Each parent has the right to be represented by an attorney in any legal action involving paternity or their rights or duties as a parent. Usually, each person is responsible for hiring the person's own attorney.

(c) Any duty to disclose rights or responsibilities related to signing an acknowledgment of paternity shall have been met by furnishing the written disclosures of subsection (b). Any duty to disclose orally the rights or responsibilities related to signing an acknowledgment of paternity may be met by means of an audio recording of the disclosures of subsection (b).

(d) An acknowledgment of paternity completed prior to July 1, 1994, without the written disclosures of subsection (b) is not invalid solely for that reason and may create a presumption of paternity pursuant to K.S.A. 23-2208, and amendments thereto. Nothing in K.S.A. 23-2202 through 23-2204, and amendments thereto, shall decrease the validity, force or effect of an acknowledgment of paternity executed in this state prior to ~~the effective date of this act~~ July 1, 1994.

(d) Any agreement between an alleged or presumed father and the mother or child does not bar an action under this section.

~~(e) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, if an acknowledgment of paternity pursuant to K.S.A. 23-2204, and amendments thereto, has been completed the man named as the father, the mother or the child may bring an action to revoke the acknowledgment of paternity at any time until one year after the child's date of birth~~ (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), a signed and witnessed voluntary acknowledgment of paternity pursuant to K.S.A. 23-2204, and amendments thereto, shall be considered a legal finding of paternity subject to the right of any signatory to revoke the acknowledgment within the earlier of the following:

(B) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, a person seeking to revoke an acknowledgment of paternity on the basis of fraud, duress or material mistake of fact may file such request in an appropriate district court after the fraud, duress or material mistake of fact becomes known to such person and shall file such request as soon as practicable after such fraud, duress or material mistake of fact becomes known. If the person bringing the action was a minor at the time the acknowledgment of paternity was completed, the action to revoke the acknowledgment of paternity may be brought at any time until one year after that person attains age 18, unless the court finds that the child is more than one year of age and that revocation of the acknowledgment

~~of paternity is not in the child's best interest.~~

~~The person requesting revocation must show, and shall have the burden of proving, that the acknowledgment of paternity was based upon fraud, duress or material mistake of fact unless the action to revoke the acknowledgment of paternity is filed before the earlier of 60 days after completion of the acknowledgment of paternity or the date of a proceeding relating to the child in which the signatory is a party, including, but not limited to, a proceeding to establish a support order.~~

(7) If there has been an assignment of the child's support rights pursuant to K.S.A. 39-709, and amendments thereto, the secretary for children and families shall be a necessary party to any action under this subsection.

(8) If a court orders revocation of an acknowledgment of paternity pursuant to this subsection and the party seeking revocation has a child support obligation or has paid child support, any support paid prior to the entry of such order shall not be recoverable in any action. The court that orders such revocation may make a written finding that exceptional circumstances warrant the award of actual damages sustained by the party seeking revocation. In determining such actual damages, the court may consider all of the facts and circumstances of the case, including, but not limited to, the amount of support paid prior to the entry of such order.

(f) The amendments to this section by this act shall be construed and applied retroactively.";
