Introduction of Bills

Moved by Representative Schwartz, seconded by Representative Neufeld, introduction of a bill to establish an agricultural production loan program through the Pooled Money Investment which would allow banks to purchase money at a lower interest rate and provide lower interest rate loans to farmers. Motion carried.

Request for introduction of bills requested by the Director of Accounts and Reports.

Moved by Representative Neufeld, seconded by Representative Shriver, introduction of two bills (1) relating to certain reporting requirements, reports of certain payments of claims against the state and payments of interest under the Kansas prompt payment act; (2) repeal of obsolete statutes, relating to the Division of Accounts and Reports and municipalities duties to report, withhold and remit certain federal tax (superceded by more recent payroll withholding statutes). Motion carried.

Regents Systemwide, et al

Moved by Representative Farmer, seconded by Representative Dean, adoption of the Budget committee recommendations for FY1999 and FY 2000 budgets of Regents Systemwide, Board of Regents, Emporia State University, Fort Hays State University, Kansas State University, KSU-Extension Systems and Agricultural Research Program, KSU-Veterinary Medical Center, Pittsburg State University, University of Kansas, University of Kansas Medical Center and Wichita State University. Motion carried.

Next meeting will be held on February 22.

Adjournment.

Respectfully submitted,

Ann McMorris, Secretary
