin called for action on the minutes of the meeting of January 12, 1995. Senator Karr made a motion to approve the minutes. The motion was seconded by Senator Clark. The motion carried.

The Chairperson announced that the committee meeting scheduled for January 18 would be canceled. The agenda for the January 19 meeting would be a briefing on the Board of Agriculture by Secretary Alice (Allie) Devine. Senator Corbin ask if any member of the audience had bill request, and no request were made.

Chairperson Corbin stated because of a meeting with the Wildlife and Parks last October and an incident in his district last year concerning a lion being keep as a pet he had been asked to request a committee bill concerning exotic animals and inherently dangerous animals. Senator Morris made a motion to accept the bill request and a committee bill be introduced. The motion was seconded by Senator Downey. The motion carried.

The next meeting is scheduled for January 19, 1995.
