

2023 Kansas Statutes

77-133. Same; other material included. The revisor of statutes shall prepare and include in the Kansas statutes annotated:

- (a) Prefatory material, including statement of copyright authority, authentication statements and table of contents;
- (b) captions prefacing the text of the statutes and constitutions, showing their scope, in boldface type;
- (c) the history of each statutory section;
- (d) source notes and revisor's notes;
- (e) cross references to related or qualifying provisions of other sections of the statutes;
- (f) appropriate research and practice aids citing pertinent parts of other publications relating to Kansas laws if made available by the publisher thereof;
- (g) notes, where possible and appropriate, citing identical statutes of other states;
- (h) case annotations covering the reported decisions of the state and federal courts construing and interpreting Kansas laws; and
- (i) table of sections showing location of present and former legislative enactments in compilation.

History: L. 1963, ch. 454, § 3; L. 1988, ch. 364, § 2; July 1.