

Payment for Paraprofessional Services to Districts; HB 2777

HB 2777 includes special teachers who assist in providing special education and related services to students at the Kansas State School for the Blind (KSSB) and Kansas State School for the Deaf (KSSD) when calculating special education state aid for each district and allows KSSB and KSSD to receive payment from the district for providing services to students at each of the schools.