Conferees appearing before the committee:

Congressman Jerry Moran

House Agriculture Committee Chairman, Dan Johnson, welcomed Congressman Jerry Moran who represents the 1st Congressional District of western Kansas in Washington, D.C.

Congressman Moran addressed the joint agriculture committees bringing them up to date on what is happening in agriculture at the federal level.

The Congressman serves on the House Agriculture Committee and the General Farm Commodities and Risk Management Subcommittee. He reported that the major issue being addressed is the new farm bill. The farm bill passed by Congress in 2002 will expire in 2007.

He touched on a number of issues important to agriculture, then opened the floor for questions.

The meeting adjourned at 8:30 a.m. The next House Agriculture Committee meeting is scheduled for February 20, 2006.
