MINUTES OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON BUSINESS, COMMERCE & LABOR.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Al Lane at 9:10 a.m. on January 14, 1997 in Room 526-S of the Capitol.

All members were present except: Rep. David Adkins - excused
Rep. Broderick Henderson - excused

Committee staff present: Jerry Donaldson, Legislative Research Department
Bob Nugent, Revisor of Statutes
Bev Adams, Committee Secretary

Conferees appearing before the committee:

Others attending: Guest list was not passed.

The committee met for the purpose of introducing themselves to each other and for a short orientation meeting. Rep Lane introduced himself, his wife Peggy, and his intern, Ward Cook. He gave a brief self introduction and talked about his legislative experience.

He then asked each member to introduce themselves.

Chairman Lane informed the committee that all absences would be excused, but it would be nice if the members would call the office if they are going to be absent from a meeting. There is no scheduled meeting in the room before ours so members should arrive as close to 9:00 a.m. as possible so the meetings can start on time. We need to finish our meetings before 10:00 because there is another committee scheduled for that time.

Bills introduced or soon to be introduced are the direct sellers bill and a extension of the moratorium on unemployment taxes for positive pay employers.

The meeting adjourned at 9:32 a.m.

The next meeting is scheduled for January 15, 1997.
