

MEMORANDUM

To: Senate Committee on Education
From: Jason B. Long, Senior Assistant Revisor
Re: Statutes repealed by HB 2140 and HB 2156
Date: March 11, 2013

Attached are copies of the statutes being repealed by HB 2140 and HB 2156. First, K.S.A. 72-60b03 provides that the provisions of the Midwestern Higher Education Compact will expire on January 1, 1996, if the compact fails to become effective by December 31, 1995. The compact became effective in March of 1991. Therefore, this statute is no longer necessary.

Second, K.S.A. 72-6422 establishes the area vocational fund in each school district. Vocational instruction, or career technical education, is now funded through the Kansas Board of Regents. Unified school districts no longer budget area vocational school funds, therefore, the fund is no longer necessary.

Finally, K.S.A. 72-8189 provides that for tax years 1988 through 1991, the "local effort" of U.S.D. 450 does not include the property taxes collected for Heartland Park of Topeka. This statute no longer has any effect, and is therefore, no longer necessary.
