

2023 Kansas Statutes

23-2302. Same; child is natural child at law. Any child or children heretofore or hereafter born as the result of heterologous artificial insemination shall be considered at law in all respects the same as a naturally conceived child of the husband and wife so requesting and consenting to the use of such technique.

History: L. 1968, ch. 272, § 2; July 1.