If the governor approves a bill, he shall sign it. If the governor does not approve a bill, the governor shall veto it by returning the bill, with a veto message of the objections, to the house of origin of the bill. Whenever a veto message is so received, the message shall be entered in the journal and in not more than thirty calendar days (excluding the day received), the house of origin shall reconsider the bill. If two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified shall vote to pass the bill, it shall be sent, with the veto message, to the other house, which shall in not more than thirty calendar days (excluding the day received) also reconsider the bill, and if approved by two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified, it shall become a law, notwithstanding the governor's veto.

If any bill shall not be returned within ten calendar days (excluding the day presented) after it shall have been presented to the governor, it shall become a law in like manner as if it had been signed by the governor.

Whenever a veto message is so received, the message shall be entered in the journal and, in not more than thirty calendar days, the house of origin shall reconsider the items of the bill which have been disapproved. If two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified shall vote to approve any item disapproved by the governor, the bill, with the veto message, shall be sent to the other house, which shall in not more than thirty calendar days also reconsider each such item so approved by the house of origin, and if approved by two-thirds of all the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified, any such item shall take effect and become a part of the bill.

§ 15. Requirements before bill passed.—No bill shall be passed on the day that it is introduced, unless in case of emergency declared by two-thirds of the members present in the house where a bill is pending.

JOINT RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
2023-2024

Joint Rule 1. Joint rules; application and date of expiration; adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation.

(a) Joint rules; expiration, adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation; vote required. Joint rules are adopted under the authority of section 8 of article 2 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas and shall govern matters made subject thereto except when otherwise specifically provided by joint rule. Joint rules shall expire at the conclusion of the terms of representatives. Joint rules shall be adopted, amended, suspended and revoked by concurrent resolution of the two houses of the legislature. Concurrent resolutions adopting joint rules shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house.

(b) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules; previous notice; vote required. After one day's previous notice, joint rules may be amended, suspended or revoked by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house. Upon the filing of such notice in either house, a message shall be sent to the other house advising of the filing of such notice and the reading of the message shall constitute notice to the members of such house. If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment, suspension or revocation of a joint rule.

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions. Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president; and (2) either: (a) A copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence; or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.

Joint Rule 2. Joint sessions.

(a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter. A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. Any such resolution shall fix the time and place of the joint session, and the subject matter to be considered at the joint session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

(b) Presiding officer at joint sessions; record of joint session; rules applicable. The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements. All votes in a joint session shall be taken by yeas and nays, and in taking the same it shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate first to call the names of the members of the senate, and after which the clerk of the house of representatives shall in like manner call the names of the members of the house. Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

Joint Rule 3. Conference committee procedure.

(a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur. The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and the motion to concur may be renewed but not on the same legislative day. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not fewer than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house.

In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation.

Subject to any limitations imposed under the constitution of the state of Kansas, no more than a total of four additional bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions in conference or bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions which have passed in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution, except that reports of conference committees on any taxation bill are not subject to the limitation contained in this provision.

A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment.

The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Joint Rule 4. Deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills.

The senate and house of representatives shall observe the following schedule of deadlines in making requests for drafting and in the introduction and consideration of bills.

(a) Bill request deadline for individual members. Except for bills introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no request to draft bills, except those made by committees, through their respective chairpersons, shall be made to, or accepted by, the office of the revisor of statutes after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on January 30, 2023, during the 2023 regular session and on January 29, 2024, during the 2024 regular session.

(b) Bill introduction deadline for individual members. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by a member or members shall be introduced in either house of the legislature after the hour of adjournment on February 8, 2023, during the 2023 regular session and on February 7, 2024, during the 2024 regular session. Such deadline for the introduction of bills by individual members may be changed to an earlier date in either house at any time by resolution duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in such house.

(f) Second house bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered by either house, not the house of origin of such bill, after the hour of adjournment on March 29, 2023, during the 2023 regular session and on March 28, 2024, during the 2024 regular session.

(g) Exceptions to limitation of (d), (e) and (f); procedure. Specific exceptions to the limitations prescribed in subsections (d), (e) and (f) may be made in either house by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members of such house then elected (or appointed) and qualified.

(h) Deadline which falls on day neither house in session; effect. In the event that any deadline prescribed in this rule falls on a day that neither house of the legislature is in session, such deadline shall be observed on the next following day that either house is in session.

(i) Bills introduced in odd-numbered years after deadlines; effect. Bills may be introduced by members and committees in regular sessions occurring in an odd-numbered year after the times prescribed in (b) and (d) of this rule, but there shall be no final action thereon by either house during the session when introduced. Such bills shall be held over for consideration at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year.

(j) Modification of schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills; procedure. In any regular session a concurrent resolution may be adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house setting forth a different schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills for that session and the provisions of such concurrent resolution shall apply to such session notwithstanding provisions of this rule to the contrary.

(k) Bill consideration deadline; exceptions. No bills shall be considered by the Legislature after April 6, 2023, during the 2023 regular session and after April 5, 2024, during the 2024 regular session except bills vetoed by the governor, the omnibus appropriation act and the omnibus reconciliation spending limit bill provided for under K.S.A. 75-6702, and amendments thereto. The rejection of a motion to amend a bill or resolution by striking out and inserting one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert another proposition, nor prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out; nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Rule 2109. Identical Motions.

Except upon the unanimous consent of the House, an identical motion to amend a bill or resolution shall not be made a second time on the same legislative day.

Rule 2110. Floor Amendments to Bills Making Appropriations.

A motion for reconsideration, being put and lost, shall not be renewed, nor shall any subject or vote be a second time reconsidered without unanimous consent, but this provision shall not be construed as preventing the introduction of a bill on the same subject.

The member moving for reconsideration shall be allowed not more than two minutes for stating the reasons in support of the motion. Such motion shall be subject to debate by any member, stating reasons in support or opposition to the motion. Each of such members shall be allowed not more than one minute for the purpose of such debate.

(1) A motion to suspend the rules, and to declare an emergency and to advance a bill to the order of business Final Action, as contemplated in article 2, section 15 of the Constitution shall require an affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the House.

(2) A motion to suspend the rules and to permit amendment and debate of a bill under the order of business Final Action shall require an affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the House.

(b) When under the rules of the House a motion, question or action requires a vote of a majority greater than a majority of the members present, the majority specified for such motion, question or action shall be required to suspend the rules for the purpose of such motion, question or action. When under the rules of the House notice of a motion reduces the required majority for adoption of the motion, the required majority shall not be reduced if the notice is disposed of by suspension of the rules.

In the event that the system is not operating properly, roll call votes may be taken by calling the roll.

Rule 2502. Procedure for Taking a Roll Call Vote.

When a roll call vote is taken, the presiding officer shall state the question and instruct the members to proceed to vote. When sufficient time has been allowed the members to vote, the presiding officer shall inquire: "Has every member had an opportunity to vote?" After a short pause the presiding officer shall direct the chief clerk to close the roll. *Assistant Secretary of State
State of Kansas*

This being the day fixed by the constitution of the State of Kansas for the assembling of the 2024 session of the legislature, the House was called to order at 2:00 p.m. by Speaker Hawkins.

Speaker Hawkins announced the appointment of Susan Kannarr as Chief Clerk, Foster Chisholm as Sgt. At Arms and The Rev. L.D.Holmes as the House Chaplain for 2024.

The roll was called with 120 members present.

Reps. Alcala, Howe and Sanders were excused on verified illness.

Reps. Ohaebosim and L.Ruiz were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father; We come before You today seeking Your blessings upon this group which comprises our House of Representatives for the State of Kansas.

For some it is a new experience, while others have served before. For each group I pray wisdom, insight and peace in the midst of this new Session. May their thoughts and actions be pleasing to You and to those whom they have been called to serve.

As they delve into the business set before them, may they find You guiding each decision. Allow every heart to be set upon accomplishing things, that will, in the end make our State a better place to live, work, and raise our families.

Some have left loved ones behind as they seek to fulfill their call to service. For those who are sacrificing a family member to serve our State, would You draw especially close with Your grace and peace, reminding them that to serve is a noble pursuit.

If there are those who, physically are not feeling well today,

I pray you might touch them with Your hand of healing.

Proverbs 10:19 states; "Where there are many words, transgression is unavoidable, but he who restrained his lips is wise."

Today, as we begin this new Session, guide our thoughts and words that we might be found worthy of the place you have called us to serve.

Allow wisdom to prevail in all our inter-actions and discussions.

in Jesus Name we pray; Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Blex.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. HCR 5017—

By Representative Dodson, M.

A PROPOSITION to amend article 9 of the constitution of the state of Kansas by adding a new section thereto; concerning the power of home rule for counties.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Article 9 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 6. Counties' power of home rule. (a) Counties are hereby empowered to determine their local affairs and government including the levying of taxes, excises, fees, charges and other exactions, except when and as the levying of any tax, excise, fee, charge or other exaction is limited or prohibited by enactment of the legislature applicable uniformly to all counties of the same class. The legislature may establish not to exceed four classes of counties for the purpose of imposing all such limitations or prohibitions. Counties shall exercise such determination by resolution passed by the governing body with referendums only in such cases as prescribed by the legislature, subject only to enactments of the legislature of statewide concern applicable uniformly to all counties, to other enactments of the legislature applicable uniformly to all counties, to enactments of the legislature applicable uniformly to all counties of the same class limiting or prohibiting the levying of any tax, excise, fee, charge or other exaction and to enactments of the legislature prescribing limits of indebtedness. All enactments relating to counties now in effect or hereafter enacted and as later amended and until repealed shall govern counties, except as counties shall exempt themselves by charter resolutions as herein provided for in subsection (b).

(b) (1) Any county may by charter resolution elect in the manner prescribed in this section that the whole or any part of any enactment of the legislature applying to such county, other than enactments of statewide concern applicable uniformly to all counties, other enactments applicable uniformly to all counties, and enactments prescribing limits of indebtedness, shall not apply to such county.

(2) A charter resolution is a resolution which exempts a county from the whole or any part of any enactment of the legislature as referred to in this section and which may provide substitute and additional provisions on the same subject. Such charter resolution shall be so titled, shall designate specifically the enactment of the legislature or part thereof made inapplicable to such county by the adoption of such resolution and contain the substitute and additional provisions, if any, and shall require a two-thirds vote of the members-elect of the governing body of such county. Every charter resolution shall be published once each week for two consecutive weeks in the official county newspaper or, if there is none, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county.

(3) No charter resolution shall take effect until 60 days after its final publication. If, within 60 days of its final publication, a petition signed by a number of electors of the county equal to not less than 10% of the number of electors who voted at the last preceding regular county election shall be filed in the office of the clerk of such county demanding that such resolution be submitted to a vote of the electors, it shall not take effect until submitted to a referendum and approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon. An election, if called, shall be called within 30 days and held within 90 days after the filing of the petition. The governing body shall pass a resolution calling the election and fixing the date, which resolution shall be published once each week for three consecutive weeks in the official county newspaper or, if there is none, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, and the election shall be conducted as elections for officers and by the officers handling such elections. The proposition shall be: "Shall charter resolution No. _____, entitled (title of resolution) take effect?" The governing body may submit any charter resolution to a referendum without petition by the same publication of the charter resolution, and the same publication of the resolution calling the election as for resolutions upon petition and such charter resolution shall then become effective when approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon. Each charter resolution becoming effective shall be recorded by the county clerk in a book maintained for that purpose with a statement of the manner of adoption, and a certified copy shall be filed with the secretary of state, who shall keep an index of the same.

(4) Each charter resolution enacted shall control and prevail over any prior or subsequent act of the governing body of the county, and may be repealed or amended only by charter resolution or by enactments of the legislature applicable to all counties.

(c) Powers and authority granted to counties pursuant to this section shall be liberally construed for the purpose of giving to counties the largest measure of self-government.

(d) This amendment shall be effective on and after July 1, 2025."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. This amendment would provide a constitutional basis for county home rule, which is currently enshrined only in statutory law. Counties could pass home rule resolutions to legislate locally on matters not covered by state law. A county could enact a charter resolution to exempt itself from non-uniform state laws that apply to the county and provide substitute or additional provisions to that law. The legislature could preempt counties from exercising home rule powers by enacting state laws that apply uniformly to all counties, or, when the legislature levies a county tax, excise, fee, charge or other exaction, when such levy applies uniformly to all counties of the same class, as defined by statute.

"A vote for this proposition would empower counties to determine their local affairs and government with a constitutional grant of power that could only be preempted by enactments of the legislature that apply uniformly to all counties.

"A vote against this proposition would retain the current statutory authority of counties to determine their local affairs and government, but such authority could continue to be removed or restricted by enactments of the legislature, regardless of uniformity."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2024, unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case the proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: I vote NO on HR 6030. The murder, rape, and hostage-taking committed by HAMAS on Oct 7, 2023 are war crimes. I condemn them. This resolution does not acknowledge the devastation facing Palestinian civilians. Thousands, including children, have died in Israeli airstrikes. Thousands more are injured or displaced. Humanitarian groups warn of catastrophe as supplies run out. HAMAS's crimes do not justify further war crimes. A political solution to ensure the safety and dignity of Israelis and Palestinians is the only way forward. The first step must be a permanent ceasefire, with return of hostages and commitment to rebuild Gaza. I therefore vote NO on HR 6030. — JOHN CARMICHAEL

MR. SPEAKER: I vote No on HR 6030. There are many parts of this resolution I do support. I unequivocally support Israel's right to exist and to self-determination. I condemn all the acts of terror and violence perpetrated by Hamas and antisemitism everywhere. But we must also acknowledge and mourn the suffering and deaths of Palestinian civilians. I am a proponent of peace and of a negotiated political solution that protects the human rights and political self-determination of both peoples. I would resolve for an immediate ceasefire, the return of all hostages, and the opening of borders to humanitarian aid. – LINDSAY VAUGHN

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on the Israel Resolution HR 6030. The murder, rape and hostage-taking committed by Hamas on October 7 are war crimes. I condemn them. This resolution doesn't acknowledge the devastation facing Palestinian civilians. Thousands, including children, have died in Israeli airstrikes. Thousands more are injured or displaced. Humanitarian groups warn of catastrophe as supplies run out. Hamas's crimes don't justify further war crimes. A political solution to ensure the safety and dignity of Israelis and Palestinians is the only way forward. The first step must be a permanent ceasefire, with return of hostages and commitment to rebuild Gaza. – DENNIS "BOOG" HIGHBERGER, ALLISON HOUGLAND, SYDNEY CARLIN, ANGELA MARTINEZ, SILAS MILLER, FORD CARR, BARBARA BALLARD, MIKE AMYX.

MR. SPEAKER: My yes vote on HR 6030 today reflects the portions of this resolution in which I am in agreement, but I am casting this vote for less than perfect measures. I must point out that I find it astonishing that this resolution makes no mention of the suffering and deaths of the innocent Palestinian civilians including thousands of children, or the urgent and critical need to find a negotiated and just solution that protects the human rights of all people. - NIKKI McDONALD, TOBIAS SCHLINGENSIEPEN, KIRK HASKINS, VIC MILLER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on HR 6030 because although I have concerns about parts of this resolution and the manner in which it was forced to the floor today. I feel the majority of my district supports: condemning terrorism, calling for the release of hostages, rejecting antisemitism, and supporting the right of a US ally to exist. On a personal level, I am horrified by the devastating loss of life and call for a permanent ceasefire so that the slaughter of innocent civilians in Palestine and Israel will come to an end. – LINDA FEATHERSTON

MR. SPEAKER: Nobody should deny the fact that Hamas is a terrorist organization, and it committed the most horrific war crimes against the people of Israel. Israel has a right to defend itself. However, this resolution does not address the ongoing conflict and didn't go far enough in condemning antisemitism in our country. I vote no on HR 6030 - SUSAN RUIZ

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on this resolution, HR 6030. I'm disappointed that this resolution is so limited. Antisemitism did not begin with Hamas and while we condemn their terrorism today, we also need to condemn all attacks against innocent civilians whether they reside in Israel or Gaza, or here at home. This conflict is undoubtedly complex, but one thing is clear: any death from war is a tragedy. An immediate ceasefire is the only way forward to protect the lives of both Israelis and Palestinians, and we must protect our Jewish community and all historically marginalized groups from violence based on hate or religious bigotry. – HEATHER MEYER, VALDENIA WINN, LYNN MELTON

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father,

We thank You for Your daily care and concern for each one gathered here today. It is through Your goodness that You have individually bestowed strength, health and a good mind, for which we are eternally grateful.

Once again, we find ourselves asking for Your influence and guiding hand upon all the business set before us today. Remind us, if you will, that we can accomplish little of lasting value without the wisdom which flows from You.

We want to thank You for the opportunity to serve the people of Kansas who have placed us in such a place of authority and decision making. Allow us to think and act as they would desire. Might we comport ourselves in such a manner as to honor their confidence in us.

Keep us humble when we make good decisions, reminding us that it is You who is the champion of all good things. If perhaps, we should make a poor or wrong decision, provide a roadmap of correction, that our work and actions might always reflect our true character.

In the book of Job, it teaches that “sound wisdom has two sides.” Might we always pick the side which would honor You.

We lift the families of all these gathered here today. You are intimately aware of any difficult decisions they might be facing. We pray Your protection and assurance upon each as they navigate any waters of decision making without their helpmate beside them.

I pray in Jesus Name - Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Hoheisel.

STATE OF THE JUDICIARYJanuary 10, 2024*Chief Justice Marla Luckert

Mr. Speaker, Mr. President, Governor Kelly, other elected officials, Legislators, honored guests, my judicial branch colleagues, and my fellow Kansans—Good afternoon.

Thank you, Speaker Hawkins for the opportunity to provide a report on the state of the Kansas judiciary. Thank you, President Masterson for agreeing to the scheduling. I am deeply honored to speak to this special joint session of the Legislature.

Before dawn on October 12, affiliates of a Russian-based ransomware group infiltrated the computer systems of the Kansas judicial branch. In doing so, they attacked one of the foundational institutions of our democratic society—one of the three branches of our government. These criminals acted against all Kansans, our state, and our democratic institutions.

Though the source and scope of the incident was not immediately clear, we would later learn the Kansas judicial branch had been struck by a ransomware attack. Sadly, we are far from alone in facing such attacks. According to a 2022 FBI Internet Crime report, government facilities are the third most-targeted infrastructure sector for such attacks. Multiple courts around the country have suffered similar incidents in recent years, including one just shortly before October 12.

On the morning of October 12, the information services team in our Office of Judicial Administration began to troubleshoot a network outage. They discovered critical servers housed in the Kansas Judicial Center were inaccessible. These servers support case processing and other key operations in our administrative offices, district courts, and appellate courts. The team quickly mitigated lateral movement of any potential malware by disconnecting systems from external access. This step meant electronic systems were turned off across the state.

The Office of Judicial Administration called on experts—essentially, cybersecurity emergency responders. It also collaborated with the executive branch's chief information technology officer and law enforcement.

As our recovery continued, we relied on these experts as we navigated the various phases of forensic work, system decontamination, restoration, and fortification. Though we'd initially hoped for a swift recovery, we learned from our experts that we could not just clean and restore our systems; we had to carefully fortify them because, once hacked, the likelihood of another attack increases.

The emergency responders' investigation revealed ransomware on the encrypted systems, but we had working backups and the tools and expertise of experts, making recovery of our data feasible. The forensic examination confirmed the cybercriminals' claim that they had exfiltrated some data. We are working hard to determine what and whose personal information has been compromised by the criminal actors so we can notify those individuals.

As these and other details emerged, it became clear we needed to implement alternative business practices to keep courts running. Courts across the state reverted to old school methods, including paper filings. We communicated to the public about how to use the paper environment.

We also maintained contact with the governor, legislative leaders, and law enforcement to keep them apprised of the situation, as well as to hear their concerns and advice. As I and my fellow justices said in a public statement after the attack:

"[T]hroughout this incident, our decisions have been guided by our foundational values. Chief among those is our dedication to upholding and abiding by the rule of law. By adhering to those values at this profoundly trying time, we [have sought] to demonstrate that no malicious element is more powerful than the rule of law and the institutions that abide by it."

Those values guided us to the decision that we would not pay a ransom.

As we worked through recovery and restoration, the Office of Judicial Administration and our court staff across the state have adopted an all-hands-on-deck approach. Many have sacrificed evenings, weekends, vacations, and holiday time, and otherwise given incredible service to bring back electronic services as quickly and safely as possible and to implement various workarounds so our courts could operate without key electronic resources.

Even with our staff's dedicated service, things have progressed more slowly than we would like, in part, because our top priority has been to protect Kansans. Experts have repeatedly told us that no system is impenetrable, and constant vigilance is essential. They assisted in a full review of our system and made recommendations to better protect against sophisticated cyberattacks. We have implemented new protections as well as measures to limit damage and aid quicker recovery if another penetration does occur.

As of today, our centralized case management system has been restored, and with it the free public portal that allows quick access to electronic court records. As I speak, electronic filing is being restored in some districts. The remaining districts should have efilings restored over the next two weeks. We are optimistic that the full functionality of our systems, including appellate efilings, is on the near horizon.

I express my deepest appreciation to the Office of Judicial Administration and district and appellate court employees for their tireless work. I am also grateful to the Governor's Office, the Office of Information Technology Services, the Legislature, and legislative leadership for their partnership, understanding, and assistance. I express my deep sorrow that Kansans suffered because these criminals attacked our system of justice, and I thank my fellow Kansans for their patience and support.

The past several months have been an extraordinary education for our state. One lesson is that we are stronger when all three branches of government come together to work on issues that confront our state, including strengthening and protecting our electronic governmental infrastructure from cyberattacks. Our interconnections in the cybersecurity world were highlighted over 25 years ago by the United States Supreme Court as it addressed early efforts to apply laws intended for the physical world to cyberspace. At that time, Justice Sandra Day O'Connor noted the malleability of cyberspace and its "interconnection of electronic pathways" that allowed users to mask their identities. Still, she observed that "[c]yberspace undeniably reflects some form of geography."

We in the judicial branch have seen firsthand how that geography can show little reverence for our articulated boundaries, laws, and norms. Our experience highlighted our literal interconnectedness and shared vulnerabilities. Though we exist as separate branches of government, these are realities we must confront together. I am grateful for the steps we have already taken in that direction and for the ongoing discussions about future cybersecurity collaboration.

As Chief Justice, I appreciate—and seek to foster—interbranch collaboration and cooperation. I am convinced we have the biggest effect on the pressing needs of Kansans when we work together to find solutions. Recently, the three branches of government have joined forces to tackle significant problems that affect those involved with the judicial system—mental illness, our shortage of attorneys and other resources in rural Kansas, and issues surrounding our child welfare cases.

As I reported to you last year, the three branches came together for a Mental Health Summit the judicial branch organized in 2022. The energy from this summit continued in 2023. Local teams and a statewide team continue to collaborate. New mental health treatment courts have opened across the state, and we continue to expand assisted outpatient treatment programs. These evidence-based courts promote recovery and reduce harmful behavior, hospitalization, and emergency room use. Redirecting these individuals to long-term solutions also reduces costs by breaking the cycle of repeat interactions with the justice system.

Beyond the mental health courts, our specialty court efforts continue to grow. In 2023, three new veteran treatment courts were opened in Leavenworth, Sedgwick, and Shawnee counties. And we conducted many specialty court graduations to celebrate a participant's completion of all the requirements the specialty court asks of them.

Individuals involved in these courts are required to be in court weekly, submit to regular drug testing, answer to judges and their fellow participants about their progress, and work with a large team of judicial partners. The program is considerably more intensive than typical probation. The results demonstrate the value of the added effort as these courts are consistently effective in addressing mental health, behavioral health and addiction issues, and breaking the cycle of recidivism.

We have also started a new specialty court initiative. This grew out of a conversation I had last session with Senator Molly Baumgardner about concerns related to our state's approach to child welfare cases. From that conversation our newest three-branch collaboration was born and has already resulted in two initiatives led by Justice Melissa Standridge.

Establishing a family treatment specialty court is one of those initiatives. In 2024, in partnership with the Department for Children and Families, district courts in three counties—Miami, Lyon, and Cowley—will pilot family treatment courts. This unique specialty court focuses on child abuse or neglect cases in which parental substance use is a contributing factor. Like other specialty courts, a team of judges, court personnel, attorneys, treatment professionals, and other community partners will collaborate to develop plans for children to have a safe and permanent home and for parents to achieve a stable recovery. I look forward to these courts becoming operational and to seeing the benefits they will bring to our communities.

Before I leave the subject of specialty courts, I want to recognize the work of a committee you created by statute that is dedicated to ensuring the efficacy and viability of these courts. Senator Kellie Warren, Representative Stephen Owens, and House Minority Leader Vic Miller are members of this committee. I thank each of them for their willingness to serve.

Turning back to our collaboration about child welfare cases, we kicked off a second initiative last August. President Masterson, House Majority Leader Chris Croft, Secretary Laura Howard, Justice Standridge, and I addressed several hundred attendees at a judicial branch training on child welfare. We announced an upcoming two-day Child Welfare Summit scheduled for this April in Topeka.

Like the Mental Health Summit in 2022, the main goal of the Child Welfare Summit is to provide a space for collaboration between the branches of government and between government and our community partners. To facilitate this, we have invited multidisciplinary teams from each judicial district. Using strategies and best practices discussed at the summit, each team will be asked to design a local action plan with specific strategies and practices that will strengthen families and improve outcomes for children. Even at this early stage, post-summit plans are underway and will include technical assistance to support implementation of team action plans by each judicial district.

The planning committee has been working throughout 2023 to develop a powerful lineup of speakers and presentations. I personally thank Representative Susan Concannon, Representative Owens, and Senator Baumgardner for their participation and their input into the different topics and issues to be discussed.

The changes and discussions planned for the Child Welfare Summit, I believe, will help build a path for a better system for Kansas children and their parents.

Another collaborative effort has focused on addressing the lack of justice resources in rural Kansas. As many of you have experienced in your communities, rural Kansas is facing a severe shortage of attorneys and of other resources to assist those who become involved in the justice system.

In 2022, I signed an order creating the Rural Justice Initiative. This initiative, led by Justice K.J. Wall, includes interested parties from all three branches of state government, the legal and business communities, law schools, and nonprofit and community organizations.

The Rural Justice Initiative has met throughout 2023—including meeting in Great Bend on the invitation of Representative Tory Marie Blew, who serves on the initiative. During its Great Bend meeting, the group hosted a roundtable discussion to hear individuals from the area describe the impact the attorney shortage has on the business community. Members of the initiative also heard from a panel of young attorneys in Dodge City. The young attorneys discussed their challenges as well as their love for their communities and the richness of their lives in rural Kansas.

Along with Representative Blew, Senator Elaine Bowers has worked tirelessly for this committee and been an advocate for rural Kansas. We are incredibly grateful for Senator Bowers and Representative Blew's advocacy and commitment. The initiative will continue its work in 2024 and is starting to draft recommendations. I look forward to reading the final report and working with the Legislature and the governor's office to discuss how we can act on the committee's recommendations.

The final collaboration I want to highlight relates to the investment you have made in the Kansas judicial branch. I express my appreciation for your support in effecting historic, momentous change in judicial funding. In the last few years, you have improved employee salaries, removed the judicial branch reliance on fee funds, created additional administrative and district court positions that help strengthen the backbone of our system, and added cost of living increases to help offset inflationary costs. In 2023, you strengthened the judiciary through passing Senate Bill 229. As many of you have heard me say, increasing judicial pay to a competitive salary has been a long-time goal for the judicial branch. Through enacting SB 229, you and the governor's office helped us implement a formula linked to a percentage of a federal judge's salary; application of this formula will increase judge salaries to the average paid in our four surrounding states. If nothing else, you are probably incredibly grateful that I need not elaborate on judicial salaries today. Instead, I express enormous gratitude on behalf of judges across the state, and I move on.

As we turn to fiscal year 2025, as business owners, employers, and employees, you understand the market continues to impact salaries and wages. Our fiscal year 2025 budget asks for a cost-of-living increase for our non-judge employees. We continue to make this request to prevent erosion of our collective work in the past years to bring judicial branch employee pay to the current market rate. The last few months have reaffirmed that our judicial branch employees—our clerks, court services officers, court administrators, court reporters, and others—provide critical services to the people of Kansas.

As has also become even clearer recently, the Office of Judicial Administration has significant responsibilities helping our district courts. Our fiscal year 2025 budget request also focuses on positions to strengthen the Office of Judicial Administration's ability to meet these responsibilities. Our priority is new cybersecurity positions. But our budget request also asks for additional positions to continue to tighten financial controls and to audit those processes. Other requested positions would support district courts in meeting the needs of litigants, witnesses, jurors, and others. These employees would also develop resources to make it easier to successfully navigate the judicial system.

These employees are the engine of the judicial branch, and this budget request reflects their importance. We appreciate that you have recognized and understand our needs as we work diligently to address the justice concerns of Kansans. We are grateful.

As we begin 2024, I am immensely proud of my judicial branch colleagues. They have once again risen to meet unexpected challenges, and I thank them for pushing onward, through adversity, trepidation, and fatigue. I want you to know that it is clear from talking with staff that they press on not only because it is their job to do so, but because they deeply love their communities and know what it means when access to the court system is limited—even temporarily.

Earlier I mentioned Justice O'Connor and her efforts to address early legal challenges related to cyberspace. In closing, I want to share other remarks from Justice O'Connor. These remarks not only befit the overriding theme of interbranch collaboration and cooperation, but they also befit our nation's tribute to and mourning of the recent loss of Justice O'Connor, who worked tirelessly to promote the understanding of all three branches of government. In her retirement, she founded I-Civics an online resource for civics education, and she inspired others to do more to foster our fellow Americans understanding of our government.

In her career she was not just a trial court judge and the first woman justice on the United States Supreme Court, she also was the first female majority leader of any state legislative upper house. These experiences gave her a special understanding of the importance of the checks and balances between the three branches, as well as the powerful impact of interbranch collaborative efforts. She inspires us to protect our democratic institutions and the rule of law. She also inspires us to continue our service to each other, saying, "Whether acting in the legal, governmental, or private realm, one concerned and dedicated person can meaningfully affect what some consider an uncaring world. So give freely of yourself always to your family, your friends, your community, and your country. The world will pay you back many times over."

I, for one, know I have been paid back with countless blessings, including my family who supports me in my service. I thank my husband and my other family members for that support, including our oldest daughter and our oldest granddaughter who are sitting with my husband in the gallery. My family and the families of other judicial branch employees have made personal sacrifices over the past many weeks while our employees worked to bring operations back to normal. I want to publicly thank all those families for their support as well.

I feel privileged to serve this state and my fellow Kansans, and I suspect all in this room feel the same. Let us continue to give freely to our fellow Kansans and to our communities so that we all may succeed and better our great state.

GOVERNOR KELLY'S COMPLETE TEXT OF THE STATE OF THE STATE

Mr. Speaker...Mr. President...Madam Chief Justice and the entire Kansas Supreme Court...members of my Cabinet...leaders of the Kansas tribes...and all the constitutional officers and legislators assembled – it is an honor to speak with you tonight.

It is also my honor to welcome Lieutenant Governor David Toland and his family: his wife Beth, and their children Caroline and William.

This time last year, I stood here and reviewed the tremendous turnaround our state had made in just four years: Four straight years of balanced budgets...four straight years of fully funding schools...landing the largest economic development project in the history of our state. I declared the state of our state to be very strong.

And, while achieving excellence is hard...sustaining that excellence is even harder. Yet that's exactly what we've done, together.

Last year, Kansas attracted more business investment per capita than any other state in the country. This year, Kansas is #1 – again.

Two years ago, thanks to that influx of new jobs, we hit record-low unemployment rates. So we encouraged more Kansans to join the labor force, and gave them the tools and training they needed. Now, there are more Kansans working than ever before.

We closed the 'Bank of KDOT,' ensuring that infrastructure dollars were actually used for roads, bridges, trains, and broadband. This year alone, my administration worked on 450 infrastructure projects – and we connected another 9,000 homes and businesses to high-speed internet.

We made record investments to repair our foster care system, keep families together, and improve mental health access. The work has paid off. Today, there are fewer children entering our foster care system than at any point in our state's recorded history.

We passed $1 billion of tax cuts for families, for veterans, for homeowners, for farmers and ranchers. That's 1 billion dollars in tax cuts.

Then, we came together – Republicans and Democrats – to do even more: we axed the food tax.

Just last week, we saw the food tax reduced again – putting an additional $150 million dollars back into the pockets of Kansans.

Before we know it, the food tax won't exist at all. In 2025 – or, perhaps, even sooner – it will be totally axed, gone, never to be levied again.

I'm proud to stand here and tell you, without hesitation, that again, the state of our state is strong.

But ... I'm also here to tell you: We're going to keep making it stronger.

Now, it's not like we haven't made any mistakes. Like, when I thought I could design the new state license plate from my home computer...now that was a mistake. When you make a mistake, you own it and then you fix it.

So, we did the right thing. We put the new designs to a vote of the people -- because in Kansas, when the people strongly support something, we listen to them and act accordingly. Right?

Please...hold that thought, I'll come back to it in a few minutes.

By listening to Kansans...by prioritizing fiscal responsibility and steady governance, we've built a solid foundation for our state. Now, we're positioned to look ahead to the future. To stop worrying about each monthly revenue report, and instead to dream big about the next year ... the next decade...the next century.

As we move Kansas forward, it's critical that we not lose sight of what makes our state unique. That we preserve what it means to be a Kansan...what's fundamental to our identity. And that would be rural Kansas.

Kansas is, at its heart, a small-town kind of state. One million people – a third of our population – live in communities with fewer than 40 people per square mile. The people who work in our state's most important industry don't wear suits; they wear boots and jeans. We pride ourselves on being salt-of-the-earth people who work hard but who always take time to look after our neighbors.

That's not to say our more urban centers aren't important – of course they are. But in so many ways, they depend upon our rural areas. They depend upon the crops grown in Western Kansas, the energy produced in Central Kansas, tourism on hunting grounds in Southeast Kansas. When rural Kansans are doing well, all Kansans do well.

That's why we've made empowering our rural communities a focal point of our administration. First, we created the Office of Rural Prosperity; then, we revived the Main Street Program to rebuild the downtowns of our small cities.

And thanks to Lieutenant Governor Toland and the Department of Commerce, more businesses are opening in small towns across our state.

Cherryvale recently secured a $400 million-dollar soybean crushing plant. Near Colby, McCarty Family Farms will be cutting the ribbon on their dairy plant this spring. And in Wathena, Summit Truck Bodies will soon finish its facility expansion.

But, we know we still have issues to address. Small towns struggle to attract the workers they need. Safe, affordable housing is hard to come by, while property taxes continue to climb. Too many of our kids and grandkids move away from home in search of better opportunities; and, tragically, we're losing too many of our farmers and ranchers to suicide.

Many of you know this. Like me, you're talking all the time with Kansans who are worried about the future.

That future – the future of rural Kansas – is what I want to address this evening.

Because, as strong as we are as a state overall, if we're going to reach new heights, we can't just support growth in Overland Park, in Wichita, and in Lawrence. Garden City, Independence, and Goodland need our attention, too.

Tonight, I want to talk about five of the challenges facing rural communities and what we – as governor and as the legislature – can do to address them. These are not only my priorities for this upcoming session, but for the rest of my time in office...five areas in which we can create a better future for rural Kansas, and thus, for our state as a whole.

Let's start with healthcare. Simply put, our rural hospitals are not doing well. In just the past decade, eight have closed down – including Herington Hospital, which shut its doors in October after 104 years in operation. Soon after that, Ft. Scott lost its emergency room – a gut punch to a community already reeling from the loss of its hospital four years ago.

59 more Kansas hospitals are in jeopardy of following suit.

That's 59 out of 102 – more than half.

Because so many of our hospitals are hanging on by a thread, they're forced to increase costs for patients, to lay off healthcare and other essential workers, to stop offering important services. Then, counties often resort to raising property taxes in a last-ditch effort to keep those hospitals afloat...and, when that fails, Kansans must drive longer and longer distances for basic care.

So much of the problem boils down to one thing: far too many Kansans don't have health insurance. In particular, working Kansans who don't have employer-based insurance but who make too much money to qualify for our current Medicaid program. These are Kansans who work at the local hair salon or barbershop, who care for your elderly parent at the nursing home, who watch your kids so you can work.

Now, remember when I was talking about license plates, and what I said about listening to Kansans when they strongly support something?...Like when over 70% support something?

If you're listening, you know we're talking about the vast majority of Kansans who want Medicaid Expansion.

Support for Medicaid Expansion has grown by leaps and bounds. We've seen leaders in communities like Hays and Russell, sheriffs and faith leaders, farmers and ranchers, and a cross-section of business leaders, jump on the bandwagon.

But I've also heard the opposition's concerns about the cost and about fairness.

Last month, I proposed a bill that was crafted with their concerns in mind – the Cutting Healthcare Costs for All Kansans Act.

For those of you worried that Medicaid Expansion will allow “able-bodied adults” to scam the system – the bill includes a work requirement with commonsense exemptions for veterans, caregivers, students, and people with medical conditions.

For those concerned that county jails have been shouldering the cost for medical care for inmates, this ensures that they can instead put that money toward public safety.

And, for those concerned about cost, it's revenue-neutral. It comes at no additional cost to taxpayers.

Once again. Health care coverage for 150,000 Kansans. Cost-savings for most everyone. We protect our rural hospitals. And Kansas taxpayers pay nothing extra? That's a deal just about anyone would take.

This should not be a partisan issue, and in fact, I believe that if the issue were put to a vote today, the majority of you in this chamber would support it. Yet there are some who are so adamantly opposed to expansion that they won't even give you the opportunity to debate and to vote.

They dismiss the vast majority of Kansans who support Medicaid Expansion...

They stand by as states like California, New York, and every single one of our neighboring states take our federal tax dollars to support their hospitals and their economies...

They look away as rural, elderly citizens have to drive farther and farther for care – or just go without.

They say that Medicaid Expansion is not a silver bullet for our rural hospitals. You know what? I agree. Of course it's not going to solve every challenge facing rural healthcare. But it's a critical part of the solution. We can't solve the problem without it.

At this point, not expanding Medicaid is akin to giving up on your rural hospitals, your rural communities, your rural constituents. I refuse to do that. And you should too.

The Cutting Healthcare Costs for All Kansans Act will be introduced in both chambers next week. Let's stop ignoring our constituents and give this bill a hearing by Kansas Day. On the 163rd anniversary of our state entering the greatest democracy in the world, Kansans deserve a debate – and then a vote – on Medicaid Expansion.

Okay, so we've dealt with rural health care. Now let's talk about saving our rural public schools. 90% of Kansas kids go to public school – and in rural areas, where there are hardly any private schools – that number's closer to 100%.

When I first ran for office, I pledged to be the Education Governor. To make fixing our school system my number one focus.

It's what our state needed. It's what our rural communities needed.

Because several years back, when our state faced a severe budget crisis – it was our rural schools that took the hardest hit.

I'm proud now to report that this past year, my fifth year in office, was also the fifth straight year we came together as Republicans and Democrats to fully fund our public schools.

That consistent investment is paying off. Right now, our high school graduation rate is the highest it's ever been...more of our students are going on to college or getting work credentials than ever before...and the number of students needing remedial instruction has dropped dramatically.

I've said our state is back on track economically – it's also back on track academically.

Yet some want to turn us back, to reverse the progress we've made – by diverting public education dollars to private schools, or flat out stripping rural schools of the funds they need to stay open.

So tonight, let me be crystal clear: I will not let that happen.

I will continue to reject vouchers and any attempt to send public education dollars to private schools.

Vouchers will crush our rural schools, plain and simple.

Our teachers don't support vouchers.

Our local officials don't support vouchers.

And Kansans don't support vouchers.

Believe me, if you represent a rural area and you're out there pushing for vouchers, you'll be hearing from parents back home – wondering why you've turned your back on their schools, and why you've prioritized private schools hundreds of miles away.

Last session, I brought out my veto pen to protect our rural schools that were facing massive and immediate funding cuts.

The district facing the largest cut was USD 225, in Fowler. You'll find Fowler on the drive between Liberal and Dodge City – it calls itself “a small town with a big heart.”

You know, if I had not line-item vetoed the school funding bill last year, Fowler's budget would have been cut by 25%. And that district would have closed.

And it's not just the school district that would have suffered, it's the entire town that would have suffered. In recent years, Fowler Schools has become more – not less – essential to its community.

Fowler has transformed unused space in its high school into a business incubator, spurring entrepreneurship. It also started its own daycare center, allowing parents to participate in the workforce.

If USD 225 were to close its doors completely, it wouldn't just shut down classrooms...it would shut down businesses.

But even more than that, the loss of local schools would mean the loss of a special way of life, going right at the heart of what it means to live in a small town. When kids have to take the bus to another town, miles away ... you lose those grocery store run-ins with your kids' teachers ... you lose the bake sales, you lose the school plays, and you lose so much of what makes rural towns like Fowler special.

But the town of Fowler isn't letting that happen. Fowler is fighting to protect its way of life.

And tonight, I want to recognize the people who have led those efforts: Superintendent Jamie Wetig and School Board President TJ Milford. Jamie and TJ, please stand to be recognized.

TJ and Jamie, like so many other educators across Kansas, are fighting for our rural schools, fighting for their communities. We must join them in that fight.

That's why, for the 6th year in a row, my budget will fully fund Kansas schools.

It's also why my budget will put Kansas on track to fully fund special education.

Right now, because we're not funding special education at the statutorily required amount, schools end up diverting funds from other areas, impacting students across the board.

The idea that any Kansas school wouldn't have the resources to educate students with special needs – that should be deeply upsetting to all of us.

So let's do something about it. Our schools must be able to educate ALL of our children.

That also means our very youngest children.

We can't wait until kindergarten to start setting up our kids for a strong future. Children's experiences from birth to 5 determine the trajectory of their entire lives, from social development to academic achievement to career success.

That is why I'm so focused on early childhood. In my budget tomorrow, I'll be proposing the largest single-year investment ever made in our state's early childhood system.

A large part of that investment will go toward solving our state's child care shortage. Over half of Kansas families in search of child care cannot find an open slot – forcing many parents to quit their jobs. And the shortages are worst in our rural areas.

That's bad for our children, stressful for our parents, and, at a time when every business is desperate for workers, it slows down our economy.

We've begun to chip away at the need. Between May of 2022 and August of 2023, we've added more than 6,800 child care slots across the state. We also provided tax credits to make it easier for businesses to provide child care for their employees.

But we still have so much more to do.

We need to eliminate the red tape that makes it difficult for families and child care providers to access services.

Right now, if a daycare center wants to set up shop, it must work with one state agency to get licensed, another to receive workforce support, and a third to get funding. There are too many barriers, too many portals, too much hassle. We need to fix it.

Last year, I created a task force charged with streamlining our early childhood services into a single entity.

The task force met throughout the year and presented their recommendations last month.

Tonight, I'm building on their plan and calling for all early childhood services to be put under one roof – the "Office of Early Childhood."

Soon, I'll be putting forward a bill to consolidate those services, creating a one-stop-shop for young families, childcare providers, and businesses.

I know many of you are also passionate about improving our early childhood system. We have an opportunity this year to work together to make government more efficient and more effective, and to address a major problem for Kansas families.

Now, we are able to make such important investments in our schools and early childhood system because we've grown our economy and managed the state in a fiscally responsible manner.

Here in Kansas, instead of having to cut funding for essential services like other states are experiencing, we are not only able to increase investments, we can also address my next priority: the far-too-high cost of living.

As I said earlier, we've cut taxes for Kansans – by over one billion dollars in total.

But with so many working families still struggling, all of us can agree that we need to cut taxes again.

We must get that money back into Kansans' pockets – and we will – in a fiscally responsible and targeted way. In a way that doesn't threaten progress on all the other issues Kansans care about – our schools, our roads, foster care, and public safety.

And unfortunately, that's exactly what one proposal – the flat tax – would do.

The flat tax came up last year, and I expect it'll come up again this year, despite the fact that it only benefits the super wealthy while doing little to nothing for working, middle class Kansans.

You know, Arizona legislators passed a flat tax in 2021. And now, they're facing a very significant budget shortfall. Guess where they're turning for cuts? Their public schools, their law enforcement, and their infrastructure.

We have been down that road before – and we can't go back. Not back to Brownback, not back to four-day school weeks. Not back to crumbling roads, falling down bridges, all because some politicians want to push through another reckless tax experiment.

On Monday, I joined Republican and Democrat legislators to propose a responsible, comprehensive, and affordable plan that benefits every Kansan.

It starts by doing what we should have done in the first place: Completely eliminate the grocery tax on food. No waiting until 2025 – we owe it to Kansans to do it now.

Next, we need to provide relief for our retirees – something I know is of the utmost importance to many of us here. Our seniors have worked hard their entire lives, paying into Social Security so that they can enjoy a reasonable retirement.

Their next chapter in life shouldn't be spent worrying about how they'll afford essential medications or whether they can put food on the table.

So tonight, we're proposing to completely eliminate state taxes on Social Security altogether.

But even more than Social Security, the tax hurting our seniors most is property tax. The reality is, as we see property values skyrocket in both rural and urban areas, elderly Kansans worry that they'll be priced out of their homes – the homes where they raised their kids, built their lives, and made precious memories.

That's exactly what's happening in Iola, Kansas. Mary Kay and David Heard have lived there for nearly their entire lives, running the local Western Auto Store and raising their three kids.

They retired in 2009, but they've remained committed members of the community, supporting small businesses and the local hospital. But despite their work, they've watched as Iola's population has slowly declined, in part because their neighbors and friends are being overwhelmed by property taxes.

To grow our population in rural areas, we can't drive away the families who sustain our communities. That's why I'm calling on the legislature to raise the residential statewide property tax exemption from $42,000 to $100,000. It would provide folks like Mary Kay and David relief every year – and for 370,000 Kansas families, it would wipe out all or almost all of their state property tax bill.

That's a property tax cut for 370,000 Kansas families.

Mary Kay and David are here tonight. Would you both please stand and be recognized, representing the thousands of Kansans who would benefit from property tax relief?

I said the plan was comprehensive, and it is. In addition to taking on property taxes, to making life more affordable for our seniors ... it also creates a back-to-school sales tax holiday...it increases the standard deduction so Kansans pay less when they file their taxes...and it helps every parent pay for child care.

So, let's take the flat tax off the table once and for all. Instead, let's come together around this plan – it benefits all Kansans, not just those at the top. It includes ideas from both Republicans and Democrats.

And, most importantly, it doesn't threaten the progress on all the other issues Kansans care about. Let's get this done.

On so many of the issues I've outlined tonight, we need to act now to improve the lives of rural Kansans. But the final challenge I want to address tonight is longer-term, and it's one that threatens the viability of our agriculture industry and our entire economy. And that's our water crisis.

Right now, we're seeing this crisis in small towns across the state. In Southeast Kansas, Caney recently had to close schools on Fridays and shut down public restrooms because of ancient, leaking pipes.

Meanwhile, parts of western Kansas have already seen wells dry up, and estimates show that others have less than 25 years to go. Think about that. Our next generation could be left with no usable water.

For too long, our state's leaders have not been good stewards of both our budget AND of our natural resources.

That must end now. The challenge of preserving our water quality and quantity illustrates what I said earlier – that an existential issue for rural Kansas is an existential issue for our entire state.

My goal for the rest of my term is to put Kansas on the path to resolving this crisis. Thankfully, by working together, we're already made progress:

Last year, the legislature passed a bipartisan bill that created a framework to ensure every community in Kansas is planning for the future...

In addition to fully funding the State Water Plan for the second year in a row, we invested an historic $35 million each of the next five years to deal with water issues...

And, we're paying off water infrastructure debt early, giving us additional dollars to resolve the crisis.

It's crucial that we build on that progress and empower even more stakeholders to take action. The good news is that we are in a better position than ever before to do that.

My budget proposal tomorrow will fully fund the State Water Plan for the third year in a row...

It will also include more funding for rural towns to update their water systems...

It will provide resources for the new Kansas Water Institute at K-State, to leverage expertise and develop innovative solutions to water challenges.

And, it will provide additional resources to help farmers and ranchers implement water-saving practices.

Those practices are gaining momentum throughout the state. More and more, Kansans are recognizing that we don't have to choose between conserving water and growing the economy. That one is essential to the other.

That includes Kansans like Mitch Baalman, a fourth-generation farmer from Hoxie. His father started Groundwater Management District 4 in the 1970's, recognizing even back then the need to safeguard our water.

From father to son, they've worked with other farmers in the area to, as Mitch puts it, "change the mentality and the culture" around water conservation.

He got together with some of his friends from church and from the neighborhood... to start a Local Enhanced Management Area – or, as we know it, a LEMA – to encourage other producers to do more with less water.

It wasn't easy. Over five years, they held numerous public hearings, worked with customers, and partnered with the legislature to change statutes. But they've shown that, despite what many people believe, water is not an intractable issue. Sustainability is possible.

Their LEMA has shown a nearly 30% reduction in water use, all while producers saved money and met their production goals. They are a model for other communities across the state, showing that coordinated, collective action on water conservation is good for our pocketbooks, and for our long-term economy.

Mitch and his wife Lola are here tonight. Please stand to be recognized.

Mitch, Lola, and others like them are making it possible to preserve the Kansas we all know and love. We owe it to ourselves, our children, and every future generation in Kansas to follow their lead and act now – before it's too late.

I've spent a lot of time tonight talking about rural Kansas, asking big questions about its future.

We need to take those challenges head-on, not just because it's a good thing to do for individual rural communities, but because without those rural communities, we lose who we are as a state.

Thankfully, there's a good reason to be optimistic about the future. Last month, the U.S. Department of Agriculture released a study showing that the population of rural areas is increasing for the first time in a decade.

In fact, hear this: parts of rural Kansas are now growing 8 times faster than the national average.

Yet too often, it seems as though people – especially here in the statehouse – believe our rural communities are doomed to shrink...that our hospitals are doomed to close...that our schools are doomed to decline.

That we should just throw up our arms, as if there's nothing we can do about it. I think that's nonsense.

Here's my message tonight: Step up for rural Kansas. Step up. This must be a priority -- when rural Kansas is strong, then Kansas is strong.

Now, maybe that's something folks aren't used to hearing from a Democrat.

But I didn't get here yesterday; I know, from years and years of traveling this great state, from one small town to another -- that rural Kansas is not only the economic engine of our state. It's our heart, it's our core. It's who we are. And it's why we love Kansas.

Right now, we're in a position of strength. We're debating how to responsibly spend the surplus we have, not how to fill in the gaps. Think of how far we've come in the last five years.

We got here by working together. And we'll only succeed in building a brighter future – not just for rural Kansas, but for every corner of our state – by continuing to work together.

Now, many of you have been fighting this fight for years; and have the battle scars to prove it.

I encourage you to remember the words of that great Kansan, Ted Lasso, who said: "You know what the happiest animal on earth is? It's a goldfish. You know why? It's got a 10-second memory. So be a goldfish."

Let's, all of us, be goldfish – and not let the divisions of the past prevent us from doing right by Kansans for their future.

We have a unique opportunity to build on the progress we've made – and to truly make a lasting impact on the state we love, and the people we serve.

Thank you. Good night.

SIXTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, January 16, 2024, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Hawkins in the chair.

The roll was called with 107 members present.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Here we are Lord, Your servants, prepared and ready to do the work set before us.
It will be a busy day, so we would ask in the midst of the busyness we do not lose sight of our purpose or of pleasing
You with our decisions and actions.
There are a myriad of people depending upon us to do what is right, even though at times it may be difficult. May we not disappoint them.
Your Word proclaims in the Book of Proverbs, "Incline your ear and hear the words of the wise and apply your mind to knowledge."
That is indeed the prayer I pray for these gathered here, as they tackle the challenges set before them.
Would You come alongside our families and remind them of our love and devotion to them. Remind them, if You would, that they will always be of much more importance than any legislation that could ever be passed.
We also pray for our National Government and leaders.
Grant them the ability and desire to do what is right for our nation.
If today any should encounter one in whom they find disagreement, might their disagreements be tempered with politeness and mutual respect.
I pray these things in Jesus Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Amyx.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Good Morning Father;

As we contemplate this new day of legislative work, we seek Your Divine guidance. Our desire is to be diligent as well as inquisitive in the agendas set before us. We seek ultimately to be good stewards of the trust placed upon us.

This is the season when sickness, colds and various viruses seek to keep us from performing at our very best.

Would You provide strength and healing to those who need that physical touch only You can provide.

We pray for our families. Some gathered here are separated from those whom they love because of their legislative duties.
Might Your strength and healing touch be upon our loved ones who are not feeling well today.

I pray for peace to reign in each heart as they negotiate the often intricate and complex issues set before them.
We are aware as Your peace prevails wisdom and direction tends to follow.

Keep a smile in our spirits and a sense of gratitude in our very beings as we celebrate the opportunity to make a positive difference in our part of the world.

I ask these things in the name of the One who loves and cares unconditionally.
Amen.

Dear Father;

This is the day You have made; our desire is to rejoice and be glad in it!

Thank You for the opportunity to serve the people of Kansas in this unique position in which we find ourselves.

Indeed, You have blessed us that we might bless others.

We will most certainly engage in many conversations of substance and importance in the coming hours.

Your Word teaches, "A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger."

Help us look for the way of gentleness in our debate and decision making.

Remind us, if You will, that few good decisions are made out of an angry heart.

We pray for our National leaders that they might exercise caution and wisdom as they tend to the business of our Nation.

We pray for our women and men in uniform who are tasked with the the defense of our Nation as well as our very way of life.

Protect them with Your hand of justice and righteousness.

Bless our families today. May they be nourished at Your well of grace.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Waymaster are spread upon the Journal:

Today we bring attention to a beacon of hope and progress in our state—The University of Kansas Cancer Center. The University of Kansas Cancer Center has long been a symbol of excellence, demonstrating an unwavering commitment to eradicating the burdens of cancer within Kansas and beyond. Through tireless dedication, groundbreaking research, and compassionate patient care, this institution has become a leading force in the fight against one of the most formidable challenges of our time.

Their work was recently recognized by the National Cancer Institute (NCI), who rewarded the cancer center with “comprehensive” designation in 2022. With this award KU Cancer Center is now one of only 56 NCI-designated comprehensive cancer centers in the country, and the only one in our state and region. This is the highest level of recognition awarded by the NCI and is the gold standard for cancer centers. This places KU Cancer Center in the top 1% of cancer centers across the country and means that Kansans will be cared for by the world’s leading cancer experts who will have access to cutting-edge research initiatives. To put it simply, this translates to saved lives. Patients treated at NCI-designated cancer centers have a 25% greater chance of survival.

I am fortunate to be joined today by leadership from The University of Kansas Cancer Center as well as two cancer survivors.

Dr. Roy Jensen serves as the vice chancellor and director of The University of Kansas Cancer Center, director of the Kansas Masonic Cancer Research Institute and CEO of the Masonic Cancer Alliance. Since joining the cancer center in 2004, Dr. Jensen has recruited a world-class leadership team and built a robust research program that made the comprehensive designation possible.

Jeff Wright serves as the Senior Vice President of Cancer Services at The University of Kansas Health System. Wright serves as the current chair of the Board of Ambassadors for the American Cancer Society.

CiCi Rojas is co-owner and president of Tico Productions and Tico Sports, a multicultural marketing firm located in Mission, Kansas. She is also an engaged citizen, serving on the boards of several community organizations including the YMCA. In 2017, CiCi was diagnosed with stage 4 large b-cell lymphoma. She underwent several chemotherapy treatments, including two CAR-T treatments and a bone marrow transplant. CiCi has been in remission since 2020.

Darren McLaughlin serves as the Chief of Police for Merriam, KS and has been serving the citizens of Merriam for 34 years. He is married to his wife Mindy and the father of two children, Kyle and Grace. Darren was diagnosed in January of 2019 with Stage 4 Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma. He received CAR-T therapy in June 2019 and has been cancer free since July 2019.

Fred Logan is the Chair of the Masonic Cancer Alliance Partners Advisory Board. In 2023, Fred received the first-ever Chancellor’s Award for Distinguished Service in part for his work in support of The University of Kansas Cancer Center

They are here today with many others as part of “KU Cancer Center Day in the Statehouse.” I ask that if your life has been impacted by cancer in any way, that you stand and join me in expressing our appreciation for the achievements and dedication of The University of Kansas Cancer Center.

(b) There shall be added to federal adjusted gross income:

(i) Interest income less any related expenses directly incurred in the purchase of state or political subdivision obligations, to the extent that the same is not included in federal adjusted gross income, on obligations of any state or political subdivision thereof, but to the extent that interest income on obligations of this state or a political subdivision thereof issued prior to January 1, 1988, is specifically exempt from income tax under the laws of this state authorizing the issuance of such obligations, it shall be excluded from computation of Kansas adjusted gross income whether or not included in federal adjusted gross income. (xi) The amount of any contribution made to the same extent the same is claimed as the basis for the credit allowed pursuant to K.S.A. 74-50,154, and amendments thereto.

(xii) For taxable years commencing after December 31, 2004, amounts received as withdrawals not in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 74-50,204, and amendments thereto, if, at the time of contribution to an individual development account, such amounts were subtracted from the federal adjusted gross income pursuant to subsection (c)(xiii), or if such amounts are not already included in the federal adjusted gross income.

A RESOLUTION affirming the Kansas house of representatives' unwavering support for free press in the state of Kansas and directing the attorney general to make a report to the body concerning the Colorado bureau of investigation's inquiry regarding the extent to which the civil rights of any Kansan were violated when certain search warrants were executed in Marion, Kansas, on August 11, 2023.

WHEREAS, Journalism is a pillar of democracy, and free press is protected by the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, Section 11 of the Kansas Bill of Rights, enshrined in the Kansas Constitution, declares, "The liberty of the press shall be inviolate"; and

WHEREAS, As defined by K.S.A. 2023 Supp. 60-480(a), a journalist is a publisher, editor, reporter or other person employed by a newspaper, magazine, news wire service, television station or radio station who gathers, receives or process information for communication to the public. The same statute also states that a journalist can be defined as an online journal in the regular business of newsgathering and disseminating news or information to the public; and

WHEREAS, Journalists are important participants in democracy and, increasingly, a vital source of local news and educational information within their communities; and

WHEREAS, Journalists create historical records and provide an important service to the community; and

WHEREAS, Journalists in Kansas, including those at the Marion County Record in Marion, Kansas, have faced retaliation for exercising their constitutional rights in the course of publishing facts about important matters and those of public concern; and

WHEREAS, On August 11, 2023, law enforcement agencies, led by the Marion Police Department, executed search warrants on the Marion County Record, the home of its publisher, Eric Meyer, where he lived with his 98-year-old mother, Joan Meyer, and the home of then-city commission member Ruth Herbel; and

WHEREAS, On August 16, 2023, the Marion County Attorney withdrew the search warrants and authorized the return of seized items because, according to a news release made by Marion County Attorney Joel Ensey, "insufficient evidence exists to establish a legally sufficient nexus between this alleged crime and the places searched and the items seized"; and

WHEREAS, None of the people whose homes or businesses were searched on August 11, 2023, have been charged with any criminal offense; and

WHEREAS, The Colorado Bureau of Investigation, at the request of the State of Kansas, has opened an investigation on the circumstances surrounding the August 11 searches; and

WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States has enacted the Privacy Protection Act of 1980 (PPA), codified at 42 U.S.C. § 2000aa et seq., which generally requires the government to issue subpoenas to journalists before subjecting them to search warrants; and

WHEREAS, The PPA provides that, absent certain narrow and enumerated exceptions, it shall be unlawful for a government officer or employee, in connection with the investigation or prosecution of a criminal offense, to search for or seize any work product materials or documentary materials, as defined by the PPA, that are in the possession of a journalist; and

WHEREAS, Searching for or seizing any journalistic work product or documentary materials, as defined by the PPA, without first issuing subpoenas contravenes the tenets of the First Amendment and the basis of a free and informed society, for it undermines the role of journalism in encouraging engaged, civic-minded, critical thinkers: Now, therefore,

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Thomas are spread upon the Journal:

Today, I stand before you not just as a representative of our great state, but as an advocate for one of the most vital pillars of our society — education. It is a universal truth, as old as civilization itself, that education is the bedrock upon which societies grow, innovate, and prosper. In the heartland of America, in our beloved Kansas, this truth resonates with special significance.

We gather here to celebrate a beacon of this truth, individuals whose dedication to teaching have not only illuminated the minds of our youth but have also kindled a flame of knowledge and inspiration that reaches far beyond classroom walls.

In this spirit of reverence for education, it is my distinct honor to introduce and celebrate these remarkable individuals. Our Teacher of the Year finalists, each one, a beacon in their own right, collectively embodies the highest ideals of teaching and learning.

These eight educators, hailing from different corners of our state, represent a diverse tapestry of passion, dedication, and innovation in the realm of education. They have each, in their unique ways, demonstrated an unwavering commitment to their students, fostering environments where curiosity thrives and potential is realized.

Their classrooms are more than just physical spaces; they are vibrant communities of learning, where every question is valued and every student is seen. In these nurturing environments, our teachers have not only shared knowledge but have also kindled a lifelong passion for learning, ensuring that the journey of education is as exciting as its destination.

As we celebrate these exceptional educators, it's pivotal to reflect on the broader role of teachers in our society. Socrates, the great philosopher, once said, "Education is the kindling of a flame, not the filling of a vessel." This profound thought encapsulates the essence of teaching. Our teachers do not merely fill minds with facts; they ignite the spark of inquiry and understanding. They are not just instructors; they are mentors, guides, and architects of the future.

In a world brimming with challenges and opportunities, teachers like the ones we honor today, provide the beacon of wisdom and critical thinking necessary to navigate it. They empower our youth, not just with knowledge, but with the values, and skills required to lead, innovate, and contribute meaningfully to our community and beyond.

Each of the eight teachers we honor today has left an indelible mark on their students and communities. Through their tireless efforts and innovative approaches, they have elevated the standard of education and set a shining example for teachers everywhere.

Their impact extends far beyond the confines of their classrooms. It resonates in the lives of their students, in the aspirations they help shape, and in the brighter future they help forge. These educators remind us that the influence of a great teacher can never be erased; it lives on in the successes and achievements of their students.

As we stand here in the Kansas House of Representatives, let us take a moment to express our deepest gratitude to these eight outstanding educators for their service, commitment, and passion. They are not just teachers, they are custodians of our future, shaping the minds that will one day lead our great state and our nation.

Rep. Thomas introduced the 2024 Kansas Teacher of the Year Regional Finalists: Cheryl Delacruz, Topeka USD 501; Gretchen Elliott, Smoky Valley USD 400; Joanna Farmer, Wichita USD 259; Melissa Haney, Goddard USD 265; Erin Pittenger, Rock Creek USD 323; Michelle Tapko, Shawnee Mission USD 512; Fonda Telthorst, Piper Kansas City USD 203; and The 2024 Kansas Teacher of the Year, Taylor Bussinger, Olathe USD 233.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father;

There are many things which are demanding my attention today.

Help me to not get so caught up in the immediate that I ignore the necessary.

Necessary things like Family, friends, colleagues and those who really need my listening ear.

Help me to be quick to listen and slow to speak, that I might hear that which I would have missed otherwise.

If perhaps, I should become involved in discussions today which become difficult, help me, when I get on the backside of the discussions, that I am not ashamed of how I acted or what I said in the midst of them!

Your word teaches "He whose ear listens to the life-giving reproof, will dwell among the wise."

Thank you for Your Divine protection, especially these past few days with the inclement weather we have been experiencing.

Thank you for the accident I did not have, the difficulties
I did not encounter and the obstacles of life I did not have to navigate.

And now Father, bless the work set before us, and we will give You praise.

In Jesus Name

Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Bergkamp.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Sawyer are spread upon the Journal:

Introducing ... Miss Kansas Courtney Wages

Courtney Wages is 2023's Miss Kansas and I am proud to say, she is one of my constituents!

She has recently earned her place among the top 11 finalists in the Miss America competition.

Her service initiative, "One Vision is Not the Only Vision," she passionately champions the independence and well-being of individuals who are blind or visually impaired (BVI).

There are over 7 million Americans who have vision loss or blindness.

For these individuals, vision loss can lead to significant gaps in educational achievement and employment opportunities.

Research tells us that 70% of people who are blind or visually impaired are unemployed.

Her journey is supported by a strategic partnership with Envision.

As Community Outreach Manager for Envision, Courtney works towards addressing the needs of individuals with low vision in schools, the workplace, senior living centers and optometry clinics throughout the state.

Also, Courtney asks that I remind you to join her for lunch at Noon on 2nd Floor North, she will be sharing a bit of her amazing journey.

Please join me in congratulating Miss Kansas!

Rep. Sawyer presented Miss Wages a House certificate in honor of her achievements.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
REGARDING VETO OF HOUSE BILL 2284

I support responsible tax cuts, but I refuse to sign into law a reckless flat tax that would take us back to Brownback while doing next to nothing for the middle class. This flat tax experiment would overwhelmingly benefit the super wealthy, and I'm not going to put our public schools, roads, and stable economy at risk just to give a break to those at the very top.

I am dead set on making sure working Kansans get a tax cut this year. That's why I've brought together Republican, Democratic, and Independent legislators to champion a $1 billion tax cut over three years, all while maintaining our state's strong fiscal foundation. Our bipartisan tax cut will make it easier for families to pay for groceries, child care, diapers, and school supplies - while also cutting property, sales, and retirement taxes.

While I urge the legislature to take this irresponsible flat tax experiment off the table once and for all, know that I will not let legislators leave Topeka this year without meaningfully and responsibly cutting taxes for middle-class families. I will call a special session if I have to - anything to ensure Kansans see tax relief, immediately. Let's work together to cut taxes in a way that continues our economic growth while benefiting all Kansans, not just the wealthiest.

Therefore, under Article 2, Section 14(a) of the Constitution, I hereby veto House Bill 2284.

SEVENTEENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, January 31, 2024, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 118 members present.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father.

Our minds are often filled with so much information it becomes difficult to separate truth and falsehood.

We know what we want but desire it to be the right thing and not just the convenient.

Direct us in the path of truth and righteousness.

We pray for those who are sick from our assembly.

Might Your healing hand be upon them as they begin their recovery, so we can soon welcome them back.

In the following hours many will sit in a room and make decisions which impacts our State and its citizens.

Direct the dialogue, debate, and end result in such a way as to make our very livelihood in Kansas appealing and wholesome.

We pray for our women and men in uniform deployed on the front lines of danger.

We lift their families to You and ask that

You would provide comfort and assurance as only You can.

The book of Isaiah 43:18 says,

“Do not call to mind the former things, or ponder things of the past.

Behold, I am doing something new.”

Help us to see with new eyes that which may have been hidden in our debates and discussions.

Thank you for our families and the love they have for us, even though we are often absent from them.

May we always cherish the moments we do have together.

Might each one here experience

Your love and cherish the moments they have with You.

I pray this in The Name of the One who loves each unconditionally.

Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Titus.

CELEBRATION OF KANSAS DAY

In recognition of the 163rd birthday of Kansas on January 29th, Reps. Ballard and Bergquist led the members of the House in singing Home on the Range.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Proctor are spread upon the Journal:

Today I have with me here at the well and in the balcony – The Leavenworth High School JROTC Raider team. Here with me today are coaches 1SG Wayne Cogdill and Coach Edwards. Also joining us are Cadets; Katherine Edwards, Rayna Klutse, Jeremiah Purvis, Jonathan Purvis, Elisabeth Howell, Cristi Scillieri, Jacob Forrey and Gabrielle Ohwovoriole.

A couple months ago, in Molena, Georgia, the Leavenworth High School JROTC Raiders won the Raider National Champions for the fourth time in five years. This is a grueling, three-day competition, which includes a physical training test, a 5K run, and the one-rope bridge. They beat 94 other teams from across the country to win this Championship.

You might be asking yourself how a small city like Leavenworth could so consistently defeat so many teams from bigger cities from across the nation. It is definitely a testament to these kids, their hard work and determination to excel. But it is also about these coaches who sacrifice so much to inspire these kids to go a little bit faster, a little bit longer. And it is a testament to the parents of each one of these kids, who sacrifice so much of their time and money to make this teamwork day in and day out. And, finally, it is about the entire community of Leavenworth, Fort Leavenworth, and Lansing, that give so much of their time and treasure to support this team and give them the resources they need to win these Championships year after year.

But it is also about setting high expectations and standards for our kids. The success of this JROTC program--whether the Raider Team, the armed or unarmed drill teams, or the color guard—is squarely a result of the cadre of this program setting high standards, not compromising those standards, and inspiring these kids to rise, to meet and exceed them. Kids thrive when we expect more from them than they think they are capable of achieving. And this achievement we are recognizing today reflects that fact.

And so, on behalf of the Kansas House of Representatives, I am honored to present this tribute to the Leavenworth High School JROTC Raiders. Your hard work, dedication, and commitment to excellence reflect great credit on your team, Leavenworth High School JROTC, the City of Leavenworth, and the State of Kansas.

Rep. Proctor presented his guests with a framed House certificate in honor of their achievements.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Houglan are spread upon the Journal:

I come before you this morning to honor Ruth Ann Hackler.

She graduated from Overbrook High School in 1941. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Washburn and went on to teach business at Washburn Rural High School and Olathe High School. She was married to Eugene Hackler, an attorney in Olathe for 50 years preceding his death. They have 3 daughters, Amy, Susan and Nancy.

Ruth Ann served on the Olathe School Board for 22 years – 10 of those as President or Vice President of the Olathe School Board. She was an Officer of the Kansas Association of School Boards from 1982 – 1985. A delegate to the National School Board, member of the Governor’s Education Cabinet, founding member of Johnson County Community College.

In 1990 she received a “Lifetime Achievement Award” from the Johnson County Parks and Rec 50+ Program. She had so much more to do!

That same year she was elected to this Body officially on Christmas Eve by 4 votes. Representing the 15th District in the Legislature, she served on the Education Committee, Public Health and Welfare, Governmental Organization, Joint Committee on Arts and Cultural Resources, Special Joint Committee on Children’s Initiatives and Joint Committee on Children and Families.

The Olathe Public Schools Alumni Association honored Ruth Ann with the Wall of Honor – Distinguished Person of Honor in 2014.

Of all the lists of accomplishments I reviewed to prepare – one of her proudest accomplishments was the successful implementation of “Be wise, Immunize.” Something we would all “be wise” to do to this day.

This GIANT turns 100 years old this Friday.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Corbet are spread upon the Journal:

Dennis Shry started his career in EMS as a First Responder at the Lyndon Station of the Osage County Fire Department in 1993 when he was 38. In 2004, Dennis was awarded the Star of Life in recognition of his service above and beyond the call of duty by the American Ambulance Association. He is the first to arrive, and the last to leave. Though he is a man of few words, Dennis has the ability to put patients of all ages at ease, providing comfort and stability in times of turmoil and stress. Dennis is a resident of Overbrook, Kansas. At the age of 68, Dennis is still unsure as to when he will retire as this job provides him lots of joy. Dennis says, “I enjoy doing it. It doesn’t feel like work. I just like helping people.”

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Schlingensiepen are spread upon the Journal:

82% of a school-age youth’s waking hours are spent out of school. Boys & Girls Clubs provides essential out-of-school time services. 73 Club site locations across the state of Kansas, serving 10,820 youth and teens, not only provide safe, affordable, and quality programs, critical for working families but are actively preparing kids and teens to graduate high school with the skills, confidence, and pathways necessary for a robust future. Whether it’s a trade school, college, military enrollment, or straight into a career, Club teens are ready to succeed in work and life.

Since 1955, Our Capitol’s Club - Boys & Girls Clubs of Topeka has been meeting the needs of families and providing safe, affordable, and quality programs. BGCT supports 2,805 youth, from every school district across Topeka and Shawnee County in 14 Club site locations in assuring access to programs, services, and supports that enable all young people, especially those who need us most, to reach their full potential as productive, caring, and responsible citizens.

BGCT operates a center for middle and high school students out of a leased community center that had been shuttered. The focus is on advancing skill sets and strengthening and guiding pathways after graduation necessary for our city and states' future. Youth today will determine the health and success of our state tomorrow. They are tomorrow's leaders, laborers, and learners. The need for this type of program for middle and high school students has exceeded our capacity and a recent acquisition of property, in east Topeka will become home to a Workforce Readiness, Career, and Leadership Development Center to expand our reach, support the workforce needs, and propel futures that will drive systems change. This property, a blighted, and neglected plot was contributing to the overall health of the neighborhood and the East side of town.

BGCT knew that to tackle the initial clean up an army of champions was needed. Enter our team of champions – AmeriCorps National Civilian Community Corps. A dedicated group of young people from ages 18-24, who are committed to serving in a 10-month team-based residential program, working with communities and supporting a variety of public-private partnerships and governmental collaboration to address local challenges through service. They have not only invested hours in BGCT neighborhood improvement commitment, but they have been role models and supports for our staff, Club kids, teens, and our community.

America was founded on a promise of opportunity. When we build stronger communities, we help make this promise a reality, for every individual to succeed. Especially in times of adversity, we find the courage to unite and overcome, helping communities prosper together. This is what AmeriCorps is built for, bringing all Americans together. Working alongside each other for the betterment of every community. Ensuring that everyone gets the help they need, and the opportunities they deserve.

Please meet BGCT's project manager Mr. Leroy Alston and AmeriCorps Water 3 Team. Rep. Schlingensiepen then introduced; Gus Kaufman, team leader, Camille Odell, Makayla Wade, Nolan Kaufman, Devin McCullough, Jakob Edgar, Alyssa Torres, Sydney George and Jin Clayton.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT

MR. PRESIDENT and MR. SPEAKER: Your committee on conference on House amendments to SB 15 submits the following report:

The Senate accedes to all House amendments to the bill, and your committee on conference further agrees to amend the bill as printed with House Committee amendments, as follows:

On page 1, by striking all in lines 7 through 32; following line 32 by inserting "New Section 1. As used in sections 1 through 3, and amendments thereto:

(a) "Kansas sheltered workshop employer" or "workshop employer" means a private nonprofit, state or local government institution that provides employment opportunities for individuals with intellectual, developmental or physical disabilities and provides such employment opportunities for all or a portion of such individuals under a certificate issued by the United States secretary of labor under 29 U.S.C. § 214(c).

(b) "Secretary" means the secretary of labor.

New Sec. 2. (a) There is hereby created in the state treasury the Kansas sheltered workshop transition fund. The secretary of labor shall administer the fund. All expenditures from the fund shall be for the purpose of facilitating transitions by Kansas sheltered workshop employers away from employing individuals with disabilities under a certificate issued by the United States secretary of labor under 29 U.S.C. § 214(c) and toward paying all such employees at least the minimum wage. Such purpose shall be achieved by providing matching grants from fund moneys to Kansas sheltered workshop employers that commit to paying at least the minimum wage to all employees. A grant shall be matched on a $1-to-$1 basis by the Kansas sheltered workshop employer from nonstate sources.

(b) Applications for matching grants shall be made by Kansas sheltered workshop employers to the secretary in the form and manner required by the secretary. In determining whether applicants should be approved and receive a grant, the secretary shall seek the assistance of the secretary for children and families, the secretary for aging and disability services or any other appropriate state agency. The secretary for children and families, secretary for aging and disability services or other state agency shall provide such assistance to the secretary as requested by the secretary. The applicant shall provide a transition plan to the secretary demonstrating how the applicant will use the grant and other funding to transition away from use of a certificate issued by the United States secretary of labor under 29 U.S.C. § 214(c). The Kansas sheltered workshop shall commit to completing the plan to receive a grant. If the secretary approves the transition plan, finds that the Kansas sheltered workshop has sufficient nonstate funding to match the grant with nonstate funds on a $1-to-$1 basis and approves the application, the secretary shall award the Kansas sheltered workshop a matching grant in the amount determined by the secretary. The secretary may award subsequent additional grants to the same Kansas sheltered workshop employer upon satisfactory progress shown by such workshop employer pursuant to the workshop employer's transition plan.

(c) Kansas sheltered workshop employers that receive a matching grant shall provide such information to the secretary as requested, excluding any information prohibited from disclosure under state or federal law, regarding the use of grant funds, use of associated nonstate funds and progress made toward achievement of the transition plan as developed pursuant to subsection (b). Such information shall be utilized by the secretary to analyze and monitor the use of grant funds and compliance with and progress toward completion of the transition plan by workshop employers and to develop best uses of grant funds and transition methods to attain the goal of sections 1 through 3, and amendments thereto.

(d) On or before January 31, 2025, and annually on or before January 31 thereafter, the secretary shall report to the house of representatives standing committee on commerce, labor and economic development or its successor committee and the senate standing committee on commerce or its successor committee on the amount and uses of grant funding by each Kansas sheltered workshop employer that has received a matching grant and the progress made by each Kansas sheltered workshop employer toward the goal of sections 1 through 3, and amendments thereto.

(e) All expenditures from the Kansas sheltered workshop transition fund shall be for the purpose described in subsection (a) and shall be made in accordance with appropriation acts upon warrants of the director of accounts and reports issued pursuant to vouchers approved by the secretary of labor or the secretary's designee.

(f) On July 1, 2024, and each July 1 thereafter, or as soon thereafter as moneys may be available, the director of accounts and reports shall transfer $1,000,000 from the state economic development initiatives fund established by K.S.A. 79-4804, and amendments thereto, to the Kansas sheltered workshop transition fund.

New Sec. 3. The provisions of sections 1 through 3, and amendments thereto, shall expire on July 1, 2034. On July 1, 2034, the director of accounts and reports shall transfer all unencumbered moneys in the Kansas sheltered workshop transition fund to the state general fund. After such transfer, the Kansas sheltered workshop transition fund shall be abolished and all liabilities of the Kansas sheltered workshop transition fund shall be transferred to and imposed on the state general fund.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Pastor Joe Crowley, Grace Calvary Fellowship Church, Wellington, and guest of Rep. Rhiley.

Heavenly Father, we come to You today with thankfulness for another day. We are thankful for Your blessings and Your love. Almighty God, I ask today that if any Representative here lacks wisdom. "That they will ask of God who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him." Please remind us of your words "Let every soul be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God." Therefore, O God remind us how You desire to bring guidance to all our Representatives and elected officials.

May we always seek Your face and Your will. Lord, I pray that You will bring unity to this House and to those that serve under your authority. Let us serve for the common good of those who elected us, not forgetting who we represent and speak for.

God, I thank You that You have allowed us to live in the greatest country in the world. I thank You for blessing America.

Now, God, it is my prayer that America will continue to be blessed in all that we do. That we who are called by your name will humble ourselves and call upon your Name that You may heal our Nation. Protect us and guide us in your Holy Name, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Humphries are spread upon the Journal:

Good morning colleagues! I have with me today the BEST of the BEST! The BEST robotics competition stands for Boosting Engineering, Science, and Technology. It is a state, regional, and national competition of high school and middle school students from public, private, and home schools.

What do they do? Obviously they build robots, but also keep an engineering notebook, make a marketing presentation, outfit a marketing booth, and compete in spirit and sportsmanship.

This team—the WICHITA HOMESCHOOL ROBOTICS TEAM-- won first place in the state in the BEST award and first place in the Robot Game Award. They went on to regionals in Denver, where they also won both first place awards—and for the third time! Not only that, but they were just notified they received third place at Nationals. To put it in perspective, there are about 800 teams across the nation that compete in this robotics competition.

Rep. Humphries introduced the following members of the team; Jeremiah Schlittenhardt, Team Leader; Josiah Dunn, Seth Peniston, Liza Peniston, Jenna Schlittenhardt, Charlie Weddle, Andrew Johnson, Macallen Mages, Peyton Butler and Micah Gorman.

Other members are in the gallery, as well as their coaches for the last 22 years, Bev and David Alexander.

By the way, today is Homeschool Capitol Day. I hope you are able to meet and greet these outstanding students. And body, here is the best part . . . the robot is in the rotunda, and you can drive it! Please join me in congratulating the Wichita Homeschool Robotics Team.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Mason are spread upon the Journal:

Today we observe and celebrate Aging Services Day by which we honor and respect our elders and citizens of any age with physical or intellectual disabilities who reside in skilled nursing care centers, assisted living and home plus settings in Kansas. These residents have contributed immeasurably to the heritage, growth and success of our communities.

This is also a day to acknowledge the staff at our nursing care centers who work tirelessly doing the important work of caring for our loved ones every day. Kansas has over three hundred nursing facilities serving more than 38,000 patients. The collaborative commitment of skilled nursing care facilities, assisted living homes, and long-term care facilities and their staff to providing compassionate care to their residents is appreciated.

Standing with me, at the well, are Cheyenne Strunk, Executive Director, Ascension Living Via Christi Village Manhattan; Della Ribordy for KHCA; and Melissa Parmley, Peabody Health & Rehabilitation.

Please join me in recognizing the residents, families, caregivers, healthcare professionals, staff, and volunteers in celebrating their special day.

WHEREAS, Taiwan, as a responsible stakeholder in the international community, is seeking to meaningfully participate in the United Nations, the World Health Organization, the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, the International Criminal Police Organization, the International Civil Aviation Organization and the Indo-Pacific Economic Framework for Prosperity launched by United States: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That Kansas commends and applauds Taiwan's vibrant democracy and celebrates the 35th anniversary of sister-state relations with Taiwan; and

Be it further resolved: That Kansas supports the further strengthening of Kansas-Taiwan trade relations and academic exchanges; and

Be it further resolved: That Kansas reaffirms its support of Taiwan's inclusion in international organizations that are significant to the health, safety and well-being of its people; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send five enrolled copies of this resolution to Representative B. Carpenter.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Blake Carpenter are spread upon the Journal:

Today, I stand before you to discuss a matter of great importance and mutual benefit—the enduring sister-state relationship between Kansas and Taiwan. Since 1989, our partnership has flourished, grounded in shared values of freedom, democracy, the rule of law, and respect for human rights. It is a bond that not only enriches our communities but also strengthens our place in the world.

In October, I had the profound honor of visiting Taiwan and meeting with President Tsai Ing-Wen. This visit was not merely a diplomatic formality; it was an immersive journey that allowed me to experience the vibrant culture, innovative spirit, and warm hospitality of the Taiwanese people. Through this exchange, I gained invaluable insights into the resilience and strength of Taiwan's democracy—a beacon of liberty in Asia, as demonstrated by their 8th direct presidential election earlier this year.

Our connections go beyond diplomatic visits; they are woven into the fabric of our economies and educational institutions. Taiwan stands as a key trading partner for Kansas, exemplifying the mutual benefits of our bilateral trade relations. Furthermore, academic collaborations, such as the partnership between the University of Kansas and National Sun Yat-sen University, underpin our commitment to cultural and educational exchange.

In the spirit of furthering our shared goals, it is imperative that we continue to support Taiwan's meaningful participation in international organizations. Their involvement is crucial for global health, safety, and prosperity. As we look to the future, let us reaffirm our commitment to strengthening Kansas-Taiwan trade relations and academic exchanges.

In the words of President Ronald Reagan, "Peace is not absence of conflict, it is the ability to handle conflict by peaceful means." This resolution embodies our commitment to peace, prosperity, and the deepening of ties that benefit both our peoples. Let us move forward with resolve, celebrating the achievements of our partnership and working together towards a brighter, more connected future.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Good Morning Father.

What a great day of opportunity lies before us as we consider the work we are about to immerse ourselves in.

An opportunity to be kind, an opportunity to be gracious, an opportunity to make a difference in ourselves, in our friends, our colleagues and in the State of Kansas.

Might we be good stewards of these opportunities.

I pray as we lay our heads upon our pillows tonight, we will be able recognize Your Lordship in all that occurs in this chamber today.

We realize we are accountable to those who have placed us here, but also recognize ultimately,

we must reconcile ourselves and our decisions with You.

Grant us courage and wisdom to see things through eyes of "right-ness."

Your Word says, "The name of the Lord is a strong tower;
the righteous runs into it and is safe."

Allow each of us to not only recognize the "strong tower" of The almighty God, but also to find a refuge of strength as our day progresses.

We take this opportunity to pray for our spouses, our children, grandchildren and all those who look to us as beacons of love and trust.

Might we never take them for granted or purposely disappoint them.

And now I pray a blessing of peace, truth and optimism upon each who desire to do their best to serve the people of Kansas.

I pray this in the name of the giver of peace;

Amen.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Adam Smith are spread upon the Journal:

As the State Co-Coordinator along with Sen. Elaine Bowers for the National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL), I, along with all the co-sponsors, am pleased to offer House Resolution 6036 recognizing NCSL for its upcoming 50th anniversary. NCSL originated from the merger of three organizations which served state legislatures and believed that legislative service is one of democracy's worthiest pursuits. NCSL has facilitated the exchange of ideas from legislators and legislative staff across the nation, building networks of collaboration to solve problems and develop policies to address our ever-changing world. NCSL also promotes cooperation between state legislatures from the US and other countries.

Kansans have provided an important leadership role with NCSL over the past 50 years, – Officers of the Executive Committee include former Senate Presidents Ross Doyen, Bud Paul Burke, Steve Morris and former House Speaker Melvin Neufeld. At large or Ex Officio Members include: Senators Salisbury, Audrey Langworth, Lana Oleen, John Vratil, and Jay Emler: House members - Representatives Jo Ann Pottorff, John Grange and Legislative Staff: Sue Bauman, Dr. Richard Brown, Pat Saville and House Clerk Susan Kannarr.

There has been three Women Legislative Network Presidents from Kansas: Rep. Annie Kuether, Rep. Stephanie Sawyer Clayton and Senator Elaine Bowers.

Current Executive Committee members from Kansas are: Senate President Ty Masterson, House Minority Caucus Chair Rep. Barbara Ballard and Melissa Renick, Assistant Director for Research.

As I mentioned earlier, NCSL is not just made up of legislators but also legislative staff. The Legislative Staff Coordinating Committee manages the nine NCSL legislative staff associations. Several Kansas Legislative staff have served or currently serve on this committee and play an important role in NCSL – Susan Kannarr, Kristen Rottinghaus, Melissa Renick, Andrew Kraus, Terri Clark, Katrin Osterhaus, Jessie Pringle and Robert Coldsnow.

We all know how great our legislative staff is in Kansas, but did you know that NCSL also recognizes them on a national level? Here are a few notable awards our staff has received: Terri Clark won the National Association of Legislative Information Technology Award, Melissa Renick won the NCSL Standing Committee Staff Chairs Award, Susan Kannarr won the American Society of Legislative Clerks & Secretaries Award, the Kansas Legislative Research Department received a 2017 Notable Document Award for its “Hands-Free & Distracted Driving Laws in Other States” research and in 2019 a Notable Document Award for its “Status of Election Security in Kansas” research. Kansas Legislative Division of Post Audit received the National Excellence in Research Methods in 2019 and 2022.

Joining us today is State Liaison Anne Tiegen from the NCSL office in Denver, CO. Anne has her roots in Kansas, serving as an intern in 2005-06 for Senator Barbara Allen where she got her first introduction to NCSL. Anne attended KU Law School and fell in love with our State! She currently specializes in criminal justice policy for NCSL.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

On emergency motion of Rep. Wasinger, HR 6037, as follows, was introduced and adopted:

By Representative Wasinger

HR 6037—A RESOLUTION recognizing February as American Heart Month.

A RESOLUTION recognizing February 2024 as American Heart Month and supporting efforts to raise awareness on the rise of cardiovascular disease as the world's leading cause of death and disability.

WHEREAS, More than 350,000 persons experience cardiac arrest outside of a hospital each year, and only about one in 10 survive; and

WHEREAS, More than 23,000 children under the age of 18 experience cardiac arrest outside of a hospital each year in the United States, and almost 40% of these are sports related; and

WHEREAS, There are effective ways to mitigate the rise of cardiovascular disease, such as promoting awareness and education, establishing cardiac emergency response plans and providing CPR education and automated external defibrillator (AED) training and accessibility; and

WHEREAS, About 70% of cardiac arrests that occur outside of a hospital happen at home; and

WHEREAS, Cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), especially if performed immediately, can double or triple a person's chance of survival; and

WHEREAS, Only about 46% of those who experience cardiac arrest receive CPR from persons close by while waiting for emergency responders to arrive; and

WHEREAS, The ability to properly perform CPR has encouraged more people to act when faced with a cardiac emergency and save more lives from cardiac arrest outside of a hospital; and

WHEREAS, There is an urgent need for a greater number of people to take action and immediately respond to cardiac arrest events by calling 911, so that high-quality CPR using AED may be administered as soon as possible; and

WHEREAS, CPR is a lifesaving skill that most people, including children as young as age nine, can learn; and

WHEREAS, The American Heart Association has set a goal of doubling cardiac arrest survival rates by 2030 by turning bystanders into lifesavers, so that everyone, everywhere, may be prepared and empowered to become a vital link in the chain of survival and provide CPR in response to a cardiac emergency; and

WHEREAS, Currently, 90% of those who experience cardiac arrest outside of a hospital do not survive, in part because they do not receive CPR more than half of the time: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we recognize the month of February as American Heart Month and support efforts to raise awareness on the rise of cardiovascular disease as the world's leading cause of death and disability; and

Be it further resolved: That we congratulate the American Heart Association on its 100th anniversary and urge every household to help in the ongoing fight against heart disease and stroke by learning CPR and joining a growing nation of lifesavers; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Representative Wasinger.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Wasinger are spread upon the Journal:

Thank you colleagues who wore something red today to celebrate The American Heart Association designating February as “American Heart Month.” More than 350,000 people experience cardiac arrest OUTSIDE of a hospital and only 1 in 10 survive. CPR can double or triple a person’s chance for survival and Cardiovascular Disease kills more women than all forms of cancer and yet fewer than 44% of women fail to recognize it.

Today I ask for you to be aware of your heart health as the only reason I am here today is due to realizing my heart was not beating correctly. Today after having open heart surgery to repair a congenital heart defect, I ask you to support the American Heart Association on their 100th birthday in their campaign to expand CPR education and accessibility of AED’s (automated external defibrillators.) Join the “Nation of Lifesavers” today.

Journal of the House

TWENTY-SECOND DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, February 7, 2024, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Hawkins in the chair.

The roll was called with 119 members present.

Reps. Buehler, Highberger, Poskin and Sawyer were excused on verified illness.

Reps. Bergquist and Donohoe were excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father;

I marvel at the grace You abundantly bestow upon each of us!

Thank You! I know grace is not deserved, but it is so appreciated.

I am well aware of all the offenses I have committed against You and others, but You have forgiven and given grace instead of the justice which was rightly deserved.

Today I pray for the same grace You have bestowed, to be spread across this chamber of responsibility.

Allow each one to give to others as You have given to them.

If personal offenses have occurred, might Your peace and grace abound.

I pray unity would abound in our quest to best serve the people of our great State.

I also pray when our work is done and we leave this decision-making place

we can look back and say, I have done well!

Many of us are missing the opportunity to be with our families.

Regardless, if they be near or far, bless them with an understanding heart for the work

You have called me to do.

Please, O God, remind them even though they are not physically present they are a partner in this work, and I am so grateful for their support.

Our world is experiencing chaos on many fronts.

It so needs You to show the correct way forward.

We pray for our National and International leaders.

Might Your wisdom and understanding be granted to those in places of great responsibility.

I ask this in Jesus name;

Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Borjon.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Waymaster and Ballard are spread upon the Journal:

Rep. Waymaster began, today we recognize February 7, 2024, as JAG-K Day at the Capitol.

Most of the members of this body are familiar with Jobs for America's Graduates-Kansas and their remarkable outcomes.

- JAG-K is an in-school elective class that helps prepare students for successful futures.
- JAG-K Career Specialists work with their students all 12 months of the year and provide 12 months of support following their senior year.
- Since JAG-K started in Kansas, in 2013-14, JAG-K students have a 95% graduation rate.
- And, 85% of JAG-K graduates are in post-secondary education, military service, or in the workforce on full-time basis 12 months after they graduate from high school.

I have seen the magnificent work our local Russell High School JAG-K program has done. Our students are getting paid internships, learning valuable life skills, and growing as leaders in school and our community. Their Career Specialist Raina Tomlinson is doing an excellent job.

Before recognizing the students, I would like to offer my colleague, Representative Barbara Ballard, an opportunity to say a few words about JAG-K. Representative Ballard has been a long-time member of the JAG-K Board of Directors and one of their biggest supporters in the Legislature.

Rep. Ballard continued, joining us in the East Gallery today are some of the hundreds of JAG-K students in the Capitol today.

The students on the floor are state and regional JAG-K Career Association officers. The following students were introduced: Charee Moore, James Kingsbury, Xavier Aquino, Laila Horton, Mycah Benton, Hayden Brown and Landon Kreifels. Also introduced were President and CEO, Chuck Knapp and Senior VP of Programming, Bev Mortimer.

Thank you for joining us in recognizing JAG-K Day at the Capitol.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Haswood are spread upon the Journal:

I want first to acknowledge the Tribal Leadership that is here with us today, Prairie Band Potawatomi Chairman Joseph Zeke Rupnick and council member Raphael Wahwassuck; Kickapoo Tribal Chairwoman Gail Cheatum-Dupuis; Vice Chair Gary Samqua; and her four council members, Priscilla Wakole, Sharon Doxator, Grace Ross; and Iowa Tribal Chairman Tim Rhodd, Treasurer Robert Hullman; and council member Brad Campbell. Thank you all for being here today.

Today is the Kansas Native American Legislative Day at the Capitol. This was passed in statute in 2013 by former state representative Ponka-We Victors-Cozad, who made history as the first Native American woman to hold office in the Kansas State Legislature.

This day is to recognize and honor the four Tribes' historic and continued contributions to weaving the fabric of the great state of Kansas. I am excited to celebrate the accomplishments of one of our own!

Today I want to introduce to you all Dr. Alex Red Corn. Dr. Red Corn is an Osage Nation citizen, a member of the Tsi.zhu.wah.shtah.geh (Gentle Sky/Peacekeeper) clan, with family roots in the Wa.ha.xolin district/Osage village near Pawhuska, Oklahoma.

In the College of Education at Kansas State University, he serves as an Assistant Professor of Educational Leadership, Coordinator of Indigenous Partnerships, Co-Chair of the Indigenous Faculty and Staff Alliance, Executive Director of the Kansas Association for Native American Education (KANAE) and Program Coordinator for the Indigenous Educational Leadership Graduate Certificate.

His scholarship and service are focused on building capacities for Native nations to take on a more prominent role in the education of their citizens. As a member of the College of Education faculty, Dr. Red Corn has consulted with school and tribal leaders across the region on a variety of topics related to the education of Indigenous peoples, and he has helped cultivate conditions for increased collaboration with tribal governments. He has also developed the new Indigenous Educational Leadership Graduate Certificate program to help leaders working with Native Nations and communities build their technical skill sets when working with unique systems of Indian education as they work across tribal governments, public schools, and federal programs. He has successfully graduated two cohorts of students with master's degrees in educational leadership in partnership with the Osage Nation - whose lands and histories long predate the state of Kansas in these lands.

Red Corn, is known nationally for his contributions to education and has been awarded the O'Brien Award in 2023 by the Human Rights Educators USA and the Wilma Mankiller Memorial Award from the National Education Association.

Body, please join me in celebrating Dr. Alex Red Corn.

Today I have with me the Board of Directors and Staff of the Alliance Against Family Violence. Here at the well with me are Board members; Melynda Harbour and Jamie Lynn Svatos and Staff members; Katie Irvin, Jenna Motely and Stacy Eisenring.

Forty years ago this month, the Alliance Against Family Violence began to serve families in Leavenworth County who are impacted by domestic and sexual violence. And since they opened, the Alliance Against Family Violence has been helping residents of Leavenworth County and beyond in managing crises, as well as starting new lives after tragedy.

Since they first opened their doors forty years ago, the Alliance has expanded its services to include shelter for individuals fleeing abusive homes, a 24-hour hotline, court advocacy, crisis intervention services, medical and child and youth advocacy, and support group services.

Over four decades, the Alliance Against Family Violence has remained dedicated to facilitating an empowering positive change in the lives of those affected by domestic and sexual violence and to providing safety and security for members of the communities it serves.

And so, on behalf of the Kansas House of Representatives, I am honored to present this tribute to the Alliance Against Family Violence in recognition of your forty years serving Leavenworth families. Your hard work, dedication, and commitment to serving your neighbors reflect great credit on your organization, the City and County of Leavenworth, and the State of Kansas.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: My no vote today on HR 6035 reflects the oath that I took as a Kansas House Member to uphold the Constitution of the United States. Because of the Supremacy Clause, I believe Gov. Abbot is in violation of the rule of law and of the US Constitution. A vote yes would make me complicit. Abbot's tactics are inhumane and un-American. I would urge him to obey the order from the US Supreme Court, rather than continue his current course. Our system purposefully has 3 branches to ensure checks and balances. Even governors must adhere to the law of the land.

MR. SPEAKER: I support coming to the United States, LEGALLY. Our Armed Forces and Law Enforcement Men and Women face risks every day to protect our constitutional rights and freedoms we enjoy.

There is a legal process to enter and remain in the United States. That - I support. I think there are flaws within that system - those flaws need to be addressed.

I do not support inhumane treatment of any type. I don't see how this Resolution fixes the problem, and in my opinion adds to the problem - I will be voting No on HR. 6035. – LYNN MELTON

Journal of the House

TWENTY-THIRD DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, February 8, 2024, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 120 members present.
Reps. Highberger, Robinson and Sawyer were excused on verified illness.
Reps. Donohoe and Moser were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father;

Everyone gathered in this chamber of decision and responsibility has been created by You.

You have blessed them with intelligence, wisdom and a desire to serve.
Thank You for calling each to this moment and hour.
Pour Your goodness into their life. Father, You remind us in Your Word “Woe to those who call evil good and good evil.
Who substitute darkness for light and light for darkness.
Who substitute bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter.
Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and cleaver in their own sight.”
I pray no one in this room would find themselves caught in the company of such.
Protect them from those who would attempt to use them for selfish purposes or personal gain.

For those wrestling with personal issues which seem to have no adequate answers,
I pray for Your illuminating Spirit to show them the path to take.
For those who are just tired and need new strength to carry on,
I pray “as their days are, their strength might be.”
I pray for the lost and broken in our sphere of influence, that their brokenness would not define them.

Allow them to realize, because God is, they can break any cycle of bondage.
And Lord, if You want me to become a partner in their cycle breaking, make it clear to me.

Bless our families and keep them safe from any harm.
And now Lord, engage our hearts and minds with unusual insight as we undertake the tasks set before us. I pray this in Jesus name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Carr.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Rahjes are spread upon the Journal:

Colleagues, We are paying tribute to Kansas Broadcasters and especially AM radio stations in our state. I am joined today by Kansas Association of Broadcasters and former radio personalities Representative Clark Sanders formerly of KGNO – AM, Dodge City and KSAL-AM, Salina along with Representative Kenny Titus, formally on KVGB-Great Bend and KSAL- Salina.

When big events happen from severe spring and winter storms to national emergencies even those infamous ballgames, Kansas broadcasts are there to tell the story and get the information out to the area.

Some say with other sources to find information, radio and local television has had it's peak in audience. But, ongoing ratings and surveys show your hometown stations continue to be the go to source for news, entertainment and full service information.

Today, we salute those local broadcast stations throughout our great state of Kansas for being a friend in the tractor, in the car or pick-up, on the many roads in our state, even when we have ear-buds in as we enjoy the great outdoors.

As for me, I began broadcasting in high school on KKAN-AM, Phillipsburg, then KXXX-AM, Colby, KVOE-AM, Emporia, KFRM-AM, Salina, WIBW-AM, Topeka, KKOW-AM, Pittsburg and currently at KBUF-AM, Garden City.

Please continue to listen to and support your local broadcast station: they deliver news, weather, agriculture updates, emergency preparedness and public service announcements that keep us safe and informed.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Howe are spread upon the Journal:

Today I am honored to offer this resolution to recognize and to thank the Kansas Mission of Mercy volunteers for their continued generosity in providing free dental care to citizens of Kansas.

The Kansas Mission of Mercy is a free dental clinic, where caring and compassionate dental professionals provide charitable dental services to Kansans.

The Kansas Mission of Mercy was organized by the Kansas Dental Association

(KDA) through the Kansas Dental Charitable Foundation (KDCF) with funds from dentists, private foundations and other private sources. To date, there have been 23 annual Kansas Mission of Mercy free dental clinic events without interruption since its creation.

More than 11,500 volunteers, including 1,000 dentists, have provided over $23 million in dental care to nearly 33,000 patients in communities throughout Kansas since the first Kansas Mission of Mercy free dental clinic was held in Garden City in February 2003.

The most recent Kansas Mission of Mercy was held at Tony's Pizza Event Center in Salina, Kansas, on January 12 and 13 of this year. Despite the frigid temperatures, a total of 503 volunteers, including 85 dentists, 43 dental hygienists and 93 dental assistants, worked together to provide $666,439 in dental care to 671 patients.

The strength, success, vitality and health of Kansas citizens and its communities depend in great measure upon volunteerism and programs motivated by concern and devotion such as the Kansas Mission of Mercy free dental clinic.

Mr. Speaker, standing with me today are dentists from all parts of Kansas that traveled to my district in Salina for the most recent Kansas Mission of Mercy clinic. Their efforts make a difference in countless ways, and it truly gives us all something to smile about.

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we recognize the Kansas Mission of Mercy free dental clinic dentists, dental hygienists, dental assistants and all the volunteers for their continued generosity in providing free dental care to the citizens of Kansas.

Mr. Speaker, and fellow members of the House of Representatives, please join me so that we can extend our heartfelt appreciation for our Kansas dental professionals and their efforts with the Kansas Mission of Mercy.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father; You are a great and gracious God. You love when Your children are unlovable and forgive when they fail to love in return. You bless when blessings are ignored or taken for granted and continue to extend Yourself. Thank You for Your infinite patience.

Today I lift each of these elected representatives to You and ask for Your favor to rest upon them. This moment some may be wrestling with personal issues that go far beyond the political. Would You permit them to find solutions to those issues and in the finding discover peace of heart and spirit.

You have said in Your Word, "I permitted myself to be sought by those who did not ask for Me. I permitted Myself to be found by those who did not seek Me. I said, "Here am I, here am I, to a nation which did not call on My name." O God, I pray that even though You are not called upon or acknowledged, You would intervene and provide answers to the difficult questions and situations which are being presented to our State, as well as to our Nation as a whole.

I pray Your blessing to rest upon the people of Kansas, and their families. I pray they would seek You for any problems or difficulties they are experiencing.

I pray our schools in this great State would continue to be a bastion of truth and integrity as the next generation is prepared to meet the challenges life will surely present to them. And Father, bless the teachers of these institutions of learning.

Let them never forget they are some of the most influential leaders their students will ever meet.

And now, I pray You might bless this session with Your wisdom, understanding and peace. In Jesus Name I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Bryce.

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, February 14, 2024, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Hawkins in the chair.

The roll was called with 111 members present.

Reps. Donohoe, Highberger and Schlingensiepen were excused on verified illness.

Reps. Garber, Hoye, Meyer, Moser, Ousley, Poskin, Turk, Vaughn, L. Williams, Woodard and Xu were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Good Morning Father; Today is one of those days which serves to remind us to never forget those we love. I pray cards, notes, flowers, candy and other expressions of our appreciation for our loved ones would abound.

I want to also thank You for the reminder You sent to us about what real, authentic love looks like. Your Word records: "If I speak with the tongues of men and angels, but do not love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. Love is patient, love is kind, and is not jealous; love does not brag and is not arrogant, does not act unbecomingly; it does not seek its own, is not easily provoked, does not take into account a wrong suffered, does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth, bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails."

Now Lord, I have to admit, that is a pretty tall order! And yet, as tall as it may be, help me to embrace it. And Lord, would You be so kind as to send people into my life which embraces it also.

This is one of those decision-making days for our governing body. As debate occurs, might I keep the lesson of love before me. Allow me to be patient and kind, even when - it is not warranted or expected. And, if dissension should arise, keep me from being easily provoked.

I love my country today, even though, at times it seems to be flowing in a direction I do not agree with nor condone. Help me to always rejoice with the truth of which this great Nation was founded upon. And remind me if You would, Love never fails. Help me to be a living example of Your real and authentic love.

In Jesus Name I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Buehler.

Today, I would like to recognize the “Wyandotte Angels.”

The founder, Jalynda Poncin and a few of her Angels, Marilyn Poncin, Diane Poncin, Melissa Nead, Angela McClure, Marilyn McClure, Rocki Mayes, Vicky Marquez, Fernando Marquez and Martin Cervantes, Jr. are here with me today.

The “Wyandotte Angels” was founded August 31, 2020, by Jalynda Poncin to help people in need in our community providing food, diapers, clothing, furniture and more to help those in need.

Initially, Jalynda hoped for two helpers – now there are over 4,000 “Wyandotte Angels” worldwide, serving thousands all with no “real funding,” only people in our community opening their wallets to help and do more.

So, today the State Legislature recognizes the “The Wyandotte Angels.”

Rep. Melton presented her guests with a framed House certificate in honor of their accomplishments.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Oropeza are spread upon the Journal:

I rise before the body to honor “Lowriding 2 Success,” an incentive-based program designed to help Wyandotte County youth REIMAGINE their lives through building bikes, mentorship, life skills and guidance, while building their self-worth.

This program has been the dream, vision, and calling of Mr. Cervantes, or “Mr. C” as he is known to the to the kids, to help others. Mr. Cervantes himself was given a second chance that changed the outcome of his life, and so created Lowriding 2 Success to help others reach their potential.

Lowriding 2 Success is a juvenile court referred after-school incentive program that is about so much more than building and repairing bicycles. This club involves teaching and mentoring at-risk teens in Wyandotte County. He teaches life skills, conflict resolution, critical thinking and problem solving. His goal is to help steer at-risk youth in a positive direction, helping them to graduate from high school or obtain their GED, creating a solid foundation for a successful future.

In his years of working with at-risk youth, it is evident to him that they are needed, and that a program like this is needed more than ever. He has partnered with community organizations, individuals, and businesses in Wyandotte County including: Kansas City, Kansas Police Department, Kansas City, Kansas School Police, Youth Build, Heartland 180, Full Throttle Fitness, and Metro Fitness. In order to provide a wide range of much needed services, his program also works closely with the Wyandotte County Court System, involving district court judges, community corrections and state probation officers. He cannot forget that he also relies heavily on the commitment and engagement of parents, families, mentors, therapists, drug counselors, and survivors who understand the power of supporting and believing in our at-risk youth. His program also accepts youth that are not in the criminal justice system but are looking for additional engagement.

The youth that attend Lowriding 2 Success are engaged in giving back to the community in which they reside, by working on donated bicycles, by repairing them and giving to people in need. They are encouraged to make their bed every day, which encourages positive actions and feelings. Since the program launched in March of 2023, they have operated at full capacity and had to start a waiting list. Mr. Cervantes has graduated 14 students with many more to come.

We pride this program on not just talking about what needs to be done, but are putting their words into action to create a positive ripple effect for the community. Mr. Cervantes and I are joined today by graduates Edward Cardenas, Malachi Mendez, Antonio Gonzalez; along with current participants in the program: Josemaria Castañeda, Michael Frost, Erik Diaz, Karina Perez; and Mentor, Rudy Perez.

Rep. Oropeza presented her guests with a framed House certificate in honor of their achievements.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. K. Williams, Howe and Ballard are spread upon the Journal:

Rep. Howe began, today we are recognizing eight exceptional young leaders from our six state universities plus the University of Kansas Medical Center and Washburn University. Each of these leaders was elected by their student bodies to serve as Student Body President for the Spring 2023 through Spring 2024 school year. Along with the role of serving as Student Body President, these leaders also serve on the Students’ Advisory Committee, established by the Legislature in 1975, to represent students before the Kansas Board of Regents (KBOR). To serve on the advisory committee, Statue requires the person to be the highest student executive officer elected by the student body.

These student leaders have worked closely with our Board of Regents to identify common goals and issues that impact students at our universities. Offering input, support, and collaboration creates an important connection between our Board of Regents and the students who are most impacted by their decision making.

Rep. Williams continued, today we honor the hard work, the bold leadership, and the persistent commitment to serve exemplified by our Kansas Student Body Presidents.

It is now our honor to recognize our student body presidents who also serve on the the Kansas Board of Regent's Advisory Committee and thank you to my colleagues for helping offer these awards:

- Kansas State University Student Body President and Chair of the KBOR Advisory Committee – Caleb Stout
- Pittsburg State University Student Body President and Vice Chair of the KBOR Advisory Committee – Jaben Parnell
- Fort Hays State University Student Body President – Ella Burrows
- Wichita State University Student Body President – Iris Okere
- Emporia State University Student Body President – Sophia Dawson
- Washburn University Student Body President – Antonio Martinez
- Kansas University Student Body President – Turner Seals
- Kansas University Medical Center – Mark Faber

Rep. Ballard concluded, we are extremely proud of these young men and women and their leadership at their respective universities. Body, please join us in honoring our distinguished Kansas University leaders. We thank you for your leadership and service to our great State and wish you all the best in your future endeavors.

Reps. Carlin, Ballard and Sanders presented each guest with a framed House certificate in honor of their achievements.

(J) an analysis of significant opportunity costs of the incentive program at the state and local level;

(4) any other information that the legislative post audit committee deems necessary to assess the effectiveness of the incentive program and whether it is achieving the goals of the incentive program; and

(5) all information, after redaction, as necessary, by the post auditor to remove information confidential under state or federal law, required for publication pursuant to K.S.A. 2023 Supp. 74-50,227, and amendments thereto, with respect to the economic development incentive program being evaluated.

Journal of the House

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, February 15, 2024, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 117 members present.

Reps. Donohoe, Highberger, Meyer, Schlingensiefen and Vaughn were excused on verified illness.

Reps. Howe, S. Ruiz and L. Williams were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Former Representative, Peggy Mast.

Father, we are so thankful for the heritage you have given the State of Kansas and the way you have blessed us so abundantly. Thank you Lord that you called early Kansans to step up boldly and be willing to fight for the conviction that all men are created equal. Some in this chamber today actually live on land where blood was spilled in order to stand against slavery.

I am very thankful for those who call you Lord and have stepped up as public servants to serve in this chamber. I ask for your guidance as they labor to make critical decisions that touch the lives of all constituents both now and in decades to come. I pray that their ambition will not be for their own personal gain, but to improve and protect fellow Kansas citizens.

I offer a special prayer today for your comfort for the victims and their families of the shooting in Kansas City yesterday. I pray for your guidance, wisdom and justice to be done for those who perpetrated such a crime.

I pray all these things in the name of our Precious Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Curtis.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Kessler are spread upon the Journal.

Today I would like to recognize something near and dear to me. A program that teaches our youth, about how to be involved in local and state government. This group of future leaders behind me are from Haysville, Kansas, they are a select group of students from Campus High School, they are the Mayor's Youth Leadership Council.

With us today we have, The Youth Council Mayor Lillian Meier, Jada Arneson, Casey Meier, Kaleb Arneson, Will Black, Brent Black, Grace Black, Joscelyn Faust, Selah Harrold, Kaleigh Somerville. And one of my personal heroes, Mayor Russ Kessler. The youth council both promotes and serves at city events such as trick-or-treat street on Main Street, the Haysville Fall Festival, and Party in the 060.

I absolutely love seeing our youth interested in local and State government. Members are introduced to city, county, and state elected officials to gain a better understanding of government and to hopefully encourage the students to consider a future in service at some level of government. Youth Council Mayor Lillian Meier oversees communication within the group and runs the regular meetings of the council.

Rep. Kessler presented a framed House certificate to his guests in honor of their accomplishments.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I voted "No" today on HB 2499 prohibiting the use of a mobile telephone while operating a vehicle by individuals less than 18 years of age. Why not select 21 the age to smoke or perhaps age 70 years old. I understand the safety concerns, but this should not take away the rights of drivers to use common sense. Why not ban all mobile phones in vehicles in the State of Kansas? If there is a concern, then construction zones or school zones can post requests to not use cell phones in that area.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I voted “No” today on HB 2561 authorizing Kansas chartered credit unions to operate locations outside the State of Kansas. If the 26 State Chartered Kansas Credit Unions want to operate in another state, they can change their Charter to a Federal Credit Union. Also, I do not agree that the only the members of a credit union that is being merged into another credit union should vote. I think members of both credit unions should approve the merger. – BILL RHILEY

Journal of the House

THIRTY-FIRST DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, February 20, 2024, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.
Reps. Highberger and Weigel were excused on verified illness.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Rev. Reuben Langat, PhD, United Methodist Church, Clay Center, and guest of Rep. Bloom.

Dear God, I thank you and praise you for this day that you have given to us to be here at the State Capital. Thank you for these lawmakers of our State. Thank you for the gift of life and the opportunity to be here to pray with them. Thank you for each leader here and what they do to make our State strong and prosperous. I pray for good health and wisdom for each one of them. I pray that you bless our State of Kansas. Bless all the residents, bless what each is doing to build the economy of the State.

I also want to thank you for America. You have given us abundant blessings and we thank you for those. Help us not to take those blessings for granted, but to always appreciate you for them as we even ask for more blessings. And as you bless this nation remind us to share those blessings with other nations of the world. United States of America is and has been a blessing to many other nations of the world including my home country of Kenya.

As we pray this morning, there are several who are in need of prayer in their different situations, we pray that you be with them. Those who are sick and trusting you for healing, we pray that you touch and heal them. There are those who are grieving because they have lost their loved ones, we pray for peace and comfort. We pray for the homeless, the hungry, those depressed by what they are going through, those affected by war, displacement in different parts of the world, we pray that they will feel your presence even in hard times that they face.

We pray for peace where there is conflict, we pray for understanding where there is misunderstanding and we pray for our military who are trying to bring peace in nations that are at war with each other. Protect our military until they safely come back home.

Again Lord, pour blessings on these leaders and guide them in all their decisions for the sake of your people in this State.

I ask all these in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, AMEN.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. W. Carpenter.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Schlingensiepen are spread upon the Journal:

Today, I stand here to honor J. Alan Ward, better known to most as “Taco Al,” and his wife, Sandra Ward, who have been married for over 65 years.

Taco Al’s, formerly Taco Casa, - which resides in Kansas House District 55 - was founded by Al and Sandra over 60 years ago here in Topeka. For six decades, they have been serving up delicious food just down the street from our Capitol. But much more than that, they have been an integral part of our community and a gleaming example of one of the many small businesses that makes our city - and our state - such a great place. Al has served in numerous capacities in the wider restaurant business community throughout the years including:

- President of the Kansas Restaurant Association
- President of the Kansas Restaurant and Hospitality Association
- Board member of the National Restaurant Association
- Kansas Restaurateur of the year in 1985 and again in 2001
- Inductee of the Kansas Restaurant Hall of fame in 2005
- President of the Topeka Restaurant Association

While best known for his business involvement, Al has also served our state in a number of other ways including as:

- A commissioner and Vice-Chairman for Kansas Wildlife and Parks
- Mission Township Clerk and Trustee
- Kansas Livestock Association Advisory Board Member
- And many, many other leadership roles

Now rumor has it that for years, Taco Al also got up at the crack of dawn to make their delicious queso himself. If you haven’t had it, you’ve gotta try it out.

Al and Sandra, it’s an honor to have you both join us today with your family to celebrate your decades of service to Topeka and our state. You are part of what makes Kansas such a great place to live, work, and raise a family. Thank you!

Rep. Schlingensiepen presented a framed House certificate to his guests in honor of their accomplishments.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTION

Having voted on the prevailing side in Consideration of Veto on HB 2284, Rep. V. Miller moved the House of Representatives reconsider its action on HB 2284. The motion did not prevail.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I am not in opposition to the elimination of the Social Security State income tax, nor do I oppose property tax exemption on the first 100,000. However, I don't appreciate the thought that most of the state's working class will have to carry a heavier burden and pay the majority of the state's tax roll if this so-called flat tax passes. This is not the last train out of town. We are on day 44. Real work needs to be accomplished for the relief of all Kansans not just a select elect few. This is why I voted No on HB 2284. – TREVOR JACOBS

MR. SPEAKER: I represent KS House District 33 in Wyandotte County. The population of Wyandotte County is approximately 167,046 as of 2021. 17.7% of the population for whom poverty status is determined in Wyandotte County, live below the poverty line (that's 29.4k out of 166k people). 17.7% is higher than the national average of 12.6%. If we do not override this veto, we continue to hurt the 17.7% who live below the poverty line. Not only will we continue to hurt the 17.7%, I believe we will increase that number. Friends, we must help our citizens, not make life harder for them. Let's not make our people wait another full year without a tax break. Give them a break now. Brownback left the building years ago. It's time to throw away the "Brownback Crutch" and do the right thing for our people. Override this hurtful Veto! – MICHAEL THOMPSON

MR. SPEAKER: I vote Yes to override on HB 2284. I was sent to Topeka to put Kansans first, and this is a simple vote to do so. I strongly encourage those who are voting no to take the advice of the Governor in her State of the State and have the mind of a goldfish. It's time to move on from the Brownback era and realize that Kansas is financially better off than prior years. We were elected to help hardworking Kansans instead of hurting them with tax burden and taxing them out of our great state. I encourage you to support the override. – TORY MARIE BLEW

MR. SPEAKER: The Senate will not override the Governor's veto. If the House does, will the Senate wait 30 days before taking a vote which is doomed to fail? If so, we are nearly at the end of the regular session. The Senate President has stated "with no flat income tax there will be no tax relief." The Governor has stated "if the legislature adjourns without passing tax relief, I will call them back for special session." While I am neutral on the flat tax, I cannot continue down this path to failure. I vote "NO." – RANDY GARBER

MR. SPEAKER: The carrier of this bill is correct: with 125 House members, we probably have 125 opinions on what makes a good tax bill. But 123 members of this chamber did not get to weigh in on this bill. There was no debate in committee and there was no expert testimony. There was a conference committee and two members of the House were involved in it after kicking off the lone Democrat. After that, there was an up or down vote on the House floor with no ability to amend this bill. I want tax relief for Kansans. I want to work with 124 of my fellow House members to find an appropriate solution. This process isn't it. This bill isn't it. I look forward to working on what will be. I vote no on HB 2284. – DAN OSMAN

MR. SPEAKER: I vote Yes to override the Governor's veto of HB 2284. In the last 5 years our cash balance has risen over $3.0 billion. This is $3.0 billion more money than is needed to fully fund our schools, our roads, and social services. Tax revenues were over $10.0 billion in FY2023 and expenditures were under $8.8 billion. A $500 million tax break for the people is both sensible and sustainable! The only thing "reckless" about HB 2284 was the callous disregard for the good of the taxpayers and the petty political games of the Governor and her enablers. – PAUL WAGGONER

CONSENT CALENDAR

No objection was made to HB 2760 appearing on the Consent Calendar for the third day. The bill was advanced to Final Action on Bills and Concurrent Resolutions.

A RESOLUTION commemorating the 150th anniversary of the Great Western Cattle Trail.

WHEREAS, This is a milestone event that recalls how the Trail played a vital role in the Old West era when it further developed and spread to ultimately span nine states and connect Mexico and Canada through Kansas; and

WHEREAS, Stockmen initially developed the Great Western Cattle Trail in 1874, pioneering the route through Western Kansas to bring Texas longhorns north, which provided breeding stock for ranchers and beef for Native American tribes in the northern states, and then continuing North toward Nebraska; and

WHEREAS, The Great Western Cattle Trail contains five routes, reaching the Kansas Counties of Clark, Ford, Ellis, Hodgeman, Finney, Lane, Gove, Sheridan, Thomas, Scott, Logan, Wallace, Sherman, Cheyenne, Ness, Trego, Decatur and Rawlins, including stops in such notable places as Dodge City, Ellis, Hays and Fort Wallace; and

WHEREAS, The Great Western Cattle Trail brought longhorn cattle to the Kansas plains, ultimately providing a foundation for the modern cattle production and processing industry of today; and

WHEREAS, The Great Western Cattle Trail hosted cattle drives, forming part of the greatest overland migration of domestic livestock in history; and

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we commemorate the 150th anniversary of the Great Western Cattle Trail; and

Be it further resolved: That we appreciate the countless benefits that resulted from the Great Western Cattle Trail's presence in Kansas; and

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Goetz are spread upon the Journal:

Good morning body. Welcome to turnaround. I believe all of us as in the legislature and our fellow Kansans' desire to blaze a trail with our lives which we can look back on and be proud of the impact we have had on our families, communities and our country. The resolution I am honored to present to you today looks back 150 years to a literal trail blazing that transformed Kansas into a titan in the cattle industry.

Today we wish to recognize the 150th anniversary of a historic trail which was blazed through western Kansas and helped bring the American cowboy to life. It was called the Western Trail.

During the Civil War, longhorn cattle in Texas had multiplied in the wild. Consumers in the east wanted more beef in their diet. Cowboys on horseback – called drovers at the time – moved those cattle hundreds of miles north through the wilderness to railheads in Kansas. That route in central Kansas would become known as the Chisholm Trail.

But those Texas longhorns brought something deadly along with them. It was called Texas fever, which caused high mortality rates when exposed to domestic cattle. The Kansas Legislature established a quarantine line past which Texas cattle could not cross. As the population grew around places like Abilene and Ellsworth, the quarantine line moved west. A new route was needed.

The year was 1874. Enterprising ranchers pioneered a new route to bring longhorns north through western Kansas, to places like Dodge City and Ellis and Hays and on to Nebraska. The Western Cattle Trail was born.

The post-Civil War cattle drives were part of the largest domestic cattle migration in history. The cattle moved northward on the Western Cattle Trail had several benefits. Not only did they respond to consumer demand for beef, they provided needed breeding stock to northern ranchers and provided needed food supplies to hungry native American Indian tribes. In time, the Western Trail would carry more cattle for a greater distance than any other cattle trail.

Some people may base their understanding of western history on popular culture or reruns of the Gunsmoke TV show. Marshall Matt Dillon was not real, but characters such as Wyatt Earp and Bat Masterson really were. They walked the streets of frontier Dodge City. Dodge City would earn its titles as Cowboy Capitol and Queen of the Cowntowns.

Fast forward to modern times. Not only does this cowboy history help attract tourism, it set the stage for the modern day cattle feeding industry. Cattle in the former Western Trail region are still being moved to where they can be finished, in order to help respond to the protein needs of consumers today.

According to the Kansas Department of Agriculture, beef cattle production is the largest single sector of our state's farm economy, generating 8.93 billion dollars in cash receipts. In fact, 55 percent of ag cash receipts come from cattle production.

Those cattle are also processed in western Kansas. Livestock processing produced another 8.8 billion in cash receipts. Kansas ranks 1st in the nation in commercial cattle production, processing over 8 million head annually. In 2019, Kansas produced 6 billion pounds of red meat, or nearly 11 percent of the nation's total beef supply. The legacy of the Western Trail lives on.

It has been a century and a half since pioneering cattlemen first blazed this trail across Kansas. It is fitting that the State of Kansas should recognize the 150th anniversary of the Western Trail.

Joining me today to commemorate “The 150th Anniversary of the Western Trail” are...

- Representative Gary White - Ashland
- Joel Herndon – Dighton
- Keith Wondra – Dodge City
- Gary & Margaret Krisinger – Newton
- Ron Wilson – Manhattan

Please join me in honoring these great Kansans’ & the Western Trail.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Father. Thank You for the blessings you have bestowed on these You love and have called to guide our State. I pray each one would know Your love and concern for them is eternal, consistent and unconditional.

As each interacts with their colleagues, I pray for a spirit of unity, and mutual respect, regardless of political persuasion or personal desires. We were all created in Your image and have the unique ability to be a person of truth, and Integrity, or one of deceit and personal gain. Help all in this chamber to mirror their Creator and be the person of decency and honor You have created them to be.

I lift all those in our midst, who help things to go smoothly and with order. Thank you for our Sargent of Arms, our clerks, aids, pages and all support personnel. Even though their labor can be overlooked at times and taken for granted I know You are personally aware of their daily contributions. Bless them I pray.

I am reminded of Your Words when You were Instructing us about helping others. You said, "For I was hungry, and you gave me something to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me drink. I was a stranger and You invited Me in; naked and you clothed Me." And many will ask, when did we do these things and You will answer and say, as you did for others, you did as if were actually Me, your creator, you did it for.

I pray for those absent from our midst today, due to sickness or personal difficulties. I pray Your favor and grace might rest upon them.
 And now Lord I pray Your blessings upon each of these who will now engage in the work of our good State.
 I pray in Jesus Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Featherston.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on HB 2487. In Sedgwick County, we lost over 300 souls to overdoses in 2022. Each of these lives is as much a blessing of God as yours or mine. This legislation does not take a lenient stance on crime; it does not excuse illegal activities. Rather, it is a pro-life measure, stressing the importance of safeguarding life. This bill acknowledges the inherent worth and dignity of every individual, even amidst struggles with drug addiction. Each person battling addiction is worthy of preservation and the chance for redemption. – NICK HOHEISEL

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2516. I was strongly opposed to the independent candidate who ran for Governor in the last election, and I endorsed the Republican nominee for Governor. However, I don't believe that this bill is the correct way to solve this problem. I believe that we should implement runoff elections instead. If we were to implement a runoff election system, we would solve this problem without disenfranchising independent candidates. — BRETT FAIRCHILD, SCOTT HILL

MR. SPEAKER: Setting a high bar disincentives candidates who want to run for political office. This is an attack on freedom. It should be a right of Kansans to petition to be on the ballot for an elected office. If there is a concern that there are too many entries and no one candidate receives 50 percent plus one, then there should be a run off election to settle the result. I vote NO on HB 2516. — BILL RHILEY, RANDY GARBER

MR. SPEAKER: We vote against House Bill 2523, as currently written, due to the fact that this is viewed as being anti-agriculture, which agriculture is the largest industry in the state of Kansas. We cannot support a bill that targets agriculture in Kansas. – TROY WAYMASTER, ADAM SMITH, KYLE HOFFMAN, KEN RAHJES, LISA M. MOSER, GARY WHITE, TORY MARIE BLEW, JOE SEIWERT, MICHAEL MURPHY, SUSAN CONCANNON, LEWIS BLOOM, SCOTT HILL

MR. SPEAKER: This is a simple bill. Currently holders of farm permit drivers license can not drive to and from religious activities under the age of 16. This bill allows them to drive to and from religious activities at the age of 15, just like the holder of a restricted license. This bill extends the privileges of farm permit holders. It is not an attack on Ag. It supports Ag. I vote Yes on HB 2523. – SHANNON FRANCIS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2591. This is poor policy, not transparent, and it is in direct oppositions of the Kansas Republican Party Platform to continue to support the UN agenda. – SAMANTHA POETTER PARSHALL, CARRIE BARTH, TREVOR JACOBS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2591 and believe this bill sets a dangerous precedent. The duties of the KCC in regulating monopolies are unique among quasi-judicial bodies and the public deserves more, not less transparency, given that they cannot switch energy providers. I fear that once transparency protections are removed, this body will find that it is exceedingly difficult to restore them. The structure and function of the KCC may well need to be revamped, but exempting their most important work from the open meetings act is not an appropriate solution. – KENNY TITUS

THIRTY-SIXTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, February 29, 2024, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 115 members present.

Reps. Croft, Donohoe, Highberger, Houser, Neighbor, A. Smith and White were excused on verified illness.

Reps. Lewis, Maughan and Meyer were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Good Morning Father; we have gathered together once again to help the people of Kansas have and enjoy better lives. Thank You for the opportunity to invest in such a worthy calling.

Your Word proclaims, "Who may ascend into the hill of the Lord? And who may stand in His holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who has not lifted up his soul to falsehood, and has not sworn deceitfully. They shall receive a blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of their salvation."

I pray for each of these Representatives of our State, to indeed have clean hands and a pure heart. Keep them from any temptation to delve into falsehood or deceitful ways. May each receive Your promised blessings as well as a righteous reputation because they live as character driven individuals.

We lift our families to You today and ask that You would be their constant companion. When they feel the pangs of loneliness, be the One who speaks words of encouragement into their spirits. When they must make decisions without their helpmate, pour wisdom and discernment into them. When they are hurting, be the Great physician, and when unexpected situations occur, be their sustainer.

We pray for our Nation and for all the leaders you have placed in places of great responsibility. Might wisdom be their constant guide. I pray this in Jesus Name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Clifford.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Poskin are spread upon the Journal:

It is my absolute honor to introduce you to my favorite back to back championship team...the Blue Valley North Boys Swim and Dive team! They were our 2023 6A State Champions and they came back for another in 2024, the 11th for the program. Blue Valley North scored 314 points, leading the 2nd place team by nearly 100 points. 14 team members scored in the competition, starting the meet with gold in the 200 medley relay and closing with gold in the 400 free relay.

Having been a swim and dive mom myself, as my own son Jacob swam through college and was coached by a 2000 Blue Valley North State Championship Swim and Dive team member, Grant Messick, I know how hard these young men and their coaches worked to achieve this phenomenal success. You know, with the exception of that one week, where you ask your child to bring in the trash cans and they, "Uh, taper, mom...taper!" Before I recognize the folks up here at the well, I'd like to acknowledge the additional team members and our dedicated parents in the gallery.

First up, we have Senior team captains, Alec Lopez and Max Masilionis: Alec brought home gold in the 400 free relay, silver in the 200 free relay, 10th in the fly and 8th in the 100 free. Max delivered silver in the 200 free relay, 10th in the fly and 11th in the 50 free. Senior Ethan Chan was part of the 200 medley relay gold team and finished 8th in the breaststroke. Senior Klein McGraw placed 7th in the breaststroke.

The strength of the underclassmen showing this year sets the stage for next year's three-peat aspirations: We have Junior Henry Parisi, a member of the 200 free relay gold team who placed 8th in the 200 free and 11th in the 100 free. Junior Connor Golding, whom I had the honor of becoming his next-door neighbor when he was 5 years old, placed third in the breaststroke and 11th in the 200 free. Junior Caleb Twyman placed 8th in the 100 backstroke. And sophomore Khasar Chinbat was a member of the 400 free relay gold team and placed 5th in the 50 free. Harnessing, motivating and coaching these talented young men are coaches Rob Cole and Amy Hanna.

Body, please give a hand to your back-to-back, 2023 and 2024, 6A State Championship team, the Blue Valley North Mustangs Boys Swim and Dive team! We hope to see you back here next year.

Rep. Poskin presented her guests with a framed House certificate in honor of their accomplishments.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote “NO” on HB 2358 because on Page 3 (d), lines 4-6 gives immunity from civil liability to the “cause of death certifier.” Waiving immunity for civil liability ONLY provides protection to one party and not both parties, which is bad policy. I am not okay with waiving the rights of my constituents. Even with someone marking a death certificate in “good faith” does NOT mean they won’t make a mistake. Therefore, I vote NO on HB 2358. – CARRIE BARTH, REBECCA SCHOME

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on HB 2543. In the production livestock industry, brands are an invaluable tool regarding lost or stolen livestock, for the very purpose of determining ownership. Based on direction from membership input of various agricultural groups, there is strong support for HB 2543 to enable the Division of Brands within the Kansas Department of Agriculture to effectively carry out a strong brand program, utilizing one administrative staff position to manage the brand division and two state livestock theft investigators. The livestock industry is willing to pay for the valuable services that HB 2543 provides to preserve and protect our legacies. — LISA MOSER

HB 2608, AN ACT concerning agriculture; relating to animal health; poultry disease control; establishing an annual participation fee not to exceed $50 for participation in the national poultry improvement plan; a certification fee not to exceed $50 for persons performing testing and diagnostic services; a fee not to exceed $100 per visit to each location participating in the plan when testing or diagnostic services related to pullorum typhoid are provided; allowing the commissioner to revoke any national plan hatchery or U.S. pullorum-typhoid clean designation for failure to pay the annual plan participation fee within a 60-day grace period; amending K.S.A. 2-910, 2-912, 2-914 and 2-915 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father. We thank You for the opportunity to start our legislative day with You, the One who not only created us but lifted us to this daunting task of working for our State. Might we be worthy of Your blessings, as well as the confidence of those who said yes to our serving.

We have some busy days and full agendas facing us in the coming days. The necessity of making good decisions for our State is paramount and can, at times, become frustrating. Would You be the One to guide those decisions, as well as our hearts and minds as we work together for the common good of all?

You have taught us from the book of Proverbs, "Two things I asked of Thee. Do not refuse me before I die; keep deception and lies far from me. Give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with the food that is my portion."

O'God, I pray those words might guide all discussion which occurs in this chamber today. Remind us we are colleagues, not competitors, honoring divergent opinions as an opportunity to see things and situations clearly. I pray Your full blessing on these your servants as they strive to make our State a place of beauty and attraction.

Bless our families. I pray each will be proud of how their loved ones comport themselves in every situation which faces them today.

In Jesus Name I pray

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Collins.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Haskins are spread upon the Journal:

Colleagues, if you, like myself, have a love for theatre in our schools, I invite you to join us as I recognize the Kansas Thespians, a chapter of the Educational Theatre Association, and the International Theatre Society as we celebrate Theatre in Our Schools Day at the Capitol.

The Kansas Thespians have a rich history, dating back to 1933 when they joined The International Thespian Society. As the oldest troupe in the western half of the USA, they've been dedicated to shaping lives through theatre education. With 98 active Thespian and Junior Thespian troupes and over 2,900 school members, their impact on our community is profound.

In the gallery is a large representation of the active high school or junior high Thespian members. I'm joined on the floor today by:

- Brenna Rutschmann, Topeka West High School
- Hannah Allen, Topeka West High School
- Emma Culbertson, Topeka High School
- Ayden Smith, Topeka High School
- Roux Harper, Olathe West High School
- Emma Dugan, Maize High School
- Ainslee Magee, Olathe North High School
- Emily Streeter, Salina South High School
- Hayley Loya, Garden City High School
- Ms. Katie Murphy – Assistant Director of Theatre and Troupe Director at Topeka West High School – Troupe

In Kansas alone, over 20,000 students participate in theatre each year. These young talents, supported by passionate teachers and families, bring to life an average of five productions per school annually. That's more than just performances; it's a testament to the dedication and creativity of our youth.

Consider the numbers: over a quarter million Kansans attend these school performances each year, contributing to a box office impact estimated at $1.3 million. But theatre is more than just numbers. It's an experience that transcends our daily lives, transporting us to worlds of imagination and exploration.

It's a catalyst for strengthening society and teaching life lessons. Students who participate in theatre have higher levels of attendance, literacy, GPA, oral communication skills, time budgeting skills, and a litany of numerous other applicable and technical skills.

Former First Lady Michelle Obama once said, "Arts education isn't something we add on after we've achieved other priorities like raising test scores and getting kids into college. It's actually critical for achieving those priorities in the first place." This sentiment rings true as we witness the countless benefits of theatre education.

While demand grows for more graduates with industry-recognized credentials, and as Kansas universities sacrifice majors in the performance arts over more profitable credentials, let's not forget the importance of nurturing creativity, empathy, and human connection. Let's remember that our state was built on the resilience and ingenuity of hard-working individuals who faced adversity with courage and creativity. Theatre in our schools embodies Ad Astra Per Aspera, to the stars through hardship.

Therefore, on this Theatre in Our Schools Day, I ask that my House colleagues join me in welcoming the Kansas Thespians, and all the teachers, students, and families they represent.

Reps. Butler, Donohoe, Poetter Parshall and Schreiber were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Rev. Dr. Annie Ricker, Shawnee Heights United Methodist Church, Topeka, and guest of Rep. Vic Miller.

God of Abundance,

We gladly remember that: “The eyes of all look to you, and you give them their food in due season.

You open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.”

Help us also to remember our neighbors, especially those who are not well-fed, with countless needs that are still unmet.

And remind us, God, that often the way you open your hand is when we open ours.

Help us to live and govern in such a way that your open hands can truly bless our neighbors in Kansas.

It is in your name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Haskins.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Johnson and Underhill are spread upon the Journal:

Rep. Johnson began, today we welcome and honor Tammy Potts of Basehor, Kansas for her community leadership and national acclaim as a mentoring leader in the Kansas mentor and care cat programs. Because of her many years of dedication and care for improving the education of children from pre-school to 12th grade in her own Basehor-Linwood District and modeling the program for other districts statewide, thousands of youths have benefited.

Tammy's career began not in education, but in the news business where she became an award-winning television journalist in the Kansas City area and for national news services. People who remember her news days remember a hard-nosed journalist who reported on some of the city's biggest stories. Her diligence sometimes placed her in dangerous situations, but she never backed down.

Rep. Underhill continued, in 1999, Tammy Potts began her new role in education under the mentor-ship of Kansas State University coach Bill Snyder. With Coach Snyder spearheading the statewide movement to implement the volunteer help of adults in schools as mentors in teaching and behavior modeling, the Kansas Mentor-ship program was created. Coach Snyder brought his success as a coach to education and the mentor program has flourished. In December, Coach Snyder attended Tammy's retirement ceremonies to serve as the guest speaker.

Today, Rep. Johnson is presenting his longtime education friend a certificate from the Kansas House of Representatives which states, "For her historic community leadership as a statewide and nationally acclaimed mentoring leader beginning in 1999 under Coach Snyder and continuing until her retirement in December 2023, she helped her school district and the State of Kansas become the gold standard in mentoring initiatives."

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Moser are spread upon the Journal:

Jewell County, Kansas. 1500 miles of roads-more than any other county in Kansas. The most county bridges of any county in Kansas. Home of more mammoth remains than anywhere else on the Great Plains. Also, home to the highest "Older Population Dependency" ratio in Kansas. As the roads and bridges connect Jewell County citizens, the old and the young, wisdom has been passed down to the youth of Jewell County. These fine young people with me today bring life and energy to Jewell County, and their future is bright.

The average GPA of these six students is 3.85, (four students have 4.0's) and many are taking advanced courses and dual credit courses including trigonometry, calculus, college algebra, and English composition.

I'd like you to meet these fine students from Rock Hills High School, Mankato, Kansas, your 1A State Champion Scholar's Bowl Team:

- Calen Beck - Calen is a junior and plans to attend NCK Technical College to complete the welding program. He aspires to become a leader in a successful business.
- Areielle Jacobs - Areielle is a senior and after high school she plans to be an independent business owner and stay in the Mankato area.
- Cooper Rhea - Cooper is a senior and plans to attend K-State and major in writing. Cooper aspires to become a script writer, technical writer, or work for a publisher.
- Hannah Simmelink - Hannah is a senior and plans to attend the United States Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs to become a space operations officer.
- Isabella Volker - Isabella is a senior and she plans to attend McPherson College to cheer and pursue a career as an elementary or middle school science teacher.

- Ethan Wirth - Ethan is a sophomore and plans to attend K-State and major in electrical engineering following high school.
- Coach Chris Rhea - Coach Rhea has been with Rock Hills for the past 4 years and has coached Scholar's Bowl for 2 years.

Also joining us today in the gallery are the entire junior and senior classes of Rock Hills High School.

Please join Senator Bowers, Representative Waymaster-who used to represent a part of Jewell County, and me in congratulating the 1A State Champion Scholar's Bowl team from Rock Hills High School, USD 107, Mankato, Kansas, home of the Grizzlies!

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Sutton are spread upon the Journal:

Welcome to Gardner Day.

For the first time in twenty years, the Gardner-Edgerton High School boys cross country team brought home another State Championship.

They started the season off with a bang, winning the JK Gold Classic, then went on to win the coveted Kansas City Metro Cross Country Championship. The team finished off the season hitting the trifecta with the Sunflower League Championship, Regional Championship and the State Championship.

The team was led by Parker Walion, who would go on to be named First Team All Sunflower League. He was also named All Regional and All State. Nick Kolonzo and Cade Halton were also recognized as All League and All State selections. The team was named The Greater Kansas City Cross Country Coaches Association Team of the Year.

They are led by the Greater Kansas City Cross Country Coaches Association Coach of the Year, Walt Cochran.

The Trailblazer football program also had a historical season. They finished the season with a 12-1 record and a share of the Sunflower League on their way to a victory over Derby for the first State Championship in school history. This was a complete team effort throughout the summer and fall.

- All League Honors – Dylan Butash, Randy Singleton, Colton Hawkinson, Ethan Whitley, Kaleb Moore, Mark Debiak, Spencer Easley, Kaleb Dewey, Thomas Savastan, Cam and Eli Porter, Ashton Adrian, Gabe James, Serge Otiankouya, Remington Carpenter, Mason Matlock, Bravin Powell, Grant Ellis, Griffin Martin, Chase Bojanski, Zach Hiliard, Isaiah Williams, Max Nichols and Dawson Kindler.
- Sports in Kansas Top 11 - Mark Debiak

- Sports in Kansas Assistant Coach of the Year – Bryan McCall

They are led by Coach Jesse Owen, who was named Sunflower League League Coach of the Year, Sports in Kansas Head Coach of the Year and the Kansas City Chiefs Eric Driskell Coach of the Year. Athletic Director Jason Radel was certainly involved, both in Cross Country and Football.

And there's more. Although Manhattan won the 6A State Wrestling Tournament, GEHS had success there as well, with State Champions Madalyn Riedinger and Kasen Smith. With them is Coach Cordts.

Body, help me congratulate these amazing student athletes and the coaches who made their success possible.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Sutton are spread upon the Journal:

Lest you think that Gardner-Edgerton School District is just about excellent athletics, understand that we're about excellence in general.

The first Milken Educator Awards were presented by the Milken Family Foundation in 1987. Created by Lowell Milken, the Awards provide public recognition and individual financial rewards to elementary and secondary school teachers, principals and specialists from around the country who are furthering excellence in education. Recipients are heralded in early to mid-career for their achievements and the promise of what they will accomplish.

Hailed as the "Oscars of Teaching," the Awards will honor only 75 recipients nationwide in 2023-24.

I present to you one of these very few recipients. Matthew Mayeske breathes life into world history and geography for his ninth and tenth grade students at GEHS, where he was once a student himself. His methods include integrating real-world scenarios and collaborative, inquiry-based instructional practices, transforming study into vibrant learning experiences.

With Mr. Mayeske are two other people who certainly contribute to the success of our teachers and district: Gardner-Edgerton High School Principal Frank Bell and USD 231 Superintendent Dr. Brian Huff.

Body, please join me in congratulating 2023-24 Milken Educator Award winner, Matt Mayeske.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on SB 307. The bill amends the definition of "qualified applicant" to include "for-profit private entities" and I don't support giving taxpayer money to for-profit businesses, even if it's for a good cause. In addition, the bill authorizes members of the board to be paid subsistence allowances, mileage, and other expenses. This will have a small fiscal cost to the state, and I don't believe it's something that's absolutely necessary. — BRETT FAIRCHILD, BILL RHILEY, SCOTT HILL

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Pickert are spread upon the Journal:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Good morning, Body. Today I have the privilege of introducing seniors from Southeast High School, located in Wichita USD 259 and my District 88. Southeast High School is one of the largest high schools in Wichita with student enrollment of 2,045 and 123 teachers. The students here with us today are in the semester long government class taught by Tonya Howard. I had the honor of sharing my experience as a legislator last November in her five government classes. Her classroom environment is one of respectful dialogue. Tonya Howard challenges her students to know by name their city councilman or councilwoman, county commissioner, state representative and senator as well as federal legislators; how to contact their elected officials about issues of concern and what to consider when deciding who to vote for. These students are informed on current issues. Several students have registered to vote. I'm very encouraged about the future of these students as engaged citizens focused on making a difference in their community, thanks to what they're learning in their government class.

Tonya Howard is to be commended for her efforts spent to secure a grant rather than using school or students' personal funds to pay for the trip to the Capitol for 50 students to observe Kansas government in action. Here with me (raise your hand when I call your name) are Citlali Martinez, Clara Mimbi, Damia Boller, Danielle Tucker, Edan Williams Parker, Grace Burrows, Laura Cole, Maya Rubio, Raven Percifield and teacher Tonya Howard. Please help me recognize these students and the Southeast High School government students and chaperones in the gallery.

At this time, I'd like to give special recognition to Tonya Howard for her amazing ability to connect with students in a caring, positive and encouraging manner, empowering them to become informed, engaged citizens of their community, state and country.

Rep. Pickert presented her guests with a framed House certificate in honor their accomplishments.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Martinez are spread upon the Journal:

March is Women's History Month and March 8th is International Women's Day. This is a time to celebrate the remarkable contributions of women and how they have helped shaped our society.

Today I want to welcome Latinas from every congressional district in Kansas as well as High School and College students who have traveled to our great Capitol to celebrate Latina Leaders Day at the Capitol. They have come to learn about the legislative process, tour our Capitol and get to know those that represent them.

This day reminds us of the importance of amplifying women's voices, celebrating their achievements advocating for equality and setting a standard for our future leaders.

Honoring Women's history brings to mind the history of countless Latino/ Hispanic people and trailblazers who have paved the way for progress often in the face of immense challenges and adversity, leaders and movements that have broken barriers helping to reshape our state and country, creating the opportunity for us to be here today. I am presenting a resolution, on Thursday, March 7th to commend and celebrate those efforts and contributions, a resolution that I am proud to say received great bipartisan support.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: “We just want to have more information. Make sure we're making the right decision for these women.” (A Quote from yesterday). I firmly believe “we” have no business in making this type of decision. The voters spoke on August 2nd – I will be voting No on HB 2749. – LYNN MELTON, LINDA FEATHERSTON, MARI-LYNN POSKIN

MR. SPEAKER: I voted No on HB 2749 and stand before you today to convey our responsibility to inform all patients, Kansas citizens and non-Kansans alike, that they have the right to refuse to answer any and all questions asked by a healthcare provider. – MELISSA OROPEZA, LOUIS RUIZ, JOHN CARMICHAEL, ALLISON HOUGLAND, NIKKI McDONALD, FORD CARR, CHRISTINA HASWOOD, SYDNEY CARLIN, TOBIAS SCHLINGENSIEPEN, BRANDON WOODARD, ANGELA MARTINEZ, PAM CURTIS, SUSAN RUIZ, HEATHER MEYER, KIRK HASKINS, JO ELLA HOYE, LINDSAY VAUGHN, VIRGIL WEIGEL, DENNIS MILLER, SILAS MILLER, DENNIS “BOOG” HIGHBERGER, JAROD OUSLEY, JERRY STOGSDILL

MR. SPEAKER: Knowledge is power, and with more knowledge about why women are seeking abortion comes empowerment of choice. According to the Guttmacher Institute, an abortion advocacy research organization, “Understanding women's reasons for having an abortion can inform public debate and policy regarding abortion and unwanted pregnancy.” I couldn't agree more. HB 2749 is essential, narrowly tailored legislation that both pro-life and pro-choice people should be able to agree upon. Kansas women facing an unplanned pregnancy in future years will be the ultimate winners. I will be voting Aye on HB 2749. – BRENDA K LANDWEHR, CHUCK SMITH, NICK

HOEISEL, AVERY ANDERSON, SEAN TARWATER, TORY MARIE BLEW, PATRICK PENN, MARVIN ROBINSON

"(ii) Limitations on discovery of third-party agreements. (a) On motion, a court shall prohibit any inquiry into the existence or nonexistence of a third-party agreement on finding, by a preponderance of the evidence, that such inquiry may cause undue prejudice to the party objecting to such inquiry. When making such finding, the court shall consider the political, ideological or social nature of the case, the likely balance of litigation resources between the parties, whether such inquiry would be proportional to the needs of the case and any other relevant information presented by the parties.

(b) Information concerning the third-party agreement is not by reason of disclosure admissible in evidence at trial.

(c) Subsection (b)(3)(B) shall not be construed to require a nonprofit corporation or association to disclose its members or donors or to require disclosure of otherwise privileged information.

(d) Unless the court finds that a third-party agreement would be admissible under the rules of evidence and necessary to prove an element of a claim in the case, disclosure of the existence or content of such agreement shall not be required in any action brought:

(1) By or on behalf of the state or any political subdivision of the state enforcing a law or seeking to protect against an imminent threat to health or public safety; or

(C) private enforcement is necessary and places a disproportionate financial burden on the plaintiff in relation to the plaintiff's stake in the matter.

(e) When requested by the disclosing party, the court shall issue an order to protect discovery of a third-party agreement from disclosure other than to the parties, the parties' counsel, experts and others necessary to the legal claim.

(iii) The provisions of this subparagraph shall expire on July 1, 2029.

(C) Reporting of third-party agreements. (i) On and after July 1, 2024, any third-party agreement under which a person has a contractual right to receive, directly or indirectly, compensation that is contingent in any respect on the outcome of the claim shall be reported to the judicial council within 45 days after the commencement of an action in any Kansas court in which such a third-party agreement exists or within 45 days after such third-party agreement is entered into, whichever is later. (ii) The clerk of the supreme court shall prescribe a form for use under this subparagraph. Such form shall include a method of reporting whether the third-party agreement is a third-party agreement with a foreign person and any other information the clerk determines is necessary for the judicial council to complete the study required by subsection (b)(3)(D).

Journal of the House

FORTY-FOURTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, March 12, 2024, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 119 members present.

Reps. Donohoe and L. Ruiz were excused on verified illness.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Rev. Everett Schultz, First Mennonite Church, Pretty Prairie and guest of Rep. Seiwert.

Dear heavenly Father, Thank you for this opportunity to pray for these people who represent the citizens of Kansas. I invite you Father to come and be with us in this House Chamber as we look to You in prayer.

Father, these people have so many issues in front of them. The issues of health care, of affordable housing, of safe working conditions and shopping environments, and especially for the safe and effective education for our children. May these people strive to provide schools that encourage high moral values and to provide students a sense of respect and honor for their parents and their teachers. And, as we look to the future, energy and housing and day care for working families will be important factors for the people of this state. Father, please be with each one as they debate and consider these difficult issues.

Give each one wisdom, understanding and a willingness to work together. May their decisions be the correct ones for the continued well-being of all Kansans. Father, help these people to feel the seriousness of their decisions. Their decisions will affect my grandchildren and their grandchildren. And my grandchildren are very precious to me, and I desire for them to have the chance to live with the values, and the freedoms, and the opportunities that I have enjoyed. So Father, be very close to each one in this House Chamber, not only for this session's decisions, but also in all their future decisions.

And lastly, I pray earnestly that each of them know they are bound for heaven. There is no more important decision than knowing you are going to heaven. And Father, if there is anyone here who does not know if they are going to heaven, then help them to place their faith in Jesus as their Savior today. The Bible says "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved." Acts 16:31. Father, it is my prayer that each one here come to know Him, the Savior of the world, so they can be with You in heaven someday. Father, I pray that You will work your work in each heart of each one in this room.

I ask these things in Jesus' name. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Seiwert.

FORTY-FIFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, March 13, 2024, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Hawkins in the chair.

The roll was called with 120 members present.

Reps. Alcala, Averkamp, Donohoe, Humphries and Maughan were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father. We read in Your word, "Record the vision and inscribe it on tablets, that the one who reads it may run. For the vision is yet for the appointed time; it hastens toward the goal, and it will not fail. Though it tarries, wait for it, for it will certainly come, it will not delay."

O God, grant to these legislatures such a vision for The State of Kansas. A vision which speaks to the poor with benevolence, to the downtrodden with empathy, to the discontented with understanding, to the questioning, with answers forged through moral character, to the doubtful with integrity of decision making, and to the critics, with resolve and determination. This vision is indeed for an appointed time. I pray that time is now!

I pray for the sick in our midst. Allow healing to come quickly to their bodies. I pray for those who are struggling with personal relationship issues. Might Your wisdom prevail at all times, as they seek positive resolution.

Allow the work set before us in the coming hours to be approached with cautious wisdom and thoughtful consideration. Might Your peace be very real as the future of our State is debated.

I pray for each representative separated from their families because of their obligation to the people of Kansas. Thank you for calling them to this task of sheparding our State. Encourage them in their work, O God, that they not become discouraged or disillusioned. Now Father, I pray Your manifold blessings on each one in this chamber.

In Jesus Name I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Haswood.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Croft are spread upon the Journal:

Today, we have the honor to celebrate an extraordinary group of young athletes who exemplify what it means to be 'One Team' in every sense of the phrase. I am proud to introduce the Blue Valley West Varsity Baseball team, the back-to-back Kansas 6A State Champions for the years 2022 and 2023.

Under the guidance of Coach Joe Allison and his staff, these remarkable young men have not only achieved excellence on the field, with an impressive combined record of 43 wins and just 7 losses over two seasons but have also excelled academically, boasting a cumulative GPA of 3.85. Their achievements speak volumes about their commitment, both to their sport and their studies.

The Jaguars' team motto, 'I Got Your Back,' or I.G.Y.B., perfectly aligns with the principle of 'One Team' that I hold close. It signifies the essence of teamwork, trust, and mutual support that has propelled them to their success. Each player has embodied this spirit, demonstrating unwavering trust in their teammates and an unwavering commitment to the 'Jaguar Baseball' way of play. This ethos has not only led them to victory but has fostered friendships and memories that will last a lifetime.

Today, I also want to recognize the achievements of those young men who have taken their talents to the next level, committing to continue their athletic endeavors in college. Joining me today is Eli Lovich, who has signed with Arkansas; Easton O'Keefe, committed to Missouri Western State University; Nick Sawyer, heading to Quincy; Brayden Hindes, joining Missouri State West Plains; Jaden Rose, set to play for Butler Community College; and Sage Huffman, who will be playing football at Emporia State. Each of these athletes has shown remarkable dedication and talent, and we are excited to see where their collegiate careers will take them.

I want to express our collective pride and admiration for the Blue Valley West Baseball team. Coach Allison, his assistant coaches, and these outstanding young men have positively represented the Blue Valley West community and their families. They have shown us the power of hard work, unity, and the profound impact of living by the principles instilled in them by their coaches, families, and the Blue Valley community.

Congratulations, Jaguars, on your back-to-back state championships. Your achievements are a testament to your dedication, talent, and the unbreakable bond of trust and support amongst you. You have not only made your school proud but the entire state of Kansas. Thank you for exemplifying the true spirit of teamwork and excellence.

One Team, and Go Jags!

Rep. Croft presented the team and coaches with a framed House certificate in honor of their accomplishments.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Blake Carpenter are spread upon the Journal:

Unfortunately, Representative Humphries is unable to join us today as she is tending to a family matter, and I want to extend our support to her and her family during this time.

Good morning, esteemed members of the Kansas House of Representatives, distinguished guests, and the brave men of the Andover Fire-Rescue. Today, I come before you not only to recognize extraordinary acts of courage and dedication but also to celebrate the spirit of selflessness that represents our state's fire service.

At the core of our state's commitment to valor and service lies the Tom McGaughey Fire Service Award. This prestigious honor, resulting from the collaborative efforts of the Kansas State Association of Fire Chiefs, the Kansas State Firefighters Association, and the Office of the State Fire Marshal, is designed to recognize individuals whose actions go above and beyond the call of duty. Named in memory of Wichita Fire Chief Tom McGaughey, who, along with three other firefighters, made the ultimate sacrifice in 1968, this award stands as a symbol of the highest levels of bravery and commitment in Kansas's fire service.

On May 1, 2023, a call of distress was answered with exceptional bravery by the Andover Fire-Rescue team. Dispatched to a critical situation involving a house fire where multiple individuals with special needs were trapped, the team's response was nothing short of heroic. Facing intense heat and smoke, they embarked on a mission to rescue those in distress.

As they arrived on the scene, they were met with a house engulfed in flames and informed by neighbors that one person was bedridden on the first floor and another with limited mobility spent most of their time in the basement. The Engine 16 crew quickly initiated a search with a hand line, encountering heavy dark smoke and fire threatening to consume the living space from multiple directions.

Firefighter Kevin Taylor managed the line, ensuring a safe path for ingress and egress to the interior of the home. Meanwhile, Lieutenant John Gabriel located the basement stairs and descended to find an individual unable to escape. Lieutenant Gabriel moved the individual up the stairs where he was assisted by Firefighter Caleb Fistler in getting the gentleman out into the care of other responders on scene and was later transported to a burn center for treatment.

Without hesitation, Lieutenant Gabriel and Firefighter Fistler returned to their search and firefighting efforts. The ladder 15 crew had passed the engine crew and were crawling on their stomachs because of the intense heat trying to make it down the hallway to the back bedroom. Captain Cheslic realized they were not going to be able to make it down the hallway due to the incredible amount of heat and made the decision to pull his crew out the front door. They quickly adapted by entering through a bedroom window, where they found another victim, they removed her from the home and began CPR and advanced care by Butler County EMS. She was transported to Kansas Medical Center and unfortunately later passed away.

This act of valor, under conditions of minimal staffing and extreme danger, led to a phenomenal rescue that was later recognized by Kansas State Fire Marshal Mark Engholm. He commended the team for their willingness to risk their lives to save others, a testament to the exceptional courage and dedication that the Tom McGaughey Fire Service Award celebrates.

Today, we honor the recipients of this award, please raise your hands as I call your name so that you may be recognized: Captain Chad Cheslic, Lieutenant John Gabriel my father-in-law, Firefighter Kevin Taylor, Firefighter Jason Emley, Firefighter Caleb Fistler, Firefighter Skyler Aikens and Firechief Chad Russell. Their bravery and quick thinking under pressure not only saved lives but also exemplified the finest traditions of the fire service.

Let us applaud these heroes for their outstanding service to the community of Andover and the state of Kansas. Their actions remind us of the courage, dedication, and spirit of selflessness that define the best of humanity. Thank you, gentlemen, for your incredible bravery and for setting an example for us all.

Rep. Carpenter presented his guests with a framed House certificate in honor of their service and dedication.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Owens are spread upon the Journal:

First, let me invite any legislators that have an Mid Kansas Co-Op location in their district to join me at the podium.

On November 29, 2023, MKC proudly accepted the esteemed Retailer of the Year Award from the Agricultural Retailers Association (ARA) during a ceremony attended by over 600 industry professionals at the 2023 ARA Conference & Expo.

Each year, the ARA Retailer of the Year Award honors an agricultural retailer for going above and beyond in environmental stewardship, community leadership, customer engagement and employee relations.

“By recognizing the full potential of its people, investing in their leadership development, and empowering them to exceed their customers’ expectations, MKC embodies what this award seeks to celebrate,” says ARA President & CEO Daren Coppock. “ARA and the agriculture industry as a whole has benefited greatly from MKC’s leadership and involvement on the ARA Board of Directors, Public Policy Committee, and legislative fly-in events with lawmakers in Washington, DC.”

“We’re very proud to be named ARA’s Ag Retailer of the Year,” says MKC President & CEO Brad Stedman. “We want to share this distinction with our member-owners and employees; they’re the ones who made this possible. Especially our employees, they create the customer experience. This award is a recognition of MKC’s commitment to being an organization that moves the mark in our geography and will continue to serve the needs of farmers in the future.”

This award reflects MKC’s ongoing commitment to excellence and innovation in the agricultural sector. The company looks forward to continuing its tradition of service and contributing to the success of farmers and the broader agricultural community throughout Kansas.

Please join me in celebrating MKC as the 2023 Retailer of the Year.

Rep. Owens presented his guests with a framed House certificate in honor of their accomplishments.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Osman are spread upon the Journal:

I’m joined up here at the podium by members of the Kansas Miss Amazing.

Miss Amazing provides opportunities for girls and women with disabilities across Kansas to build self-esteem. The options available to girls with disabilities should reflect their boundless potential.

But because of widely-held myths about their capabilities, girls with disabilities are often held back from taking risks that could enrich their personal development. They are deprived of opportunities to make friends and granted less access to resources. As a result, girls with disabilities are more likely to experience low self-esteem than girls without disabilities. Women with disabilities are less likely to be employed. They're more likely to live in poverty and the sexual assault rate for disabled women is 12 times higher than those without disabilities.

Miss Amazing Inc. was established in 2007 to help combat that. In 2018, Kansas created its own state organization to work on local issues that girls and women with disabilities face in our state.

Kansas Miss Amazing's mission is to provide unique leadership, self-esteem and self-advocacy opportunities to assist in the building of those skills.

These skills are important to girls and women with disabilities because currently the need for female leaders with disabilities is great. How else can the changes needed be created without the voice of those who have been there and know?

The options for girls and women with disabilities should reflect their limitless potential.

And so I'm joined on the dais by some, frankly, amazing women and girls. They are: Michelle Roberts, State Director, Kansas Miss Amazing and Miss Amazing Representatives: Yasmine Derritt, Kathryn Morrison, Paisley Locke, Shirley Cook, Sara Smittle and Isabella Altier.

Thank you all for coming to the Capitol today and good luck representing Kansas in the national conference in July.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2527 for many reasons: This bill gives Evergy the authority to give discounts to businesses and pass 90% of the depreciation expense back to Kansans'.

- KCC opponent testimony estimates $58.6M per year for the EKC/Westar footprint. These same rate payers just endured a $74M 2023 rate increase.
- Last year Evergy shareholders made 66% totalling $534M.
- Number of facilities Evergy wants to build
- New transmission lines and the cost
- Eminent Domain

In a regulated monopoly the rate payers depend on us as legislators to protect their interest as they have no free market choice. – CARRIE BARTH

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2527. My constituents deserve better than legislation that yet again picks winners and losers, just as the APEX bill was sold as economic development, this is being sold the same way.

After reading the bill, listening to an explanation of the bill, and rereading the bill - it's clear what we are being sold as "economic development" is in reality legislation crafted to benefit a publicly-traded, government-sanctioned monopoly - not everyday Kansans. Our constituents deserve better than us giving yet another deal-out in the name of "economic development" - especially when we can't even agree on a tax plan. – SAMANTHA POETTER PARSHALL, TREVOR JACOBS

Sub Bill for SB 233, AN ACT concerning children and minors; relating to healthcare of minors; enacting the forbidding abusive child transitions act; prohibiting healthcare providers from treating a child whose gender identity is inconsistent with the child's sex; authorizing a civil cause of action against healthcare providers for providing such treatments; restricting use of state funds to promote gender transitioning; prohibiting professional liability insurance from covering damages for healthcare providers that provide gender transition treatment to children; requiring professional discipline against a healthcare provider who performs such treatments; adding violation of the act to the definition of unprofessional conduct for physicians; amending K.S.A. 65-2837 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 80; Nays 40; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 5.

The substitute bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on Senate Bill 233 because I stand with the healthcare providers in the state of Kansas. To the LGBTQ + community under the age of 18 and your parents: I care about you, I see you, I hear you and I stand with you. — MELISSA OROPEZA, CHRISTINA HASWOOD, ALLISON HOUGLAND, JO ELLA HOYE, CINDY NEIGHBOR, JARROD OUSLEY, HEATHER MEYER, LYNN MELTON, TOBIAS SCHLINGENSIEPEN, FORD CARR, JOHN CARMICHAEL

MR. SPEAKER: The voices of parents who have spoken; sent emails; text messages and testimony about the harm this bill will inflict on them still linger in my mind. I'm elevating their fears and concerns by speaking for them here in this chamber.

"Lupron saved my son's life and now is on the table as a criminal act..."

"Our decision was ours and it was private."

"As a parent, you will do anything for your child..."

Voting Yes will deny access to medical services and totally ostracize these families. I vote No on Sub SB 233— SUSAN RUIZ

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on H Substitute for SB 233. I find it ironic that on Mental Health and Suicide Prevention Day at the Capital, my colleagues across the aisle are determined to pass legislation that would attack vulnerable kids.

Penalizing doctors for providing legal, federally approved gender affirming care will cause an exodus of health care workers while we already struggle with health care staffing issues.

I urge everyone to vote NO on SB 233, and focus on Legislation that seeks to expand, build and strengthen our state instead of BAN, RESTRICT, and PENALIZE our constituents based on debunked pseudo-science.

– SILAS MILLER, LINDA FEATHERSTON

MR. SPEAKER: I stand in support of House Sub for Sen 233, My primary concern when considering these issues has been the welfare and well-being of children and adolescents. These vulnerable kids are in a critical phase of emotional and psychological development. The irreversible nature of surgical interventions, hormone therapy and puberty blockers are an unacceptable burden for Kansas kids to bear. Instead of these irreversible interventions, we should prioritize treating the underlying mental health conditions for which almost all gender dysphoric kids suffer. Combined with the key investments we've made in mental health, strikes the right balance in protecting and supporting some of the most vulnerable kids in our state. – BRENDA LANDWEHR, SUSAN ESTES

MR. SPEAKER: I vote Yes on H Sub SB 233. It is a good bill, a needed bill, and represents a Kansas common sense approach. The opponents of this bill are disingenuous. One year ago they could not even define what a woman is! The voices that failed on that simple test have absolutely no standing to lecture us on SB 233. I vote for biological reality, for the inherent goodness of our created bodies male and female, and will fight those who with public money harm or disfigure the youth of Kansas. The gender confusion of children is one thing, the policy confusion Of adults is another. Genuine compassion votes Yes on SB 233. – PAUL WAGGONER, SCOTT HILL

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on H Substitute for SB 233. A young lady held up a sign that read: 1. We want to be seen; 2. We want to be heard; 3. We want to belong. You do belong, but let's not make that decision or surgery until you are 18. – CHUCK SMITH

MR. SPEAKER: I have sat with and listened to my constituents on both sides of this bill. I see them, I hear them, and I can appreciate their perspectives. I respectfully vote yes on House Sub for SB 233, which protects children and bans medical practices that result in often-permanent damage to minors.

Recently, WPATH whistleblowers leaked extensive internal documents revealing the disturbing truth that many influential WPATH members admit children both lack the ability to discern the gravity of the life-altering medical decisions and cannot comprehend "the extent to which some of these medical interventions are impacting them." I vote yes. Kansas kids shouldn't worry if medical treatments lead to irreversible harm. – PATRICK PENN

MR. SPEAKER: My no vote on House Sub SB 233 reflects my concerns about bodily autonomy, parent rights, doctor/patient relationships and respect for personal decisions made between children, parents and medical providers. – NIKKI McDONALD

MR. SPEAKER: I look forward to the day that state-sanctioned discrimination is a thing of the past. Just because you do not understand a portion of the community does not mean you belong in their healthcare provider's office. I vote NO on Sub SB 233

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Rhiley, B. Carpenter, K. Williams and Tarwater are spread upon the Journal:

Rep. Rhiley began: Today we stand before you to speak on a matter close to the hearts of millions across our nation and the world—St. Patrick's Day. This year, our celebration transcends the wearing of green and the parades that paint our streets in vibrant hues. We come together to honor not just a day, but a century of deep-rooted friendship and diplomatic relations between the United States and Ireland.

On March 17th, as we revel in the annual Feast of Saint Patrick, we pay homage to the patron saint of Ireland. Yet, this day signifies more than just a cultural festivity; it symbolizes the enduring bond between Irish Americans and people of all origins who share a mutual admiration and love for Ireland.

Rep. B. Carpenter continued: A century ago, our nations took a significant step forward when Timothy Smiddy presented his credentials to President Calvin Coolidge, formally establishing diplomatic relations between Ireland and the United States. This pivotal moment laid the foundation for a relationship based on mutual respect, cooperation, and shared values.

The contributions of the Irish to America are immeasurable. From the skyscrapers of Manhattan to the expansive routes of the transcontinental railroad, Irish immigrants have played a critical role in shaping the United States. Their influence extends beyond physical structures to the very fabric of our society, including our political system where more than 20 U.S. Presidents have claimed Irish ancestry.

Rep. K. Williams continued: As we celebrate the 100th anniversary of these diplomatic ties, we also recognize the profound impact of Irish Americans. Nearly one out of ten Americans today identifies as being of Irish descent, a testament to the deep roots and influence of the Irish in our great nation.

Therefore, we call upon the body to commemorate the Feast of Saint Patrick and celebrate a century of friendship between the United States and Ireland. Let us recognize the indelible contributions of Irish Americans and pledge to foster and strengthen the bond between our countries for the mutual benefit of all.

Rep. Tarwater concluded: Body, as you may remember, I stood before you last year and told you about my family and a little bit of history. I told you of my grandfather, Tom Shine's, journey to America and how he saved for years to bring the love of his life over. I shared about his membership in the Ancient Order of Hibernians and his 1981 induction to the Order of St. Patrick.

Today, I would like to share a little bit about the Gaelic Mass that happens each year in Kansas City.

Each year we honor the Irish that have passed away since the Mass the previous year.

We honor our family members and loved ones who have gone before us as we celebrate their homecoming with moments of their lives at the start of the Mass. Our traditions tell us where we have been. Our families inform us of where we are.

And, as we gather for this Eucharist in faith, we discern our hope for eternal life in Christ. Faith, Family and traditions summarize who we are as a people as we move forward in Faith, Hope and Charity.

This year, I was honored to walk down the aisle with a picture of my mother, who passed away in September, and place her picture on the alter for Mass, as they called out "Mary Margaret Tarwater".

If you recall Senator Mark Daley, the 24th chair of the Senate of Ireland was here earlier this year.

Speaker pro tem organized bagpipes to welcome him to the Kansas House of Representatives. The Senator was impressed. In fact, we were the most welcoming state of the multi-state tour that he took.

In Gratitude, on the Senator's behalf, I would like to present this Flag to Speaker pro tem Blake Carpenter.

This Irish Flag was flown from 33 The Mall, in Waterford, from where Thomas F. Meagher flew a tricolor flag for the very first time on the 7th of March 1848.

In closing, I extend my heartfelt appreciation to the American Irish State Legislators Caucus, with leadership in all 50 states, for its unwavering commitment to maintaining and enhancing the ties that bind our nations together. May the enduring spirit of Ireland continue to inspire and enrich our lives.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on HB 2521. This legislation takes rights and responsibilities away from our State Board of Education, it denigrates the excellence of our current classroom teachers and most importantly, hurts our young people, especially at the elementary level, by allowing less than qualified individuals to bring less than adequate instruction to the front of their classrooms.

It would be nice if we would actually address the underlying causes of why we have 1,800 teaching vacancies instead of passing legislation which lowers our education standards in an effort to ignore or gloss over those actual causes. – JERRY STOGSDILL, KIRK HASKINS, LOUIS RUIZ, VALDENIA WINN, ALLISON HOUGLAND, SILAS MILLER, LINDA FEATHERSTON

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on HB 2521. One of the core functions of the KS State Board of Education is teacher accreditation. This bill undermines that authority. Our State Board is elected by Kansas Voters, so they do not need another elected body to do their job. This bill panders to one entity and is an “end run” around the State Board. Furthermore, this bill is an affront to all Kansas teachers, who have worked so hard to get their teaching degree to educate our Kansas children. While we have significant teacher manpower issues, this bill is not the answer. – JOHN EPLEE, JESSE BORJON, MARK SCHREIBER, DAVID YOUNGER, LAURA WILLIAMS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on HB 2521. Kansas Board of Education's authority should not be usurped by the Legislature. – NIKKI McDONALD

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on SB 431. Whether you are Catholic, Christian, practice a different faith or are not religious, we should all be able to agree on the great attributes of Fr. Kapaun. A man who volunteered to serve and minister in the most difficult and dangerous of circumstances. During his time as chaplain, and especially while being a POW, his fellow soldiers admired his kindness, humility, cheerfulness, piety, and hard work. Let us never forget his memory and may we all strive towards being selfless and humble as he was. Fr. Kapaun, pray for us. — BRIAN BERGKAMP

Journal of the House

FORTY-NINTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, March 19, 2024, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 121 members present.

Rep. Houser was excused on verified illness.

Reps. Minnix, Vaughn and White were excused on legislative business.

Prayer by Chaplain Holmes:

Dear Father, Your word teaches “who among you is wise and understanding? Let them show by their good behavior their deeds in the gentleness of wisdom. If you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, do not be arrogant and so lie against the truth. For where jealousy and selfish ambition exists, there is disorder and every evil thing.”

Lord, we implore You to keep our hearts clear of anything which would hinder this work we are putting our hearts and minds to. Might our decisions come through the gentleness of wisdom, and never through self appointed motives. We need order in our personal, as well as our professional lives. We seek that today!

Thank You for the work which we have already accomplished for the good people of Kansas. You have guided this chamber in ways too numerous to measure. As we look back on what has been accomplished, allow a smile to blossom in our hearts as well as our lips.

Today, is a new day with new challenges. As Your still small voice has guided us in the past, we trust for the same today.

For those who are becoming a bit weary of body, I pray new strength and determination for them.

I pray for our Nation today. These in this room understand better than most the challenges our National leaders are facing.

Bless our families. Their importance in our lives never wains regardless of how busy we become.

I pray this in Jesus Name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Delperdang.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Neighbor are spread upon the Journal:

“She always listens and talks to me and has the heart for making connection with students” stated Sophie Lewczenko, a fifth grade student. Sophie first became acquainted with Dr. Hubbard through a classroom letter-writing project. Sophie was also a student interviewer at the 2022 Shawnee Mission Education Foundation Fall Breakfast. For all the journalists out there, beware that Sophie can ask some very hard questions!

The Kansas School Superintendents’ Association selected Dr. Michelle Hubbard following as the 2024 Superintendent of the Year, following a multi-round process, which began with 16 candidates and culminated in individual interviews with the three finalists. These interviews were conducted by a panel of five former Kansas Superintendents of the Year.

“Leaders who can calm the noise and make learning real for the kids-that’s who we like to celebrate explained G.A. Buie, executive director of the United School Administrators of Kansas of Kansas. “Dr. Hubbard epitomizes what that goal is. The growth for everyone, the success for everyone, and helping everyone truly find their own way to shine.”

Dr. Hubbard was appointed superintendent of the Shawnee Mission School District in 2021. Prior to becoming superintendent, Dr. Hubbard served for five years as the associate superintendent of learning and leadership and for a year as deputy superintendent. She was superintendent in the Turner School District for seven years.

She stated, “there are so many great superintendents in the state advocating for kids every single day; I feel so grateful to be included on this list. Every day I feel fortunate to come to work with the amazing students and staff in my community. I hope this recognition shines a spotlight on all the incredible work happening in Shawnee Mission and across the state to support student achievement and make our public schools great places to learn.

It is now my great pleasure, along with my Shawnee Mission Colleagues, to recognize Dr. Michelle Hubbard, the first Shawnee Mission Superintendent, to receive Superintendent of the Year.

Rep. Neighbor presented Dr. Hubbard with a framed House certificate in honor of her many accomplishments.
