Appointments to the State Banking Board

Newton Male, State Banking Commissioner, informed the Committee that of the nine members appointed to the State Banking Board, three are required to be non-bankers, a geographical mix is required, no more than five members can be of the same political party, and the banking appointees must have five years of state banking experience. Twelve days a years are required for meetings of the Kansas State Board. The monthly meetings usually last one to two hours where they review charter applications, acquisitions, mergers, relocations, and authorize orders to seize and desist. Mr. Male said the banking business in Kansas was on solid ground as there are more #1 rated banks in Kansas than all the others combined. The Bank Commissioner serves as the Secretary to the State Banking Board. Both Mrs. Steward and Mr. Zimmerman are considered to be exemplary bankers by Mr. Male.

Her appointment would expire March 15, 2000. She reviewed her employment record, community involvement, and her experience as being one of the developers of the Bank Americard in Wichita.
