

2023 Kansas Statutes

65-67a10. Disposition of fetal remains. Every maternity center and medical care facility licensed by the department of health and environment to operate in the state shall adopt written policies and inform parents regarding their options for disposition or taking of fetal remains in an event of a fetal death.

History: L. 2008, ch. 98, § 3; July 1.