

Journal of the House

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, February 14, 2012, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker O'Neal in the chair.

The roll was called with 124 members present.

Rep. Henderson was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Loving God,
Today is a day that we turn our attention and focus to "love."
As we show expressions of our love to one another,
may we not neglect to reflect upon the love that You have for us.
"You put Your love on the line for us
by offering Your Son in sacrificial death while we were of no use whatever to You."
You then go on to tell us to
"love each other as You have loved us."
As we reach out to one another in a loving way,
we reach out to our colleague, Representative Grant,
whose brother just passed away.
Please show him and the family Your love,
strength, grace and comfort in these days.
We also pray for Sergeant-at-Arms, Wayne Owen, who today is going through a very serious
and potentially dangerous surgery.
Thank you for those whom you have gifted with knowledge, skills and abilities to perform this surgery.
Please be present in that operating room—
guiding and directing all medical personnel.
Be the source of strength and courage to the Owen family,
and bring complete healing to his body.
In Christ's Name I pray, Amen.
(Romans 5:8; John 15:12)

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Wetta.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Phelps are spread upon the journal:

U.S. News & World Report, which produces one of the most popular annual rankings of universities, released its first-ever national rankings for online education. Fort Hays State University was among the leaders in most of the categories. Its undergraduate programs ranked #2 nationally and three of its graduate programs received rankings of distinction.

Fort Hays State University is a forward-thinking liberal and applied arts university, and is recognized internationally for offering more than 60 degrees in a technology-rich environment.

Founded in 1902 as the western branch of the Kansas Normal School, Fort Hays State has never wavered from its mission to provide a quality education.

Today, FHSU offers over 5,000 students an outstanding on-campus experience by delivering opportunities for higher education to the 66 counties of western Kansas. In addition, FHSU serves another 7,900 students in greater Kansas and around the world through its award-winning Virtual College which offers 34 bachelor's and master's programs and over 50 undergraduate and graduate certificates.

Fort Hays State University has aggressively worked hard to incorporate a business-like mentality and efficiencies of operation to maintain low cost of delivery, resulting in a high-value educational offering for students in Kansas and through the United States and the world.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Even though this provision is not often used, HB 2515 promotes state intervention in how local governments choose to spend their money. Bigger, more intrusive state government is reason enough to vote no. But this is also an attempt to preclude local governments from ensuring that local workers get jobs and that those jobs pay a living wage. This is a thinly-veiled notch in the belt for the anti-labor, anti-Kansas worker lobby. A sad day for Kansas. I vote no. — ANN MAH
