

2023 Kansas Statutes

76-3a17. Health sciences building; continuation of capital improvement project. The capital improvement project to construct a joint facility for the college of health related professions and the Wichita branch of the university of Kansas medical center at Wichita state university is hereby redesignated as a capital improvement project to construct a health sciences building at Wichita state university. The capital improvement project to construct a health sciences building at Wichita state university shall be a continuation of the capital improvement project to construct a joint facility for the college of health related professions and the Wichita branch of the university of Kansas medical center except that such project shall not be constructed for use by the Wichita branch of the university of Kansas school of medicine.

History: L. 1978, ch. 381, § 1; May 5.