COMMITTEE RULES

1. In any case where committee rules do not apply, House Rules shall govern. All powers, duties and responsibilities not addressed herein are reserved to the chair.
- 2.
3. The chair shall determine the committee agenda, including scheduling and the order of business.
4. The chair reserves the right to limit testimony that is cumulative in nature and may limit testimony, when necessary, to a specific number of minutes.
5. Committee members shall not address conferees until and unless permission is granted by the chair.
6. The chair reserves the right to limit questioning of conferees by committee members in the interest of time and in the interest of fairness to conferees and other committee members.
7. Committee members shall not be approached during committee hearings or deliberation by anyone other than fellow legislative members or legislative staff.
8. No conferee shall be interrupted during presentations of their testimony, except with the permission of the chair.
9. Questioning of a conferee shall be limited to the subject matter of the agenda item for the day, except as may otherwise be allowed by the chair.
10. No bill or resolution shall be taken up for a committee vote unless it is announced by the chair.
11. Amendments to motions are not in order.
12. A substitute motion is in order, but no additional substitute motion shall be in order until the prior substitute motion is disposed of.
13. A motion requires a second to be in order except upon consent of the member making the motion and his or her second.
14. A motion to table or take from the table shall be in order only when such item is on the agenda or is taken up by the chair. The motion requires a simple majority and is, unless otherwise determined by the chair, non-debatable.
15. A request from any member that their own vote be recorded shall be granted.
16. Granting excused absences is reserved by the chair.
17. The chair reserves the right to take such action as may be necessary to prevent disruptive behavior in the committee room during hearings and deliberations.
18. Adjournment is reserved to the chair.
19. Cellular phones and audible pagers are prohibited in the Transportation Committee room.
20. There shall be no recording, audibly, photographically or otherwise, of committee meetings without permission of the chair. The committee secretary is excluded because of the need for accurate minutes.
