29 consumer legal funding transactions.

30 (h) The contracted amount to be paid to the consumer legal funding
31 company shall be a predetermined amount based upon intervals of time 32 from the funding date through the resolution date and shall not be 33 determined as a percentage of the recovery from the legal claim.

34 (i) Within 30 days after receipt of a written request, a consumer or the 35 consumer's attorney shall disclose to any requesting party to a legal claim 36 and each insurer that has a duty to defend if the consumer has entered into

19 unsatisfied consumer legal funding company's entire funded amount and 20 contracted charges unless a lesser amount is otherwise agreed to in writing 21 by the consumer legal funding companies, except that multiple companies 22 may agree to contemporaneously provide funding to a consumer if the 23 consumer and the consumer's attorney consent to the arrangement in 24 writing;

25 (5) have any influence, receive any right to or make any decisions

33 from the consumer legal funding transaction;

34 (8) knowingly offer or collude to provide funding as an inducement 35 to a consumer who is presently represented by counsel to terminate that 36 relationship and engage an attorney or law firm to represent the consumer 37 in the legal claim, and any contract that purports to do so is void and 38 unenforceable; and

39 (9) collude with or knowingly assist an attorney or law firm that is 40 enticing or intends to entice a consumer to bring a claim that the company 41 knows or has reason to know is fabricated or otherwise brought not in 42 good faith, and any contract that purports to do so is void and 43 unenforceable.

(b) (1) Any attorney retained by a consumer or any immediate family member of such attorney shall not have a financial interest in a consumer legal funding company offering consumer legal funding to that consumer or provide consumer legal funding, loans or advances for personal needs, cash or nonmonetary equivalent to current or prospective consumers or the consumer's immediate family members.

(d) Only the consumer shall be authorized to execute a consumer legal funding agreement unless the consumer lacks the legal capacity to execute a contract. The consumer's legal representative in the legal claim shall not execute a consumer legal funding contract on behalf of the consumer. A consumer legal funding contract executed by the consumer legal representative on behalf of such consumer shall be void and unenforceable.
