

Pesticide Licenses

SB 186 allows the Secretary of Agriculture discretion in suspending a pesticide business license without a hearing until compliance is reached, if a pesticide business does not employ one or more commercial applicators that are certified in each type of commercial pesticide application the pesticide business uses. Prior law stated the Secretary of Agriculture must suspend the license if the pesticide business was not in compliance with the law.