

January 28, 2014

The Honorable John Rubin, Chairperson
House Committee on Corrections and Juvenile Justice
Statehouse, Room 151-S
Topeka, Kansas 66612

Dear Representative Rubin:

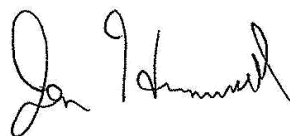

SUBJECT: Fiscal Note for HB 2425 by House Committee on Corrections and Juvenile Justice Oversight

In accordance with KSA 75-3715a, the following fiscal note concerning HB 2425 is respectfully submitted to your committee.

HB 2425 would amend exiting law by specifying that certain graduated sanctions for violations of probation or post-release supervision would apply if the original crimes were felonies. The sanctions would apply to violations of conditions of release or assignment or non-prison sanctions occurring on and after July 1, 2013, regardless of the date of conviction for the original crime.

The Office of Judicial Administration estimates that passage of HB 2425 would have no fiscal effect on the Judicial Branch. The Office states that the bill would put into law procedures that are currently practiced. According to the Kansas Sentencing Commission, HB 2425 would have no effect on prison admissions, prison bed space, or the workload of the agency.

Sincerely,

Jon Hummell,
Interim Director of the Budget

cc: Jeremy Barclay, Corrections
Mary Rinehart, Judiciary
Scott Schultz, Sentencing Commission