

SESSION OF 2007

SUPPLEMENTAL NOTE ON SENATE BILL NO. 99

As Recommended by Senate Committee on Elections and Local Government

Brief*

SB 99 would amend the recall law applying to elected officials to clarify the time frame when mandamus or injunction proceedings must be brought to "within" 30 days of the completion of the review of the adequacy of the recall petition by the Secretary of State in regard to state elected officials or by the county or district attorney in regard to local elected officials. The bill also would require notice of this recall petition decision be delivered to the officer who is the subject of the recall.

Background

A representative of the Secretary of State's Office testified in favor of the bill. No opponents testified.

Passage of SB 99 would have no fiscal effect, according to the bill's fiscal note.
