Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Heavenly Father,

As we draw nearer to the close of this session,
thank You for your guidance, patience, faithfulness, and wisdom.

Thank You for helping us to listen with our ears and hearts, and to recognize that our questions have been just as important as our answers.

Thank You for helping us keep our minds focused more on the positive, and if we have been negative towards one another, please forgive us.

Thank You for helping us work together, and if at any time we have lost our temper with one another,
please forgive us.

There may have been times when we have been very stressed due to the confusion created in our minds that overrode the body's desire to choke someone.

Thank You for helping us to have restraint.

For the remainder of our days, I pray Your Word that admonishes us to,
"listen to advice and accept instruction, and in the end we will be wise."

I pray this in Your Name, Amen.

(Proverbs 19:20)

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Kuether.

Now, turning to the boy's 4A State Championship MHS boys, this season, accumulated a 23-1 Record. This is the 12th State Championship for boys BB program;
