Dear God,

Thank you for the life you have given us today. Let our discussions and decisions lead to the life you give today.

As this body comes together grant them unity. Despite different backgrounds, experiences, political parties and agendas help find the things that unite us. Help us to listen and truly understand the viewpoint of others. Give us wisdom in the decisions that need to be made today. In those decisions help us understand and make the decisions that are best for the residents of Kansas.

In the halls, in session and after session help us treat each other with the love and kindness you created us for.

In the name of Christ Jesus I pray, Amen.
