

MINUTES OF THE HOUSE ETHICS AND ELECTIONS COMMITTEE:

The special meeting was called to order by Chairperson Representative Tony Powell at 11:30 a.m. (upon adjournment of the House) on March 1, 2001 at the Rail.

All members were present except: Representative Melany Barnes, Excused Representative Ted Powers, Excused Representative John Toplikar, Excused

Committee staff present: Dennis Hodgins, Research
Shirley Weideman, Secretary

Conferees appearing before the committee: None.

Others attending: None.

Chairman Powell recommended that HB 2490 be amended to include the following changes:

1. Add in a provision of HB 2164 to increase the substantial interest threshold from $2000 to $5000 and then up to $15,000.
2. In HB 2180 exempt professional publications from being defined as a gift.
3. The new pay commission's recommendations would be binding only for legislators and not the executive branch. The revisors indicate that it is unconstitutional for the executive branch to be included.
4. Technical clean-up language to the bill. (attachment #1)

Representative Hermes moved that HB 2490 be amended to include the above provisions. The motion was seconded by Representative Alldritt. The motion was passed.

Representative Alldritt moved and it was seconded by Representative Mayans that HB 2490 as amended be favorably passed from the committee. The motion passed.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:35 a.m. by Chairman Powell. The next scheduled meeting will be March 5 at 3:30 p.m.

HOUSE ETHICS AND ELECTIONS COMMITTEE

Thursday, March 1

1. Add provision of HB 2164 to increase substantial interest reporting threshold
2. In HB 2180 exempt professional publications from being defined as a gift.
3. Change the pay commission from making recommendations for both the legislators and the executive branch. The revisors say this is unconstitutional for the executive branch to be included. This will need to be done with an amendment.
4. Technical clean up language.
