Prayer by guest chaplain, Pastor Mike Kirby, Valley Falls Christian Church, Valley Falls, and guest of Rep. Ellis.

Our Father and Creator,

As we approach a season of renewal and rebirth, we are reminded even by the changing of seasons and the greening in nature of your grace, your goodness and wisdom. We are thankful for your loving involvement in the affairs of men and women and ask for your guidance in this chamber today.

In a world that is often chaotic, we pray for order and peacefulness. In a world that is often dangerous, we pray for the safety and protection of all who are on these grounds today. In a world that is often contentious and divisive, we pray for a spirit of unity and the ability to work together. Though there may be disagreement and even division, we pray that these issues would be handled in good faith and with grace toward one another.

Lord, we ask for your wisdom that comes from above and is pure, peaceable, open to reason, impartial and sincere.

We pray for the humility to see your purpose in and the privilege of serving the people of this state. Give us a heart to put others before ourselves.

Let us be steadfast in what is true and good. May we hear your voice above all the other voices trying to get our attention.

God, we pray your blessing upon this body and the state of Kansas. In your loving and powerful name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Xu.
