

MINUTES OF THE SENATE COMMERCE COMMITTEE

The meeting was called to order by Chairperson Karin Brownlee at 11:45 a.m. on May 3, 2010, in Room 142-S of the Capitol.

All members were present except:

Senator Faust-Goudeau - excused
Senator Schodorf - excused

Committee staff present:

Ken Wilke, Office of the Revisor of Statutes
Reed Holwegner, Kansas Legislative Research Department
Marilyn Arnone, Committee Assistant

Conferees appearing before the Committee:

Daniel Watkins, nominee for Kansas Bioscience Authority

Others attending:

See attached list.

Chairperson Brownlee welcomed Daniel Watkins to the meeting and asked him to tell the committee about his background. Mr. Watkins is an attorney with a Juris Doctorate degree from Kansas University. He lives in Lawrence, Kansas, and has been in private practice there for over 20 years.

Mr. Watkins has served the Kansas Insurance Department and Shawnee County Kansas District Court; has been Chief Counsel to Kansas Secretary of Transportation; Chief Administrative Assistant to Governor John Carlin; Assistant Attorney General in the Criminal Division of the Kansas Attorney General's Office; and helped found Foresight Resources Corp., a software development and marketing company in Lawrence. He has been a lobbyist for gaming legislation. His term is just finishing as Chairman of the KDFFA. Recently, he represented the City of Lawrence in the acquisition of a 460 acre tract of land for development as a bioscience campus. Mr. Watkins represented Sac and Fox and the Kickapoo tribe when they were negotiating a gaming facility. He now represents the casino to be located at the Kansas Speedway. (Attachment 1)

Senator Lynn asked if he represented the Tribal Association in 2006. Mr. Watkins said that Governor Graves asked him to investigate building a destination casino in Kansas City. He represented the Sac and Fox and Kickapoo tribes as they negotiated a compact with the governor. It was presented to the legislature, but didn't get beyond a hearing. Senator Lynn asked if he currently represented any tribe in reference to gaming. The answer was no. Senator Lynn asked if other attorneys were on the Bioscience Board and the answer was no.

Senator Lynn asked Mr. Watkins why he was interested in joining the Kansas Bioscience Authority. Mr. Watkins believes this is where the future economic engine of Kansas can be, the legislature's vision of setting up the Authority has gone a long way toward that goal. He thinks that jobs will be created, and discovery through commercialization can develop an economic base that helps Kansas in ways that few other things could.

Chairperson Brownlee had asked Tom Thornton for a summary of qualifications for current board members. Chairperson Brownlee had been a part of the development of the Bioscience Authority and it is important to be sure all statutory qualifications are met by members of the Authority. She asked Mr. Watkins if he had any experience in the bioscience area. He said he has been working with the Douglas County Bioscience project for several years. If there was a conflict of interest issue, he would recuse himself from voting on the Bioscience board.

In response to Senator Wagle's questions, Mr. Watkins responded that the gambling contractors he worked with at Sumner Gaming & Resorts in 2008 was Harrah's who partnered with a group from Topeka. He indicated he had not been asked to renew that contract, and if asked, he would decline.

Senator Lynn asked Mr. Watkins what he thought he could contribute to the Kansas Bioscience board. He said he has always been so involved in activities that he participates in that he usually winds up being the chairman. He takes his involvements very seriously. He likes working on projects that makes things happen. He knows several members of the committee and can work well with them.

Senator Kelsey moved that the nomination of Daniel Watkins to the Kansas Bioscience Authority be passed favorably out of committee. Senator Reitz seconded and the motion carried with one dissenting vote. Senator Minutes of the Senate Commerce Committee at 11:45 a.m. on May 3, 2010, in Room 142-S of the Capitol.

Lynn commented that she was concerned about approving a nomination for the Bioscience Authority given Mr. Watkins current employment and background as a gaming lobbyist. She also questioned why his background would be applicable to a bioscience board.

Chairperson Brownlee thanked Mr. Watkins for coming before the committee.

Chairperson Brownlee asked for approval of the April 28, 2010 committee minutes. Senator Emler so moved. Senator Lynn seconded the motion and the motion carried.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:15 p.m.

CAREER SYNOPSIS

LAW PRACTICE

Dan Watkins has engaged in Private and Governmental law practices since 1975.

Practice

Since 1987, Watkins has been engaged in private practice in Lawrence, Kansas representing business and governmental clients on diverse legal matters including insurance receiverships, business acquisitions, contract negotiation, eminent domain, zoning and land use, governmental affairs, and a range of other issues.

Insurance Company Supervision/Receivership

Since 1997, Watkins has served as Kansas Insurance Department and Shawnee County, Kansas District Court appointed Supervisor, Rehabilitator and/or Liquidator for several financial troubled insurance companies including Farm and Ranch Life Insurance Company, West General Insurance Company, National Colonial Insurance Company, The Centennial Life Insurance Company, Heartland Health, Inc., Independence Indemnity Insurance Company and two workers compensation self funded pools. He coordinates troubled company activities with Kansas Insurance Department Commissioner, Chief Counsel and Chief Financial Examiner and works closely with outside counsel, NOLHGA, State Guaranty Associations and others in managing affairs of financially troubled insurance companies.

Governmental Practice

Watkins served as Chief Counsel and special Assistant to the Kansas Secretary of Transportation from 1980-1984. He managed a staff of attorneys, coordinated activities of outside counsel and served as a key member of the Secretary's executive committee which managed and reorganized the agency.

The legal department was responsible for handling tort claims/personal injury actions, eminent domain proceedings, contract preparation and review, construction claims and other legal and administrative actions. Watkins played an active role in developing agency policies to assure compliance with Federal mandates and to minimize potential agency liability in its activities. He represented Kansas at the Interstate Commerce Commission proceedings on the Union Pacific/Missouri Pacific Railroad merger; directed the settlement of state and county tax claims and other creditor claims in the Rock Island Railroad Bankruptcy; and assisted Special U. S. Attorney in investigating and taking administrative and criminal action against Kansas contractors involved in bid rigging on highway projects.

Chief Administrative Assistant to the Governor of Kansas

Watkins managed Kansas House Speaker John Carlin's campaign for Governor in 1978. He had direct responsibility for developing and executing a campaign plan with the campaign staff, media consultant, fundraising committee and volunteers.

Watkins headed Governor-elect Carlin's transition team after the 1978 election. The transition team assisted the Governor-elect in preparation of budget, selection of cabinet officers and office staff, drafting inaugural and state-of-the-state speeches, and developing systems for scheduling, legislative tracking, and policy development.

He served as Governor Carlin's Chief Administrative Assistant during his first year in office, working closely with cabinet officials on the Governor's agenda and serving with the Secretary of Administration, Press Secretary, Policy Director and Legislative Liaisons in coordinating the Governor's management of state government.

Kansas Attorney General's Office

From 1975-78, Watkins served as Assistant Attorney General in the Criminal Division. He was responsible for research and writing of legal opinions on criminal law and procedure; assisted county and district attorneys as a special prosecutor; reviewed and argued appeals to the Kansas Supreme Court; reviewed extraditions; investigated allegations of official misconduct; represented the State in prisoner lawsuits and appeals; prosecuted securities fraud; and monitored legislative activity.

In 1977, he was appointed Chief of the Criminal Division and supervised other attorneys and investigators; represented the Kansas Highway Patrol; advised the Director of the Kansas Bureau of Investigation.

OTHER EMPLOYMENT EXPERIENCE

Director and Vice President of Foresight Resources Corp.

In 1984, Watkins helped found Foresight Resources Corp., a software development and marketing company in Lawrence, Kansas. He served as Vice President of Foresight; responsible for securing $1.5 million in venture capital investment in the company; Director of the company and Secretary/Treasurer. Foresight developed computer aided design software products for use on IBM and compatible personal computers. drafix 1 gained a niche in the worldwide microCAD and was ultimately sold to Autodesk (AutoCAD developer).

VISTA

After receiving a degree in mathematics and a teaching certificate from St. Mary of the Plains College in 1969, Watkins served as a VISTA (Volunteers in Service to America) Volunteer in Broward County, Florida. He organized and taught in a school for pregnant teenage girls who were expelled from the public schools. After two years of VISTA operation the school became a part of the Broward County School system. After a year as a volunteer, Watkins was selected by the sponsoring agency as the Project Supervisor for 35 VISTA Volunteers in 13 Broward County communities.

The VISTA project designed and developed low-cost non-profit housing and recreation centers with local churches, developed student reading and adult education programs with the school system, organized a transportation system for health care appointments, funded and ran a mobile eye and dental clinic, assisted the sponsoring agency with Headstart, Housing and food programs, and assisted numerous community-based organizations on a wide range of issues.

The project was evaluated as one of the top projects in the country in 1971. Watkins was selected to serve as a member of the National Task Force for Volunteer Support in 1972 to identify the elements present in successful programs for application to VISTA and community leader training around the country.

Law School

After VISTA service, Watkins attended Kansas University Law School beginning in the fall of 1972. In law school, he was active in the Student Bar Association, the University Judiciary and the Legal Aid Clinic. Watkins was admitted to Kansas and federal bars in 1975.
