

Journal of the House

SIXTY-FIFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, May 9, 2012, 10:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker O'Neal in the chair.

The roll was called with 124 members present.

Rep. LeDoux was excused on verified illness.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord,
 Some may have come in today
 feeling a bit jet lagged from being here late last night.
 Some may be feeling like the saying that,
 “a conclusion is the place where you get tired of thinking,”
 and wonder if in exhaustion, we made wise decisions.
 Today, help each one to seek to live, speak, act and decide for that which brings honor to You.
 I pray for our Speaker as he leads this House and builds bridges between the two bodies of the legislature
 I pray for the Majority and Minority leaders as they work together to bring about consensus between the two parties.
 I pray for the Caucus Chairs as they work with their party members—leading to know when to stand firm, and when to reconsider.
 Help them all to remember the “Big Four”— communication – cooperation – consideration – collaboration.
 And, Lord, we thank you today for the best college football coach ever – and, yes, I am biased!
 Seriously, we do appreciate and recognize all that
 Coach Snyder has done not only for the school, but for the state of Kansas.
 In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Prescott.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

HB 2631, HB 2777 approved on May 8, 2012.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Meier are spread upon the Journal:

As Mother's Day is right around the corner, we are all thinking about the strong women in our lives and Kansas is known for its strong women. If you ever take the time for a walk on the Capitol grounds, you will notice the statue dedicated to the pioneer women of Kansas on the South lawn. We honor our strong women in Kansas.

Before you, stands a group of young strong women, strong pioneer women - literally. This is the Leavenworth Highschool Pioneers Girls Powerlifting Team.

On March 31st, these Lady Pioneers made the trip to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, to compete in the Natural Athlete Strength Association Highschool Nationals. There, they earned multiple team and individual awards and brought 3 National titles home to Kansas. They earned the National Title for Power Press Combined, the National Title for Junior/Senior Unequipped Powerlift, and the National Title for Unequipped Powerlift Combined.

The Lady Pioneers showed their dominance of the meet by having 13 compete on that day, with 12 lifters on the team doing no worse than second place in any event they entered.

I would like to introduce the individual National Champions:

Freshman Hannah Overbey earned her national champion title in Unequipped Powerlifting for the Freshman/Sophomore division and she earned the Overall Best Lifter award as the pound-for-pound strongest in Powerlifting. Hannah also took 2nd in Power Press to her teammate Maggie Lee.

Maggie Lee earned her title as National Champion for the second year in a row, in both the power clean/ bench press event and Unequipped Powerlifting for the Junior/Senior division. Maggie was the Overall Best Lifter in Power Press and earned new American records in every lift. The highlight of the day for Lee was the fact that she had been trailing a girl from Oklahoma the entire day in Powerlifting, and came back to win during the deadlift by setting an American record of 269.5 lbs.

Senior Lauren Patelli lead the way as the National Champion in Power Press, an event contested by all high school weight classes for females, recording an American record of 143 lbs clean and a 99 lb bench press. Lauren also took 2nd in the Junior/Senior Powerlifting division to her team mate and first year contestant, Tabitha Larkin.

Tabitha Larkin took 3rd in Power Press in addition to her National Champion title in the Junior/Senior Powerlifting division. During Tabitha's road to her national title, she posted an American record squat of 214.5 lbs.

Senior Janay Johnson finished her Leavenworth Powerlifting career in style by repeating as national champion in two events. Janay hoisted the American records in every lift, and was the Overall Best Lifter for Power Press and Outstanding Lifter for all weight classes and age groups, earning her a very unique championship belt that was almost too big for her to wear. The two awards make for seven total best lifter trophies earned by Janay during the 2012 calendar year, a feat that would be difficult to match by any competitive lifter of any age.

Junior Lacie Thornton earned her National Champion titles for a second year, in both Power Press and Powerlifting. Lacie also broke an American record in Power Press on the strength of her personal record of a 143 lb clean and a 115.5 lb bench press.

Hunter Anne Postier came in 2nd place for unequipped Powerlifting and earned her National Champion titles in both the Power Press and Bench Press by setting American records in the clean at 176 lbs and the bench press at 137.5 lbs.

Emily Ruble took home her National Champion titles in both the Clean and Bench Press for the second year in a row.

Accompanying the team today is their proud coach, Daniel Capps, and the highschool's Athletic Director, Shawn Terry.

I am sure you all agree, this is quite an impressive group of young ladies. I have a certificate for the team that reads:

Fellow Representatives, please help me to recognize our strong women of Kansas and Leavenworth Highschool: the Leavenworth Highschool Pioneer Girls Powerlifting Team.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no S Sub for HB 2117 because it pits those who are a business against those who get a W-2 from the business. It runs the state in the red and will not grow anything. Voting for something in a high pressure last minute deal is not the way to run a railroad, no wait, I guess that is exactly the way to run a Railroad.-- BILL OTTO

MR. SPEAKER: S Sub for HB 2117 will decimate any possibility of properly funding education. I have been on the losing side of many issues in my 17 years here, but this is the first time I've been ashamed of the process. I vote NO on S Sub for HB 2117. – GERALDINE FLAHARTY

MR. SPEAKER: Economists have long debated the value of tax cuts on the economy. To assume that tax cuts will so increase business that the net effects will be a revenue gain is a myth. This was tried, of course, under President Reagan, and found to be wanting. Estimates generated from our research department show that our budget will be underwater in 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017—I vote no on S Sub for HB 2117. – SYDNEY CARLIN

MR. SPEAKER: Members of the Kansas House of Representatives I, like you, was elected to represent the citizens of my, or your, district, in this body. I believe all of the citizens of Kansas believe we live in a democratic republic. It is not a principle of a democratic republic to stifle debate. I vote no on S Sub for HB 2117. – BOB BETHELL

MR. SPEAKER: I was elected to represent the citizens of the 86th District. With this maneuvering my constituents' voices and concerns have not been heard—they have been disregarded, disenfranchised, and marginalized. Mr. Speaker, I vote NO on S Sub for HB 2117. – JUDITH LOGANBILL

MR. SPEAKER: This is a train wreck. This is not conservative policy. I vote no on S Sub for HB 2117. – VINCENT WETTA

MR. SPEAKER: This bill affects all Kansans—not just some. Yet, only a small percentage were allowed to be represented today. Debate has been intentionally stifled by a small majority of this chamber. I am appalled that so little consideration of our constituents has been given. For this reason, I must vote no on S Sub for HB 2117. – ANNIE TIETZE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on S Sub for HB 2117 because I believe voting on this bill without the opportunity of being vetted or debated by the elected officials of each district of this state is not only irresponsible but disgraceful.

Unlike others in this chamber, I am not surprised to see the voices of our represented districts silenced. For the four years I have been here in the House chamber, I have repeatedly seen many voices, organizations, and people in need completely ignored time after time. I hope and pray we will do better in the future. We all work for the citizens of Kansas and apparently we have forgotten. – GAIL FINNEY

MR. SPEAKER: We have had to make massive cuts to programs for seniors, veterans, children, schools, the disabled and the families in need of assistance in the past few years because of the poor economy. Now that the economy is improving we are going to artificially devastate the State general fund and create the need for future massive cuts to these programs. This tax policy breaks the promise that we have made to Kansas citizens and will make Kansas a good place to live for only the most wealthy. Mr. Speaker, I vote “No” on S Sub for HB 2117. – ED TRIMMER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on S Sub for HB 2117 simply because I do not know enough about it to vote yes. The debate was stopped prematurely by a procedure that was exercised to stifle our due diligence by limiting our deliberations.

This is indeed a sad day when we do not give all colleagues of differing viewpoints the courtesy of time to ask questions, clarify and to state their opposing positions. Oddly enough the same procedure also limited statements of support. – JOHN C GRANGE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on this motion to concur on S Sub for HB 2117. The Senate tax plan was voted down and was only reconsidered and passed after pressure from the governor. Now we are passing a tax plan that put us $2.7 billion in the hole, but we are assured that the administration says “We can make it work.” There is also the notion that the bill will remain unsigned until the Senate “comes to its senses.” This is Washington politics of the highest order, some will call it blackmail. Kansans should be ashamed of its legislature today. This is not the Kansas way. – CHARLES ROTH

MR. SPEAKER: Walking up to the edge of the cliff. We watched Congress do that last winter with devastating effects on the stock market, business, consumer confidence and the resulting human toll to everyone in the U.S. Economy.

This is no different in the toll it will put on Kansas, its services, its roads, its schools, and most importantly its people

The short-changing of our colleague's rights to explain their vote and change their votes is unprecedented. I vote no on S Sub for HB 2117. – TOM MOXLEY

Mr. Speaker: I vote No on S Sub for HB 2117. In my almost twenty years in the House of Representatives, I have never seen debate stifled in this manner. I have spent a lot of late nights in this Chamber listening and debating a lot of tough and contentious issues. It is sad to see some members of this Chamber, not allow their colleagues their opportunity to represent the people who elected them. I vote no on S Sub for HB 2117. – BOB GRANT

MR. SPEAKER: Today is a sad day in the people's House. As debate was stifled on this bill there were at least 10 Representatives waiting to address the legislation. I do not believe there is one among us who is not prepared to support tax relief this year. I do not believe there is one among us who does not believe that Kansas economy is rebounding and that our revenues will increase during the next year. We can afford to simplify and lower taxes. This bill goes way too far. This is the most irresponsible legislation I have seen in my career. I vote no on S SUB FOR HB 2117. – DON HILL

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on S Sub for HB 2117. For too many years our state had a failed tax policy that has put us in the red, and it is time we move our state forward with a tax plan that will grow our economy and create jobs. This tax plan will lower income and sales tax for all Kansans and create better jobs that will increase the quality of life for Kansans. – BRENDA K. LANDWEHR, AMANDA GROSSERODE, SHARON SCHWARTZ, DENNIS E. HEDKE, TERRILOIS GREGORY, BRETT HILDABRAND, CONNIE O'BRIEN, RANDY GARBER, JANA GOODMAN, PEGGY MAST, KYLE HOFFMAN, JOE SEIWERT, JOHN RUBIN, JOSEPH SCAPA
