(c) The secretary of revenue shall provide notice of the exemption period to retailers at least 60 days prior to the first day of the calendar month in which the exemption period established in this section commences.

(d) The following procedures are to be used in administering the exemption as provided in this section:

(1) A sale of eligible property under a layaway sale qualifies for exemption if:

(A) Final payment on a layaway order is made by, and the property is given to, the purchaser during the exemption period; or

(B) the purchaser selects the property and the retailer accepts the order for the item during the exemption period for immediate delivery upon full payment, even if delivery is made after the exemption period.

(2) There shall be no change during the period of exemption for the handling of a bundled sale as treated for sales tax purposes at times other than the exemption period.

(3) A discount by the seller reduces the sales price of the property, and the discounted sales price determines whether the sales price is within the price threshold provided in subsection (a). A coupon that reduces the sales price is treated as a discount if the seller is not reimbursed for the coupon amount by a third party. If a discount applies to the total amount paid by a purchaser rather than to the sales price of a particular item and the purchaser has purchased both eligible property and taxable property, the seller shall allocate the discount based on the total sales prices of the taxable property compared to the total sales prices of all property sold in that same transaction.

(4) Articles that are normally sold as a single unit must continue to be sold in that manner. Such articles cannot be priced separately and sold as individual items in order to obtain the exemption.

(5) Eligible property that customers purchase during the exemption period with use of a rain check will qualify for the exemption regardless of when the rain check was issued. Issuance of a rain check during the exemption period shall not qualify eligible property for the exemption if the property is actually purchased after the exemption period.

(6) The procedure for an exchange in regards to an exemption is as follows:

(A) If a customer purchases an item of eligible property during the exemption period but later exchanges the item for a similar eligible item, even if a different size, different color or other feature, no additional tax is due even if the exchange is made after the exemption period;

(B) if a customer purchases an item of eligible property during the exemption period, but after the exemption period has ended the customer returns the item and receives credit on the purchase of a different item, the appropriate sales tax is due on the sale of the new item; and

(C) if a customer purchases an item of eligible property before the exemption period, but during the exemption period the customer returns the item and receives credit on the purchase of a different item of eligible property, no sales tax is due on the sale of the new item if the new item is purchased during the exemption period.

(7) For the purpose of an exemption, eligible property qualifies for the exemption if:

(A) The item is both delivered to and paid for by the customer during the exemption period; or

(B) the customer orders and pays for the item and the seller accepts the order during the exemption period for immediate shipment, even if delivery is made after the exemption period. For purposes of this subparagraph, the seller accepts an order when the seller has taken action to fill the order for immediate shipment. Actions to fill an order include placement of an "in date" stamp on a mail order or assignment of an order number to a telephone order. For purposes of this subparagraph, an order is for immediate shipment when the customer does not request delayed shipment. An order is for immediate shipment notwithstanding that the shipment may be delayed because of a backlog of orders or because stock is currently unavailable to, or on back order by, the seller.

(8) For a 60-day period immediately after the exemption period, when a customer returns an item that would qualify for the exemption, no credit for or refund of sales tax shall be given unless the customer provides a receipt or invoice that shows tax was paid or the seller has sufficient documentation to show that tax was paid on the specific item. The 60-day period is set solely for the purpose of designating a time period during which the customer must provide documentation that shows that sales tax was paid on returned merchandise. The 60-day period is not intended to change a seller's policy on the time period during which the seller will accept returns.

(9) The time zone of the seller's location determines the authorized time period for a sales tax holiday when the purchaser is located in one time zone and a seller is located in another.

(e) The provisions of this section shall be a part of and supplemental to the Kansas retailers' sales tax act.";

And by renumbering sections accordingly;

Also on page 1, in the title, in line 6, after "inc" by inserting a period; also in line 6, after the semicolon by inserting "establishing an exemption for certain sales of school supplies, computers and clothing during an annual sales tax holiday;"
