MINUTES OF THE COMMERCE AND LABOR COMMITTEE.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Donald Dahl at 9:00 a.m. on January 15 in Room 521-S of the Capitol.

All members were present:

Committee staff present: Jerry Ann Donaldson, Legislative Research Department
Renea Jefferies, Revisor of Statutes Office
June Evans, Secretary

Others attending: See Attached Sheet

Chairman Donald Dahl welcomed the members to the Committee and announced that briefings would be held next week if the Vice-Chairperson and Ranking Minority agree.

The Chairman asked for committee members and staff to introduce themselves and give a brief personal history.

Rules for committee members and conferees were distributed and the Chairman said if there were any questions regarding the rules to contact him.

The Chairman stated the meetings would start at 9:00 a.m. and the courteous thing to do is to be on time. If there is a legitimate excuse that could be understood. If any member has suggestions regarding the committee, contact the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Ranking Minority Member or the Secretary.

Candy Ruff, Ranking Minority Member, stated she appreciated starting on time, brevity, and getting the business over with.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:20 a.m. The next meeting will be January 21.
